

CHAPTER cxliii.

An Act to regulate the expenditure of money by the London County Council on capital account during the current financial period and the raising of money to meet such expenditure and for other purposes.

A.D. 1905.

[4th August 1905.]

WHEREAS the powers of the London County Council (in this Act referred to as "the Council") for the expenditure of money on capital account up to the thirtieth day of September one thousand nine hundred and five are limited by the London County Council (Money) Act 1904 (in this Act referred to as "the Act of 1904") and the Acts wherewith the same is to be read and have effect:

4 Edw. 7.
c. xcvi.

And whereas estimates have been prepared by the various committees of the Council of the expenditure on capital account which will or may be required in the execution of the powers and duties respectively delegated to them for the financial year ending the thirty-first day of March one thousand nine hundred and six and also for the following six months ending the thirtieth day of September one thousand nine hundred and six (which periods collectively are herein-after referred to as "the financial period") and all those estimates have been considered and approved by the finance committee of the Council in accordance with the provisions of the Local Government Act 1888 and the estimates as so approved have been adopted by the Council:

51 & 52 Vict.
c. 41.

And whereas the various purposes for which money is required to be expended on capital account during the financial period and the sums estimated to be required in respect of each such purpose are set out in the schedule to this Act (Part I.) and such

A.D. 1905. — sums amount in the aggregate to seven million four hundred and ninety-nine thousand three hundred and twenty pounds:

And whereas the Council are promoting a Bill in the present session of Parliament under the title of "London County Council (General Powers)" by which among other things powers are sought to enable the Council to reconstruct Victory Bridge (Ben Jonson Road) and to purchase or utilise lands for that purpose and for fire brigade purposes to contribute towards the acquisition of lands for open spaces and to defray expenditure for other purposes and it is estimated that it will or may be necessary during the financial period to expend on capital account in the execution of the powers to be conferred by the said Bill (if the same be passed into an Act during the present session) the sum of twenty-three thousand five hundred pounds:

And whereas the Council are promoting a Bill in the present session of Parliament under the title of "London County Council (Tramways)" under which it is proposed amongst other things to enable the Council to construct and equip new tramways and to purchase lands and to expend money for other purposes and it is estimated that it will or may be necessary during the financial period to expend on capital account in the execution of the powers to be conferred by the said Bill (if the same be passed into law during the present session) the sum of one hundred and eighty thousand pounds:

And whereas the Board of Education have on the application of the Council made certain Provisional Orders authorising the Council to acquire compulsorily certain lands for the purposes of the Education Acts 1870 to 1903 and it is estimated that it will or may be necessary during the financial period to expend on capital account in the execution of the powers to be conferred by such Orders (if the same be confirmed by Parliament during the present session) the sum of thirty thousand pounds:

And whereas it has been estimated that the amounts which the Council will or may require for loans to other bodies and local authorities and persons as herein-after defined during the financial period will be not exceeding three million two hundred and five thousand pounds as set out in Part IV. of the schedule to this Act:

And whereas it is expedient that subject to the provisions of this Act the Council should have power to raise for the several purposes mentioned in this Act such sums of money as they may require not exceeding the amounts herein-after prescribed:

A.D. 1905.

And whereas it is also expedient that in the circumstances and subject to such consent as herein-after mentioned the Council should have certain limited powers of expenditure on capital account in addition to the sums estimated as aforesaid :

And whereas the powers for raising money given by this Act are (to the extent set out in Part V. of the said schedule) re-grants of powers already conferred on the Council by the Act of 1904 but not exercised :

And whereas it is expedient to make other provisions as in this Act set forth :

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the London County Council (Money) Act 1905 and the London County Council (Money) Acts 1875 to 1904 and this Act may be cited together as the London County Council (Money) Acts 1875 to 1905. Short title.

As to money lent by Council in certain cases.

12. In order to raise the money for the several purposes for which the Council are by this Act authorised to expend or lend money the Council may from time to time create consolidated stock and the following provisions shall have effect:— Power to raise money by creation of consolidated stock.

