

CHAPTER xxiii.

An Act to confer further powers upon the South Wales Electrical Power Distribution Company and to amend the South Wales Electrical Power Distribution Company Act 1900 and for other purposes. A.D. 1925.
[28th May 1925.]

WHEREAS by the South Wales Electrical Power Distribution Company Acts 1900 to 1922 the South Wales Electrical Power Distribution Company (in this Act called "the Company") were incorporated and thereunder the Company have powers relative to the supply of electrical energy within the county of Glamorgan and part of the county of Monmouth :

And whereas in order to facilitate the extension of the system of distribution of electricity of the Company and to remove unnecessary restrictions upon the Company in the exercise of their powers under the said Acts and under the Electricity (Supply) Acts 1882 to 1922 it is expedient to repeal so much of paragraph (b) of section 48 (For protection of county councils) of the said Act of 1900 as relates to overhead wires and to enact the provisions contained in this Act :

And whereas the purposes of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this
