

CHAPTER 53.

An Act to provide for the exception from Part I. of the National Insurance Act, 1911, of persons who are temporarily employed in Agriculture in connection with the present War. A.D. 1916.
[18th December 1916.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) There shall be added to the classes of persons, employment of whom may be excepted from the provisions of Part I. of the National Insurance Act, 1911, by special order made under paragraph (i) of the First Schedule to that Act, persons who, not being persons whose normal occupation is employment within the meaning of that Act, are temporarily employed on or about any agricultural holding in consequence of the loss of men through enlistment, or transference to Government service, or other circumstances arising out of the present war.

Power to exempt from insurance persons temporarily employed in agriculture.
1 & 2 Geo. 5.
c. 55.

(2) A special order made under this section shall have effect only during the continuance of the present war and for such time thereafter as may be provided by or under the order, not exceeding six months after the end of the war, and the exemption conferred by the order shall be subject to such conditions and limitations as may be specified therein.

(3) The provisions of Part I. of the National Insurance Act, 1911, as to the laying of regulations before both Houses of Parliament and the proceedings consequent thereon shall apply to special orders made under this section and section one hundred and thirteen of the said Act shall not apply thereto.
