

CHAPTER 15.

An Act to amend the Census of Production Act, 1906. [28th April 1939.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1.—(1) In subsection (1) of section three of the Census of Production Act, 1906, the following amendments shall be made :—

Amendments of 6 Edw. 7.
c. 49.

- (a) after the word “employed” there shall be inserted the words “the quantity and cost of “ materials used and fuel and electricity con“ sumed, the total amount paid to contractors
“ for work given out to them,”;

(b) provisos (b) and (c) shall be repealed;

and accordingly the said section shall have effect as set out in the Schedule to this Act.

(2) Nothing in section six of the said Act (which prohibits the publication or disclosure of individual returns or parts thereof or answers) shall prevent—

- (a) any such publication or disclosure as aforesaid to the Import Duties Advisory Committee or a Government Department, or any person authorised by that Committee or a Government Department, if the publication or disclosure is required by that Committee, Department or person for the purposes of such of the provisions of any enactment for the time being in force as authorise or require the Committee, or that Department on the recommendation or advice of the Committee, to discharge any functions; or

- (b) any such publication or disclosure as aforesaid by the said Committee to any Government Department, or to any person authorised by a Government Department, if the publication or disclosure appears to the Committee to be necessary for the purpose of obtaining information from that Department on a matter which that Committee are required or authorised to consider by any enactment for the time being in force.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Census of Production Act, 1939, and may be cited together with the Census of Production Acts, 1906 and 1917, as the Census of Production Acts, 1906 to 1939.

SCHEDULE.

SECTION 3 OF THE CENSUS OF PRODUCTION ACT, 1906, AS AMENDED BY THIS ACT.

3.—(1) Forms shall be prepared for the purpose of being filled up by the persons specified in the Schedule to this Act with such of the following particulars in respect of the calendar year next preceding the date of the census, or any prescribed part of that year, as may be prescribed; that is to say, the nature of the trade or business, and particulars relating to the output, the number of days on which work was carried on, the number of persons employed, the quantity and cost of materials used and fuel and electricity consumed, the total amount paid to contractors for work given out to them, and the power used or generated, and relating to such other matters of a like nature, except the amount of wages, as may be found to be necessary for the purpose of enabling the quantity and value of production to be ascertained :

Preparing and filling up of Schedules.

Provided that, if in any case it is found inconvenient to furnish such particulars as respects the calendar year, the Board of Trade may allow the particulars to be furnished as respects some other period of twelve months or prescribed part thereof.

(2) It shall be the duty of every person specified in the Schedule to this Act, upon receiving notice in writing from the Board of Trade to that effect, to fill up, and sign, and to deliver in such manner as may be prescribed, on or before the prescribed date, such date not to be less than three months after the issue of the forms, the form appropriate to his trade or business.

(3) The Board of Trade shall issue to every person required to make a return under this Act the form to be filled up by him.
