

CHAPTER 41.

An Act to make further provision for raising Money for the present War, and for purposes incidental thereto.

[21st August 1917.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary supplies granted to Your Majesty, have resolved that money be raised in manner provided by this Act; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) Any money required for the raising of any supply granted to His Majesty for the service of the year ending the thirty-first day of March nineteen hundred and eighteen, and, in addition, of a sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty million pounds, or for the raising of any sum required for cancelling securities or Treasury bills under the powers of this Act, may be raised in such manner as the Treasury think fit, and for that purpose they may create and issue any securities by means of which any public loan has been raised or may be raised, or such other securities bearing such rate of interest and subject to such conditions as to repayment, redemption, or otherwise, as they think fit. Issue of new war loan.

(2) For the purpose of making the statutory provisions applicable to former war loans applicable to the war loan under this Act, subsections (2) and (3) of section one of the War Loan Act, 1914, and subsections (2) and (3) of section fourteen of the Finance Act, 1914 (Session 2), shall apply to any sums or loan raised or any securities issued under this Act as they apply to sums or loans raised or stock issued under the War Loan Act, 1914; and subsections (3), (4), and (5) of section one of the War Loan Act, 1915, shall apply with respect to the issue of securities under this Act and to securities issued under this Act as they apply with respect to the issue of securities under that Act and to securities issued under that Act, and in those subsections as so applied any reference to war stock, war bonds, or securities issued under the War Loan Act, 1914, shall be deemed to include a reference to securities issued under the War Loan Act, 1915, section fifty-eight of the Finance Act, 1916, and the War Loan Act, 1916. 4 & 5 Geo. 5.

(3) There shall be paid to the Banks of England and Ireland respectively out of the Consolidated Fund or the growing produce thereof, for the management in every financial year of any securities issued under this Act, such sums as may be agreed upon between the Treasury and those banks respectively.

(4) Any expenses incurred in connection with the redemption of any securities issued under this Act shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund or the growing produce thereof.

(5) The power to raise sums under this Act or under any other Act authorising the raising of any sums for the purpose of the present War, whether passed before or after this Act, shall extend, and in the case of any past Act shall be deemed always to have extended, so as to authorise the raising of those sums either within or without the United Kingdom and either in British or in any other currency.

Short title and citation.

2. This Act may be cited as the War Loan Act, 1917, and the War Loan Acts, 1914 to 1916, and this Act may be cited together as the War Loan Acts, 1914 to 1917.

CHAPTER 42.

An Act to provide for an addition during the present war and a period of six months thereafter to the amount of the compensation payable under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906, in cases of total incapacity.

[21st August 1917.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Temporary increase of amount of compensation in cases of total incapacity.
6 Edw. 7. c. 58.

1.—(1) Where any workman is at any time during the period for which this Act continues in force entitled during total incapacity to a weekly payment by way of compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906, he shall, whether the incapacity arose before or after the commencement of this Act, be entitled to receive from the person liable to pay the compensation, by way of addition to each such weekly payment payable in respect of any week within the said period, a sum equal to one-fourth of the amount of that payment.

(2) The additional weekly sum payable under this Act shall be deemed to be part of the weekly payment under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906, for the purposes of—

- (a) The provisions relating to the recovery of weekly payments ;
- (b) Any order made with respect to payment into court of a weekly payment ;
- (c) The provisions of paragraph (19) of the First Schedule to the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906, (which prohibits the assignment, &c. of weekly payments) ; and shall, notwithstanding that the liability to make the said weekly payment is redeemed subsequently to the commencement
