

CHAPTER 6.

An Act to facilitate the Insurance against War Risks of A.D. 1916.
Property subject to Trusts. [19th April 1916.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. The power of a trustee to insure against loss or damage by fire under section eighteen of the Trustee Act, 1893, shall, during the continuance of the present war, include, and shall be deemed as from the fourth day of August nineteen hundred and fourteen to have included, a power to insure against war risks up to the full value of the building or property insured ; and that section shall apply with the necessary modification of the limit on the amount to be insured.

Power of trustees to insure property against war risks.
56 & 57 Vict. c. 53.

In this Act the expression "war risks" means loss or damage attributable to hostile aircraft or to bombardment or to any operations of war or defence, whether executed by or against the enemy.

2. This Act may be cited as the War Risks (Insurance by Trustees) Act, 1916. Short title.
