

Application to Northern Ireland.

2.—(1) This Act in its application to Northern Ireland shall have effect as if references to a Secretary of State were therein substituted for references to the Minister.

(2) Where a local authority is entitled to a repayment under this Act in respect of any compensation paid by them, any sum payable under section seventy-two of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, out of the General Cattle Diseases (Northern Ireland) Fund in respect of such compensation shall be reduced to such amount as together with the sum which the authority is entitled to be repaid under this Act is equivalent to the total amount of the compensation paid by the authority after making all proper deductions for money received by them in respect of the animals slaughtered.

Short title,
and citation:

3. This Act may be cited as the Diseases of Animals Act, 1925, and the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1922, and this Act may be cited together as the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1925.

CHAPTER 64.

An Act to provide for the permanent adoption of summer time. [7th August 1925.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Summer
Time Act to be made permanent,
and period
of summer time extended.
12 & 13 Geo.
5, c. 22.

1.—(1) The Summer Time Act, 1922, shall become a permanent Act, and subsection (3) of section three of that Act is hereby repealed.

(2) Subsection (1) of section three of the Summer Time Act, 1922 (which defines the period of summer time for the purposes of that Act) shall, as from the commencement of this Act, have effect as though the first Saturday in October were therein substituted for the third Saturday in September.

2. This Act may be cited as the Summer Time Act, Short title. 1925, and shall be construed as one with the Summer Time Act, 1922, and that Act and this Act may be cited together as the Summer Time Acts, 1922 to 1925.

CHAPTER 65.

An Act to provide for raising further Money for the purpose of the Telegraph Acts, 1863 to 1924. [7th August 1925.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1.—(1) The Treasury may, with a view to the development of the telephonic system in Great Britain and Northern Ireland, without prejudice to the exercise of any powers previously given for the like purpose, issue out of the Consolidated Fund, or the growing produce thereof, such sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of thirty million pounds as may be required by the Postmaster-General for the purpose of developing the telephonic system according to estimates approved by the Treasury. Grant for purposes of Telegraph Acts.

(2) The Treasury may, if they think fit, for the purpose of providing money for sums so authorised to be issued out of the Consolidated Fund, or for repaying to that fund all or any part of the sums so issued, borrow by means of terminable annuities for a term not exceeding twenty years, and all sums so borrowed shall be paid into the Exchequer.

(3) The said annuities shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament for the service of the Post Office, and if those moneys are insufficient shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund, or the growing produce thereof.

(4) The Treasury may also, if they think fit, for the same purpose borrow money by means of the issue of Exchequer bonds, and the Capital Expenditure (Money) Act, 1904, shall have effect as if this Act had been in force at the time of the passing of that Act. 4 Edw. 7. c. 21.

1454 CH. 65, 66. Telegraph (Money) Act, 1925. 15 & 16 GEO. 5.

1 & 2 Geo. 5. c. 26. (5) Section five of the Telephone Transfer Act, 1911 (which relates to audit), shall have effect as if this Act were included amongst the Acts therein mentioned.

Short title. 2. This Act may be cited as the Telegraph (Money) Act, 1925, and may be cited with the Telegraph Acts, 1863 to 1924.

CHAPTER 66.

An Act to amend the Seeds Act, 1920.

[7th August 1925.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Amendment of 10 & 11 Geo. 5. c. 54. 1.—(1) To section eleven of the Seeds Act, 1920, shall be added the following subsection, namely:—

(3) Notwithstanding any enactment prescribing the time within which proceedings may be brought before a court of summary jurisdiction proceedings for an offence under this Act for making or causing to be made a false statement as to the class or variety of seed potatoes, may be commenced at any time within twelve months of the date on which the alleged offence was committed.

(2) This Act shall not extend to Northern Ireland.

Short title. 2. This Act may be cited as the Seeds (Amendment) Act, 1925.