(i) Where the Council under the authority of this Act create consolidated stock to raise money to enable them to meet expenditure or make a loan repayable within a period of less than sixty years from the date of such expenditure or loan the Council shall from time to time carry to the consolidated loans fund such sums as the Treasury approve as being in their opinion sufficient to redeem within the period authorised for the repayment of such expenditure or loan an amount of consolidated stock equal to that so created:

(ii) Where the Council create consolidated stock for the purpose of any scheme made by the Metropolitan Board of Works or the Council under the Housing of the Working Classes Acts 1890 to 1903 or any enactments repealed by those Acts or for any other purpose the cost of which is chargeable as a special county purpose all money required for payment of dividends on and the redemption of all consolidated stock created for such purpose shall be charged to the special county account to which the expenditure for the purposes of the said Acts is chargeable:

A.D. 1905.

(iii) Consolidated stock for the purposes of this Act may be created by the Council from time to time in such amounts and at such times only as the Council shall actually require for the said purposes respectively.

Repayment of moneys lent by Council.

13.—(i) Money borrowed from and lent by the Council under the provisions of this Act may be made repayable either in one sum or by instalments or by a series of equal annual or other instalments to include both principal and interest or otherwise as may be agreed between the Council and the borrowers.

(ii) All sums received by the Council in respect of interest on or principal of any loan made by them under this Act shall be carried to the consolidated loans fund.

New redeemable consolidated stock.

14. The Council may by a resolution passed before the issue of any consolidated stock created under this Act determine that such stock shall be issued upon the terms that the Council shall not be bound to redeem the same at any fixed date but the annual sum to be carried to the consolidated loans fund under section 27 of the Metropolitan Board of Works (Loans) Act 1869 in respect of such stock shall where the money raised by the stock is not required to be repaid within a shorter period than sixty years be calculated on the same basis as if such stock had to be redeemed at par at the expiration of sixty years from the date of the issue thereof.

All such stock shall be redeemable by and at the option of the Council at par in such sums and proportions and in such order and manner whether by drawings or otherwise as the Council may from time to time determine subject nevertheless to any terms and conditions expressed in any resolution for the creation or issue of such stock.

With regard to any such stock the Council may by a resolution passed at any time and from time to time with the sanction of the Treasury determine that during any period not exceeding thirty years from the date of the resolution they will not exercise their option of redeeming the same.

Any prospectus issued by the Council inviting tenders for any such stock shall state in general terms—

- (a) the period at after or within which and the conditions upon which the option of the Council to redeem the same may be exercised; and
- (b) the financial provision required by statute to be made by way of sinking fund in respect of such stock.

A.D. 1905.

All stock created under the powers of this section shall form part of and rank equally with the consolidated stock created under the powers of the London County Council (Money) Acts 1896 to 1904 and shall also rank equally with all consolidated stock created under the powers of any subsequent Act if the same be thereby declared to rank equally with consolidated stock created under the powers of this section.

15.—(1) Where the Council are by this Act authorised to raise money for expenditure for any purpose on capital account they may instead of raising such money or any part thereof by the creation and issue of consolidated stock and with the approval of the Treasury employ for that purpose any money for the time being standing to the capital account of the consolidated loans fund and realise for that purpose any securities in which such money shall be at the time invested.

Employment of money of consolidated loans fund
for expenditure or loans.

(2) The employment by the Council of such money shall be deemed to be in substitution for the exercise of the powers of the Council under this Act of raising the amount of such money by means of the issue of consolidated stock.

(3) No such money shall be so employed unless provision be made in such manner as the Treasury approve for replacing the same in the consolidated loans fund at or before the date (if any) at which consolidated stock redeemable by means of such money is required to be redeemed and (as regards moneys accumulated in respect of consolidated stock which is not required to be redeemed at any fixed date) for so replacing the same within such period not exceeding sixty years from the date of the employment of such money as the Council with the consent of the Treasury may determine and not exceeding the period within which the money if borrowed would be repayable :

And in every case the Council shall in each year raise as part of the county rate such sum as the Treasury approve as being in their opinion a proper and sufficient contribution in respect of that year towards the replacement at or before the date or within the period aforesaid of the money employed for such purpose and for the payment of interest on the money so employed and such sums shall be carried by the Council to the consolidated loans fund.

