clause hereof it shall be lawful for the trustees in the case of any of the Charities without the necessity of obtaining the consent of the church to raise by mortgage of the property of the Charity or by the deposit of the title deeds thereof such sum or sums of money as in the exercise of their discretion they think proper for the purpose of paying off any debt or debts incurred or to be incurred in the erection or completion of the buildings erected or to be erected on the land belonging to the Charity and not provided for by voluntary subscriptions.

15. Subject to the said restrictions hereinbefore contained the trustees shall in the case of each Charity whenever required by a special resolution of the church with the consent in writing of the trustees (or a majority of the trustees in the event of there being individual trustees) or their committee or a majority of such committee

16. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained if in the case of any of the Charities the church is dissolved or dispersed or (unless the church shall have removed within the meaning of clause 22 hereof) if the regular public worship of God in the said buildings is discontinued for six calendar months together or if the number of the members of the church entitled to vote at a special meeting as hereinafter provided shall be reduced to 15 or under the trustees may in their discretion but subject to the said restrictions hereinbefore contained either let or mortgage or sell the property of the Charity or any part thereof and pay and apply the net proceeds of such letting mortgage or sale remaining after payment of all expenses in such manner as the trustees shall in their discretion think proper for religious purposes not in the case of any of the Charities being inconsistent with the principles and usages for the time being of Protestants of the Congregational Denomination commonly called Independents being Pædobaptists and not in the case of any of the Charities other than the Charity numbered 12 tending to the promulgation of doctrines inconsistent with those set out in the schedule hereto.

17. Upon any mortgage lease sale enfranchisement or exchange purporting to be made in pursuance of any trust or power herein contained no mortgagee lessee purchaser or other person dealing bonâ fide with the trustees shall be bound or concerned to inquire whether the occasion for executing or exercising such trust or power has arisen or as to whether any special or other meeting of the church has been held or as to the competency or regularity of any such meeting or of any requisition or resolution passed or purporting to have been passed thereat or as to whether the church has been dissolved or any of the said other events have taken place or (except as regards the said restrictions hereinbefore contained) otherwise as to the propriety or regularity of any such mortgage lease sale enfranchisement or exchange and notwithstanding any impropriety or irregularity in such mortgage lease sale enfranchisement or exchange the same shall as regards a mortgagee lessee purchaser or other person as aforesaid (except as regards the said restrictions) be deemed to be within the aforesaid trusts or powers and be valid accordingly.

18. In the case of any of the Charities if the church shall at any time by a special resolution request the incorporated body acting as trustees to retire from the trusteeship of the Charity or in case such incorporated body shall at any time desire to retire or be discharged from the said trusteeship and shall signify such desire by giving three calendar months' notice in writing under the hand of their secretary addressed to the minister or pastor and deacons of the church the church shall forthwith or (as the case may be) before the expiration of the said notice proceed by special resolution to appoint as new trustees of the Charity either duly qualified individual persons or another incorporated body and the incorporated body ceasing to be trustees shall at the request and cost of the church convey or assign the hereditaments then vested in such incorporated body and affected by the trusts of this scheme to such persons or to such other incorporated body as the church may appoint In the event of the appointment of individual trustees the following provisions as to such appointment and as to the discharge and retirement of trustees by way of variation of the statutory provisions shall take effect:--

A.D. 1917.

- (i) The full number of trustees shall be twelve and that number shall as far as possible be kept up:
- (ii) No person shall be appointed a trustee who is not a member of a congregational church and any trustee who ceases to be a member of such a church or who becomes bankrupt or remains out of the United Kingdom for more than 12 consecutive calendar months shall ipso facto cease to be a trustee of the Charity:
- (iii) A new trustee may be appointed in the place of any trustee who through death retirement or any other cause ceases to be a trustee or who desires to be discharged from the trusts of the Charity or who refuses or is unfit to act or is incapable of acting therein:
- (iv) Any one of the trustees may when there are more than five trustees retire from the trusts of the Charity on giving two calendar months' notice in writing of his intention so to do to the then minister or pastor and deacons or one of the deacons (if there shall be such minister or pastor or deacons) and to each of the other trustees for the time being and upon the termination of such two months the trustee giving the notice shall cease to be a trustee to all intents and purposes provided that any notice sent by post to the last known usual place of abode in England of any trustee shall be sufficient notice to him hereunder.

19. All the trusts powers discretions and authorities hereby given to or vested in the trustees shall when the trustees are an incorporated body be exerciseable by their committee or a majority of such committee and when there are individual trustees by a majority of the trustees as fully and effectually in all respects as the same might have been exercised by the trustees During such period as an incorporated body shall act as trustees they shall be entitled to act according to their rules and byelaws from time to time in force.

[Ch. xxvii.] Congregational Chapels Scheme [7 & 8 GEO. 5.]
Confirmation Act, 1917.

A.D. 1917.

20. In the case of each Charity the following provisions shall apply to every special meeting of the church:—

- (a) The meeting shall be convened by the minister or pastor or the deacons or the committee for the time being of the church or by the authority of the trustees or of one-fifth in number of the members of the church entitled to vote at such meeting by notice announcing the place day and hour of the meeting and the business or matter to be transacted or considered and such notice shall be given on the two Lord's Days immediately preceding such meeting at each service held in the chapel at which the church assembles for worship:
- (b) The meeting shall be fixed for and held not earlier than the Wednesday next following the second of such two Lord's Days:
- (c) The only persons who shall be entitled to attend and vote at such meeting shall be those who whether male or female have attained the age of 21 years and have been members of the church during at least six calendar months next preceding the meeting:
- (d) No votes shall be given by proxy but votes may be given by ballot or otherwise as the church may direct:
- (e) The term "special resolution" in this scheme means a resolution passed at a special meeting of the church by a majority consisting of not less than two-thirds of the persons present and voting on the resolution and the same shall be binding upon all the members of the church whether present or not at such meeting:
- (f) Except where a special resolution is hereby expressly required a resolution passed at a special meeting by a simple majority of the persons present and voting on the resolution shall be binding on all the members of the church whether present or not at such meeting:
- (g) The proceedings and resolutions of the meeting shall be evidenced by a minute thereof under the hand of the chairman who shall have a casting vote and such minute shall be conclusive evidence that any resolution therein expressed to have been passed was passed at a meeting duly convened and held and by the requisite majority and it shall further be presumed that the person subscribing such minute as chairman was duly appointed to the office.

21. Except where it is hereby expressly provided that a special resolution of the church or a resolution of a special meeting thereof is requisite the affairs of the church and the provisions of this scheme may
