

CHAPTER 6

An Act to grant money for the purpose of certain local loans out of the Local Loans Fund.

[18th December 1953.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Grants for public works.

1.—(1) There may be issued by the National Debt Commissioners for the purpose of local loans by the Public Works Loan Commissioners any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of five hundred million pounds.

(2) The sums so issued shall be issued during the period beginning with the passing of this Act and ending on the day on which a further Act granting money for the purposes of those loans comes into operation, and in accordance with the provisions of the National Debt and Local Loans Act, 1887.

50 & 51 Vict. c. 16.

Limit of commitments by Public Works Loan Commissioners.

9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 75.

2. The period aforesaid shall be an issue period within the meaning of section two of the Public Works Loans (No. 2) Act, 1946 (which enables the Public Works Loan Commissioners to undertake to grant loans which include loans falling to be advanced after the expiration of the current issue period), and the aggregate of—

(a) the commitments of the said Commissioners outstanding at any time during the said issue period in respect of undertakings entered into by them (whether during or before the beginning of that period) to grant local loans, and

(b) the advances in respect of local loans made by the said Commissioners during that period up to that time, shall not exceed the sum of twelve hundred million pounds.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as the Public Works Loans Act, 1953.

CHAPTER 7

An Act to increase the borrowing powers of the British Overseas Airways Corporation and the British European Airways Corporation; to make provision for the payment of pension benefits in respect of the service of members of those corporations; and to amend the law with respect to the limitation of actions and other proceedings against those corporations or their servants or agents.

[18th December 1953.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The limit imposed by section twelve of the Air Corporations Act, 1949, on the amount outstanding at any time of money borrowed by either of the air corporations shall be raised— Increase of borrowing powers of air corporations. 12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. c. 91.

- (a) as respects money borrowed by the British Overseas Airways Corporation, from sixty million pounds to eighty million pounds;
- (b) as respects money borrowed by the British European Airways Corporation, from twenty million pounds to thirty-five million pounds.

2.—(1) Regulations made under section twenty-one of the Air Corporations Act, 1949, may make provision for securing that where an employee of either of the air corporations, being an employee in respect of whose service benefits are provided by a pension scheme established under that section, becomes a member of the corporation, his service as such a member (whether before or after the passing of this Act) shall be treated for the purposes of the scheme as if it were service as such an employee. Pensions in respect of members of air corporations.

(2) Each of the air corporations shall make such provision for the payment of pensions to or in respect of such members of the corporation as the Minister of Transport and Civil Aviation may with the approval of the Treasury determine, but no provision shall be made under this subsection in the case of a member in respect of whose service provision may be made under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The Minister of Transport and Civil Aviation shall as soon as possible lay before each House of Parliament a statement of such provision for the payment of pensions to or in respect of members of each of the air corporations as he with the approval of the Treasury has determined.

3.—(1) The Public Authorities Protection Act, 1893, and section twenty-one of the Limitation Act, 1939, shall not apply to any action, prosecution or proceeding against either of the air corporations or in respect of any act, neglect or default done or committed by a servant or agent of either of the corporations in his capacity as such a servant or agent. Limitation of actions, etc. 56 & 57 Vict. c. 61. 2 & 3 Geo. 6. c. 21.

(2) In their application to any such action as aforesaid sections two and three of the Limitation Act, 1939 (which relate to limitation of actions of contract and tort and certain other actions), shall have effect with the substitution therein for references to six years of references to three years.

(3) The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to any action where the cause of action has accrued before the passing of this Act or to any criminal proceedings for an offence committed before the passing of this Act; but for the purposes of this subsection no cause of action in respect of any continuing act, neglect or default shall be deemed to have accrued until the act, neglect or default has ceased.

Interpretation, short title and citation. 4.—(1) In this Act the expression “the air corporations” means the British Overseas Airways Corporation and the British European Airways Corporation.

(2) This Act may be cited as the Air Corporations Act, 1953.

(3) The Air Corporations Act, 1949, and this Act may be cited together as the Air Corporations Acts, 1949 and 1953.

CHAPTER 8

An Act to alter the date for the publication, in the year nineteen hundred and fifty-five and subsequent years, of registers of parliamentary and local government electors, and consequentially on that alteration to alter the elections for which those registers are to be used, and the qualifying date for those elections, and make further provision in place of section four of the Electoral Registers Act, 1949. [18th December 1953.]

BE it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Alteration of date for publication of registers, of qualifying date for registration etc.

12, 13 & 14
Geo. 6. c. 86.

1.—(1) The Electoral Registers Act, 1949, shall have effect with the substitution for subsections (2) to (4) of section one of the following subsections:—

“(2) Registers of parliamentary and local government electors or, in Northern Ireland, registers of parliamentary electors, shall be published not later than the fifteenth day of February, and registers published in any year shall be used for elections at which the date fixed for the poll falls within the period of twelve months beginning with the sixteenth day of February in that year.

(3) As regards Great Britain, the tenth day of October in any year shall be the qualifying date for a parliamentary or local government election at which the date fixed for the poll falls within the period of twelve months beginning with the sixteenth day of February in the next following year.