CHAPTER 11.

An Act to make temporary provision for restricting the granting of orders for recovery of possession of, or the ejection of tenants from, certain dwelling-houses in Scotland. [20th May 1920.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) Pending the passing of an Act to amend the law imposing restrictions on increases of rent and mortgage interest, no order or judgment for the recovery of possession of a dwelling-house to which this Act applies, or for the ejection of a tenant therefrom, shall be made or given so long as the tenant continues to pay rent at the agreed rate and performs the other conditions of the tenancy, except on one or other of the grounds specified in subsection (1) of section one of the Increase of Rent, &c. (Amendment) Act, 1919.

(2) This Act applies to houses or parts of houses in Scotland let as separate dwellings where such letting does not include any land other than the site of the dwelling-house and a garden or other premises within the curtilage of the dwelling-house, or any obligation to provide board, attendance, or use of furniture, and where for the year ending Whitsunday nineteen hundred and fifteen either the rent or the yearly value according to the
