

CHAPTER 24.

An Act to amend the Law with respect to the Place of Payment of Notes issued by Banks of Issue in Ireland.
[4th August 1920.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Place of payment of bank notes.

1.—(1) A bank of issue in Ireland shall not be under any obligation to pay on demand any of its notes bearing date before the commencement of this Act except at the head office in Ireland of the Bank, notwithstanding that the notes were issued and are expressed to be payable at some other place, or to pay on demand any of its notes bearing date after the commencement of this Act, wherever issued, except at the place at which those notes are expressed to be payable.

9 Geo. 4.
c. 81.

11 Geo. 4.
and 1 Will. 4.
c. 32.

(2) The Bank Notes (Ireland) Act, 1828 (which makes bank notes issued by banks of issue in Ireland payable at the place where they are issued), and section one of the Bank Notes (Ireland) Act, 1830 (which authorises banks of issue in Ireland to pay their notes in Dublin), are hereby repealed.

(3) In this Act the expression "banks of issue" means any bank having power for the time being to issue bank notes.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Bank Notes (Ireland) Act, 1920, and the Bank Notes (Ireland) Acts, 1828 to 1864, and this Act may be cited together as the Bank Notes (Ireland) Acts, 1828 to 1920.

CHAPTER 25.

An Act to amend section eight of the Public Libraries (Ireland) Act, 1855, and for other purposes incidental thereto.
[4th August 1920.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Extension of limit on rate for purpose of Public Libraries (Ireland) Acts.
18 & 19 Vict.
c. 40.

1.—(1) In section eight of the Public Libraries (Ireland) Act, 1855, "threepence in the pound" shall be substituted for "one penny in the pound" as the limit on the rate which may be levied in any borough or other urban district or town for the purposes of the Public Libraries (Ireland) Acts, 1855 to 1911 :

Provided that in any county borough the said limit of threepence in the pound may, with the consent of the Local Government Board, be exceeded to an extent not exceeding threepence in the pound.

(2) If any expenses are incurred for the purposes aforesaid during the local financial year ending on the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and twenty-one (whether before or after the passing of this Act), in excess of the amount that might be raised by a rate within the limit in force before the passing of this Act, the excess may, with the consent of the Local Government Board, be defrayed out of any rate or fund approved by the Board to an extent not exceeding the amount which might have been raised for the purposes aforesaid by a rate within the limit authorised by this Act.

(3) Section one of the Public Libraries (Art Galleries in County Boroughs) (Ireland) Act, 1911, is hereby repealed. 1 & 2 Geo. 5.
c. 9.

2. This Act may be cited as the Public Libraries (Ireland) Act, 1920, and shall be construed as one with the Public Libraries (Ireland) Acts, 1855 to 1911, and those Acts and this Act may be cited collectively as the Public Libraries (Ireland) Acts, 1855 to 1920. Short title,] and citation.

CHAPTER 26.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the offices of Sheriff and Under-Sheriff in Ireland; and for other purposes incidental thereto. [4th August 1920.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) From and after the appointed day appointments to the office of under-sheriff shall be made by the Lord Lieutenant instead of by the sheriff, and an under-sheriff shall be appointed by the Lord Lieutenant for each county and county borough. Appointment, and tenure of under-sheriffs.

(2) Every under-sheriff appointed under this Act shall hold office during the Lord Lieutenant's pleasure, and his tenure of office shall not be affected by the appointment of a new sheriff.

(3) A person shall not be appointed to the office of under-sheriff under this Act unless he is an existing under-sheriff, or a practising barrister of not less than five years' standing, or a practising solicitor of not less than five years' standing, or a person who, for not less than five years, has acted as manager, chief clerk, or assistant of an under-sheriff.
