And whereas by the County of the City of Glasgow Act 1893 the city was constituted a county of a city under the name of the county of the city of Glasgow and it is expedient that for the purposes of that Act the added area should be separated and disjoined from the counties of Lanark Renfrew and Dunbarton and be incorporated with and form part of the county of the city of Glasgow :

And whereas it is expedient that so much of the added area as is situated in the counties of Renfrew and Dunbarton should as in this Act provided cease to form part of those counties and form part of the county of Lanark : A.D. 1925.

And whereas it is expedient that the added area should form part of the existing municipal wards of the city adjoining thereto :

And whereas under the Education (Scotland) Act 1918 separate education areas have been constituted for the city and the counties of Lanark Renfrew and Dunbarton and it is expedient and would be for public and local advantage that the city and the added area should form one education area for the purposes of the said Act :
