CHAPTER 77.

An Act to regulate the importation of dyestuffs.

[23rd December 1920.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) With a view to the safe-guarding of the dye-making industry, the importation into the United Kingdom of the following goods, that is to say, all synthetic organic dyestuffs,

Prohibition
on importation of dyestuffs.

colours and colouring matters, and all organic intermediate products used in the manufacture of any such dyestuffs, colours, or colouring matters shall be prohibited.

(2) Goods prohibited to be imported by virtue of this Act shall be deemed to be included among the goods enumerated and described in the Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions Inwards contained in section forty-two of the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876, and the provisions of that Act and of any Act amending or extending that Act shall apply accordingly. 39 & 40 Vict.

2.—(1) The Board of Trade have power by licence to authorise, either generally or in any particular case, the importation of any of the goods, or any class or description of the goods, prohibited to be imported by virtue of this Act. Provision as to licences
and constitution of advisory committee.

(2) A licence granted under this section shall not be transferable.

(3) For the purpose of advising them with respect to the granting of licences, the Board shall constitute a committee consisting of five persons concerned in the trades in which goods of the class prohibited to be imported by this Act are used, three persons concerned in the manufacture of such goods, and three other persons not directly concerned as aforesaid.

Such one of the three last-mentioned persons as the Board shall appoint shall be chairman of the committee.

(4) If on an application for a licence under this section the committee are satisfied that the goods to which the application relates are goods wholly produced or manufactured in some part of His Majesty's dominions, a licence shall be granted in accordance with the application.

(5) An applicant for a licence shall be entitled to object to any member or members of such committee dealing with his application on the ground that he is prejudiced, owing to the fact that such member or members is or are trade competitors, and, if such objection is sustained by the committee, the member or members so objected to shall withdraw from further consideration of the case, and shall not have access to any information or documents concerning it.

(6) For the purpose of advising them with respect to the efficient and economical development of the dye-making industry, the Board shall constitute a committee of persons concerned in the trades of dye-maker or dye-user and of such other persons not directly concerned in such trades as the Board may determine.

(7) For the purpose of providing for the expenses incurred by the Board in carrying this Act into execution, the Board may charge in respect of a licence a fee not exceeding five pounds.

3. Subject to compliance with such conditions as to security for the re-exportation of the goods as the Commissioners of Exception for transit goods.

Customs and Excise may impose, this Act shall not apply to goods imported for exportation after transit through the United Kingdom or by way of transshipment.

Exercise of powers of Board under Act.

4. Anything authorised under this Act to be done by the Board of Trade may be done by the President or a Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Board or by any person authorised in that behalf by the President of the Board.

Duration and short title.

5.—(1) The provisions of this Act shall continue in force for a period of ten years from the commencement thereof and no longer.

(2) This Act may be cited as the Dyestuffs (Import Regulation) Act, 1920.

(3) This Act shall come into operation on the fifteenth day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-one.

CHAPTER 78.

An Act to make provision for removing certain difficulties with respect to the summoning of Juries in certain cities, boroughs and towns in England, and for removing doubts as to the validity of certain verdicts.
[23rd December 1920.]

6 Geo. 4. c. 50;

WHEREAS it is enacted by section fifty of the Juries Act, 1825, that the qualification in that Act thereinbefore required for jurors and the regulations for procuring lists of persons liable to serve on juries should not extend to the jurors or juries in any liberties, franchises, cities, boroughs or towns corporate, not being counties, or in cities, boroughs, or towns being counties of themselves, which should respectively possess any jurisdiction, civil or criminal, but that in all such places the sheriffs, bailiffs, or other ministers having the return of juries should prepare their panels in the manner theretofore accustomed :

And whereas in purported pursuance of the said section panels of jurors have been prepared in certain cities, boroughs, or towns in the said accustomed manner and not in the manner directed by the other provisions of the said Act :

And whereas doubts have arisen as to whether the provisions of the said section apply to juries impanelled for the purposes of the trial of civil or criminal cases at assizes within the said cities, boroughs, or towns, and it is apprehended that the validity of verdicts heretofore returned by juries so impanelled in the said cities, boroughs, or towns may be called in question :

And whereas it is necessary to make provision for the summoning of juries to try civil and criminal cases at assizes within such cities, boroughs, or towns during the period before
