Act, 1916.

as the church shall in special church meeting determine and the A.D. 1916.
Trustees shall consider it expedient to raise for any of the purposes herein-after mentioned.

12. In the case of each charity the Trustees shall apply the moneys arising from any such sale exchange letting or mortgage as aforesaid in or towards payment of the expenses of any such works of alteration improvement enlargement addition pulling-down and rebuilding as are herein-before mentioned or the purchase or acquisition for the purposes of the church of any other hereditaments of freehold copyhold or leasehold tenure or other property or for paying off (wholly or partially) or procuring the transfer of any mortgage or mortgages for the time being affecting the property belonging to the charity or for meeting or defraying any other necessary or proper expenses connected with or for the benefit of the church as the church shall in special church meeting determine and the Trustees shall approve.

13. In the case of each charity the Trustees shall hold all hereditaments taken in exchange purchased or otherwise acquired by the Trustees under the foregoing provisions and all buildings erected thereon upon the same or the like trusts and with and subject to the same or the like powers and provisions as are herein contained concerning the property belonging to the charity.

14. In creating any mortgage under any of the powers of mortgaging herein contained the Trustees may insert in such mortgage such power of sale and other powers and such covenants and provisions as they may think expedient including (if it is thought desirable) a provision for the continuance of the loan for any term therein specified.

15. In the case of each charity the Trustees shall permit the church generally and in every respect not herein provided for to manage all its affairs according to its uncontrolled discretion.

16. In the case of each charity all such matters as are hereby directed to be decided by the church in special church meeting shall be so decided at a special church meeting convened by the pastor or by the deacons and elders or the officers for the time being of the church or by the Trustees or by one-fifth in number of the members of the church entitled to vote at such meeting whereof a public notice stating the whole of the business intended to be transacted thereat and the time and place of such meeting shall have been given orally in the course of divine service both in the morning and in the evening on the two Lord's Days immediately preceding the day fixed for such meeting and at any special church meeting those persons alone shall be entitled to vote who shall have attained the age of eighteen years and shall have communed with the church at the

— A.D. 1916. Lord's Table once at least during the period of six calendar months next preceding such meeting.

17. Every question submitted to a church meeting (whether ordinary or special) shall be decided by the votes of a majority of the members present and entitled to vote and actually voting on such question at such meeting and in the event of an equality of votes the chairman of such meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his vote as a member but the foregoing provisions of this clause shall not apply to any matter which under any express provision herein contained is to be determined by a special church meeting and a resolution relating to any such matter shall only be carried if it is supported by the votes of a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members present and entitled to vote and actually voting on such resolution at such meeting.

18. At any church meeting (whether ordinary or special) the pastor (if any) for the time being of the church shall (if he shall be present and willing to act as chairman of such meeting) be entitled to take the chair and in case there shall be no such pastor or he shall be absent or unwilling to act as chairman the members present shall elect a chairman before proceeding with the business of such meeting. The proceedings and resolutions of any church meeting shall be proved by a minute thereof signed by the chairman and such minute shall be conclusive evidence that any resolution therein stated to have been passed was passed by the requisite majority at a meeting duly convened and held and also of the due appointment of the person signing the minute as chairman.

19. Upon any professed exercise by the Trustees of any power herein contained no person dealing with the Trustees shall be bound or concerned to inquire whether the case in which the power is exerciseable has happened or whether the exercise thereof has been determined upon or authorised by a meeting of the church or otherwise (except as regards the said restrictions contained in the tenth clause hereof) as to the propriety or regularity of such exercise or in the case of the foregoing powers of raising money by mortgage whether and for what purpose the money raised is required and notwithstanding any impropriety or irregularity whatsoever in the exercise of any such power the same shall in favour of such person (except as regards the said restrictions) be deemed to be within the provisions under which it purports to be made and be valid accordingly.

20. If in the case of any of the charities at any time the membership of the church shall fall below twelve registered members who have communed with the church at the Lord's Table within the period of six calendar months next preceding such time or in case the regular public worship of God in the buildings belonging to the
