

CHAPTER li.

An Act to empower the County Council of Middlesex to pay certain sums agreed to be paid by them to the Alexandra Park Trustees and for other purposes.

A.D. 1905.

[30th June 1905.]

WHEREAS by the Alexandra Park and Palace (Public Purposes) Act 1900 a body corporate of trustees (hereinafter called "the Trustees") was constituted to acquire and thereafter to maintain and manage as a place of public resort and recreation the lands and buildings known as the Alexandra Park and Palace (hereinafter referred to as "the park") in the districts of Hornsey and Wood Green in the county of Middlesex :

63 & 64 Vict.
c. cclix.

And whereas the Trustees consist of representatives elected by the county council of Middlesex (hereinafter called "the county council") and the other local bodies by whom the money necessary for the purposes of the Act of 1900 was contributed:

And whereas the several contributing authorities and the amounts of their respective contributions are specified in the Second Schedule of the Act of 1900 and by that Act powers are conferred upon those authorities respectively to borrow the moneys required for the purposes of that Act:

And whereas these moneys have been raised and paid to the Trustees and the park is now vested in them and maintained in accordance with the provisions of the Act of 1900:

And whereas the Trustees have acquired by agreement fifteen acres of land including a lake suitable for boating adjoining the park for the purpose of adding the same to and making the same part of the park:

[Price 3d.]

A.D. 1905.

And whereas certain of the local authorities empowered by the Act of 1900 to contribute to the purchase of the park under that Act have agreed to contribute towards the purchase of the additional lands so acquired by the Trustees and such local authorities (other than the county council) have paid the moneys so agreed to be contributed to the Trustees and the same have been applied in part payment of the purchase money payable by the Trustees for the said additional lands :

61 & 62 Vict.
c. ccl.

And whereas by the Middlesex County Council Act 1898 the county council are empowered to contribute out of the county fund such sums as they may think fit towards expenses incurred by any urban or rural district council or any properly constituted joint committee of urban or rural district councils in the county of Middlesex in or about acquiring or laying out land for any open space for public recreation and it is expedient that powers should be conferred upon the county council to contribute in like manner towards expenses incurred by the Trustees :

And whereas the county council have resolved to contribute a sum of three thousand pounds towards the purchase money payable for the said additional lands but they are unable without further statutory powers to borrow the said sum and it is expedient that they should be authorised so to do :

And whereas it is expedient that the county council should be empowered to contribute and to borrow money as in this Act provided :

And whereas the objects aforesaid cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—
