

(3) Any money borrowed otherwise than on Treasury Bills shall be repaid, with interest not exceeding three pounds per cent. per annum, out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund, at any period not later than the next succeeding quarter to that in which the money was borrowed.

(4) Any money borrowed under this section shall be placed to the credit of the account of the Exchequer, and shall form part of the said Consolidated Fund, and be available in any manner in which such Fund is available.

(5) The interest on any money borrowed under this section shall be paid out of the permanent annual charge for the National Debt.

3. This Act may be cited as the Consolidated Fund (No. 3) Act, Short title. 1953.

CHAPTER 3

An Act to extend the Armed Forces (Housing Loans) Act, 1949.

[18th December 1953.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Commons of the United Kingdom in Parliament assembled, towards providing such sums as may be required for the provision of housing accommodation in Great Britain for married persons serving in, or employed in connection with, the armed forces of the Crown, have resolved that the Armed Forces (Housing Loans) Act, 1949, be amended in manner hereafter mentioned in this Act; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. Subsection (1) of section one of the Armed Forces (Housing Loans) Act, 1949 (which authorises, subject to certain provisions, the issue from time to time during the five financial years ending on the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and fifty-five, of sums out of the Consolidated Fund not exceeding in the aggregate forty million pounds to be applied as appropriations in aid of moneys provided by Parliament for those years for the provision of approved housing accommodation in Great Britain

Amendment of 12, 13 & 14
Geo. 6. c. 77.

for married persons serving in, or employed in connection with, the armed forces of the Crown) shall have effect as if—

- (a) for the words “ five financial years ” there were substituted the words “ ten financial years ” and for the words “ nineteen hundred and fifty-five ” there were substituted the words “ nineteen hundred and sixty ”,
- (b) for the words “ forty million pounds ” there were substituted the words “ seventy-five million pounds ”.

Short title. 2. This Act may be cited as the Armed Forces (Housing Loans) Act, 1953.

CHAPTER 4

An Act to provide for raising further money for the development of the postal, telegraphic and telephonic systems and of any other business of the Post Office; and for purposes connected with that matter.

[18th December 1953.]

BE it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Grant for development of postal, telegraphic and telephonic systems and other Post Office business.

1.—(1) Without prejudice to the exercise of any powers previously given for the like purpose, the Treasury may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom or the growing produce thereof (hereafter in this Act referred to as “the Consolidated Fund”) such sums, not exceeding in the whole the sum of one hundred and twenty-five million pounds, as may be required by the Postmaster-General, according to estimates approved by the Treasury, for the development of the postal, telegraphic and telephonic systems and of any other business of the Post Office.

(2) The Treasury may, if they think fit, for the purpose of providing money for sums so authorised to be issued out of the Consolidated Fund, or for repaying to that Fund all or any part of the sums so issued, borrow—

(a) by means of terminable annuities for a term not exceeding twenty years; or

(b) in any other manner in which they are authorised to raise money under the National Loans Act, 1939, and all sums so borrowed shall be paid into the Exchequer.