(4) Where the Council are by this Act authorised to make a loan they may instead of raising money for any such loan by the creation and issue of consolidated stock employ for any such loan any money for the time being standing to the capital account of the consolidated loans fund. Provided that no such money shall be employed for any loan repayable at a date later than the date (if any) at which the consolidated stock redeemable by means of the money so used is required to be redeemed and (as regards stock which is not required to be redeemed at any fixed date) after a longer period than sixty years from the date of borrowing.

Investment
consolidated
loans fund.

16. The power of the Council under section 15 of the London Council (Money) Act 1889 to invest temporarily any money for the time being standing to the capital account of the consolidated loans fund in respect of stock which the Council are not required to redeem at any fixed date shall only extend to any period during which by any resolution the Council may have bound themselves not to exercise their option of redeeming such stock :

And if the Council at any time while they have any such money invested or available for investment require to expend money for any purpose on capital account or to make any loan under any statutory power which would otherwise involve the issue of additional stock they shall before issuing any more stock which they are not required to redeem at any fixed date employ subject to the provisions of the last preceding section such first-mentioned money and if need be realise for the purpose any securities in which that money is at the time invested.

Power after issue of stock to apply money raised by stock to make up dividends from fixed dates.

17. Where stock is issued under this Act subject to a condition that the money to be raised thereby shall be paid up by instalments the Council may pay dividend on the total nominal amount of such stock from any date fixed at the time of issue although the instalments or some or one of them may not have been payable until after that date. If the amount so paid by way of dividend exceed the sum which would have been payable on the portion of the stock representing the money actually paid up the difference may be paid out of the proceeds of the issue of the stock to the consolidated loans fund but not at any time later than twelve months from the date of issue.

Redemption or conversion of stock.

18.—(1) The Council may—

- (a) for the purpose of the purchase or redemption of consolidated stock issued before the passing of this Act raise money by the issue of consolidated stock; or
- (b) with the consent of the holder of consolidated stock issued before the passing of this Act convert it into another denomination of consolidated stock by issuing the latter stock in substitution for the stock formerly held by such holder (in this Act referred to as "converted stock");

A.D. 1905.

and may issue consolidated stock under this Act accordingly.

(2) The Council may in the case of any conversion of stock make such reasonable payment as they think fit to the holder of such stock in connection with and for the purpose of effecting the conversion and any such payment may be either in money or stock or partly in the one and partly in the other. Any such payment in money may be made out of moneys raised by the issue of stock or (subject to the provisions of this Act) out of the consolidated loans fund.

(3) Where stock is issued for the purpose of raising money to purchase or redeem or convert stock the payments into the consolidated loans fund shall be such as appear to the Council with the approval of the Treasury sufficient to provide for the redemption or extinction of the new stock within the remainder of the period for the redemption of the stock so purchased redeemed or converted and all stock so purchased redeemed or converted shall be forthwith cancelled.

(4) Where the holder of any stock is one of the persons enabled by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 to sell land under that Act he may consent to any conversion under this section as if he were the absolute owner of the stock in question and may accept money for such consent and he is hereby indemnified for giving such consent and his receipt shall be a good discharge.

(5) Where any stock is converted under this section the new stock and the dividends thereon shall be subject to the same trusts charges rights distringas and restraints as affected the stock so converted and the dividends thereon respectively and all powers of attorney requests as to dividends and other documents relating to the stock so converted and the dividends thereon or either of them shall apply to the new stock and the dividends thereon respectively.

(6) In any Act passed or instrument executed whether before or after the passing of this Act references to any stock liable to be converted in pursuance of this Act may if the stock is so converted be construed as references to the new stock and in the case of any testamentary instrument whether executed before or after the passing of this Act any disposition which but for the passing of

A.D. 1905. — this Act would have operated as a specific or demonstrative bequest of any such stock shall if the same is so converted be construed as a specific or demonstrative bequest of such new stock and if the same is not so converted but is redeemed shall be construed as a pecuniary legacy of a sum of money equal to the redemption money of the stock so redeemed.

