*Coal Mines
(Employment of Boys) Act, 1937.*

[CH. 62.]

CHAPTER 62.

An Act to amend the law relating to the employment of boys underground in coal mines. A.D. 1937.

[30th July 1937.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1.—(1) In relation to every mine, being a coal mine, there shall be specified in a notice affixed at the mine by the manager a period of at least seven consecutive hours between the hours of ten at night and six on the following morning and during that period no boy shall be employed in, or allowed to be for the purpose of employment in, that coal mine below ground. Nothing in this section shall apply to any boy who has been lawfully employed in any coal mine below ground before the passing of this Act.
