

CHAPTER 24.

An Act to amend the description of the persons with whom arrangements may be made under the National Health Insurance Act, 1936, for the dispensing of medicines.

A.D. 1937.

[25th March 1937.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. Subsection (2) of section forty-one of the National Health Insurance Act, 1936 (which provides for prohibiting arrangements for the dispensing of medicines being made with persons other than persons who are entitled under the Pharmacy and Poisons Acts, 1852 to 1933, to use the title chemist and druggist) shall have effect, and shall be deemed always to have had effect, as if for the words "entitled under the Pharmacy and Poisons Acts, 1852 to 1933, to use the title chemist and druggist" there were therein substituted the words "registered pharmacists or authorised sellers of poisons within the meaning of the Pharmacy and Poisons Act, 1933".