Limit to exercise of borrowing powers.

19. During the financial period the Council shall not (except for such temporary period not exceeding six months as the Treasury may sanction) raise otherwise than in conformity with and to the extent mentioned in this Act any money under any powers of borrowing conferred upon the Council either by this Act or by any other Act. Provided always that the limitations contained in this section shall not extend to limit or control the raising of money under the authority of section 8 of the Metropolitan Board of Works (Loans) Act 1875 or for the purpose of repaying the principal money raised by any London county bills.

Incorporation of sections 27 to 43 of 48 &
49 Viet. c. 50.

20. Sections 27 to 43 of the Metropolitan Board of Works (Money) Act 1885 are incorporated with this Act and shall be applicable to all stock created under the powers of this Act.

Power to lend temporarily.

21. Section 22 (Power to lend temporarily) of the London County Council (Money) Act 1901 is hereby repealed and in lieu thereof the following provisions shall have effect:—

The Council may lend temporarily (upon the security of any stock bonds bills or other property in which trustees are by the Trustee Act 1893 authorised to invest or upon the security of Treasury bills India bills London county bills or certificates to bearer relating to stock in this section before referred to) to any person or persons any sum of money which the Council may have in hand:

Provided—

(a) That no such loan shall be advanced for a longer period than three months;

(b) That the aggregate of such loans outstanding at any one time shall not exceed two million pounds;

(c) That the Council shall with the consent of the Treasury determine the percentage by which the value of the securities required from borrowers shall exceed the amount of the loans advanced.

22. Instead of raising for any purposes by the creation and issue of stock money which they are authorised to raise by that method under the powers of this Act the Council may raise for those purposes such money by means of bills subject to and in accordance with the provisions of section 21 of the London County Council (Money) Act 1897 :

A.D. 1905.
Provisions as to raising money by bills.

Provided that notwithstanding the provisions contained in subsection (10) of section 21 of the said Act of 1897 the aggregate amount payable on bills current at any one time shall not exceed—

(a) in the case of bills issued under the powers of section 27 of the Act of 1904 for the purpose of the loan to the council of the metropolitan borough of St. Marylebone referred to in section 6 of that Act the sum of one million five hundred thousand pounds ; and

(b) in the case of bills issued under the powers of this section the sum of two million pounds ;

except in either case by the amount payable on bills issued shortly before any other bills fall due in order to pay off those bills :

Provided also that the provisions of subsection (11) of section 21 of the said Act of 1897 with respect to payments into the consolidated loans fund shall not apply to any bills of the class (a) above referred to.

23. Sections 8 9 10 and 11 of the Forgery Act 1861 (which sections relate to the forgery of and other frauds relating to Exchequer bills) shall apply to London county bills and shall have effect as if “Exchequer bill” in those sections included “London county bill.”

As to forgery &c. of London county bills.

24.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in the Metropolitan Board of Works (Loans) Act 1869 or in the Local Government Act 1888 it shall be lawful for the Council to direct the Bank of England to hold to the order of the Council for such time as the Council may determine all or any moneys received by the said bank on behalf of and as agent for the Council in respect of any issue by the Council of consolidated stock or London county bills and the said bank may hold such moneys accordingly.

As to retention by Bank of England of moneys received on behalf of Council.

(2) So much of section 41 of the said Metropolitan Board of Works (Loans) Act 1869 as limits the period within which moneys so received shall be paid into the hands of the bank appointed by the Council under that section is hereby repealed.

A.D. 1905.

As to payments under this Act.

25. All costs and expenses of the Council in the execution of this Act (except so far as they may be otherwise provided for by this or any other Act) shall be defrayed as payments for general county purposes within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1888 and the costs charges and expenses preliminary to and of and incidental to the preparing applying for obtaining and passing of this Act shall be paid by the Council in like manner.

The SCHEDULE referred to in the foregoing Act.
