

CHAPTER 22

An Act to apply certain sums out of the Consolidated Fund to the service of the years ending on the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four and one thousand nine hundred and fifty-five.

[26th March, 1954]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom in Parliament assembled, towards making good the supply which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this session of Parliament, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the sums hereinafter mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Issue of £78,002,389 9s. 10d.
out of the Consolidated Fund for the service of
the years ending 31st March, 1953
and 1954.

1. The Treasury may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom and apply towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty for the service of the years ending on the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three and one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four, the sum of seventy-eight million, two thousand, three hundred and eighty-nine pounds, nine shillings and tenpence.

Issue of £1,617,769,200 out of the Consolidated Fund for the service
of the year ending 31st March, 1955.

2. The Treasury may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom and apply towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty for the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-five, the sum of one thousand six hundred and seventeen million, seven hundred and sixty-nine thousand, two hundred pounds.

Power for the Treasury to borrow.

3.—(1) The Treasury may borrow from any person by the issue of Treasury Bills or otherwise, and the Bank of England and the Bank of Ireland may advance to the Treasury on the credit of the said sums, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole one thousand six hundred and ninety-five million, seven hundred and seventy-one thousand, five hundred and eighty-nine pounds, nine shillings and tenpence.

(2) The date of payment of any Treasury Bills issued under this section shall be a date not later than the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-five, and section six of the Treasury Bills Act, 1877 (which relates to the renewal of bills) shall not apply with respect to those bills.

(3) Any money borrowed otherwise than on Treasury Bills shall be repaid, with interest not exceeding three pounds per cent. per annum, out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund, at any period not later than the next succeeding quarter to that in which the money was borrowed.

(4) Any money borrowed under this section shall be placed to the credit of the account of the Exchequer, and shall form part of the said Consolidated Fund, and be available in any manner in which such Fund is available.

(5) The interest on any money borrowed under this section shall be paid out of the permanent annual charge for the National Debt.

4. This Act may be cited as the Consolidated Fund Act, 1954. Short title.

CHAPTER 23

An Act to amend section ten of the Hill Farming Act, 1946, and to provide for the registration of conditions applied to cottages under that section. [26th March, 1954]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1.—(1) Section ten of the Hill Farming Act, 1946 (which requires regulations to be made by the appropriate Minister for attaching conditions as to the occupation and maintenance of cottages in respect of which improvement grants are made under that Act, as amended by subsequent enactments, and for the recovery of such grants in the event of a breach of those conditions) shall have effect subject to the following provisions of this section.

Amendments of s. 10 of Hill Farming
Act, 1946.
9 & 10 Geo. 6.
c. 73.

(2) So much of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of the said section ten as requires that the conditions to be applied to a cottage by regulations made thereunder shall include a condition prohibiting the occupation of the cottage otherwise than by the owner or a tenant thereof shall cease to have effect; but in relation to a cottage which is for the time being occupied in pursuance of a contract of service by a person who is not a tenant of the cottage, the said conditions shall include a condition corresponding—

(a) in the case of regulations for England and Wales or Northern Ireland, with the condition set out in subsection (4) of section two of the Housing Act, 1952 (which secures the possession of the occupier for four weeks if the contract of service is determined by the employer or by death);

15 & 16 Geo. 6.
& 1 Eliz. 2.
c. 53.
