

remitted to him through the County Court at such intervals and in such way as may be agreed upon by the competent authorities of the two countries :

- (d) That in respect of all the acts done by the County Court in pursuance of the legislation in regard to workmen's compensation, as well as in the execution of the present Convention, French citizens shall be exempt from all expenses and fees :
- (e) That at the beginning of each year His Majesty's principal Secretary of State for the Home Department will send to the "Département du Travail et de la Prévoyance sociale" a record of all judicial decisions given in the course of the preceding year under the legislation in regard to workmen's compensation in the case of French citizens injured by accident in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

CHAPTER 17.

An Act to enable the London County Council to establish and maintain an Ambulance Service in London.

[20th October 1909.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Power to London County Council to establish and maintain ambulance service.

1. It shall be lawful for the London County Council to establish and maintain, or to contribute towards the cost of, or otherwise to aid in establishing or maintaining, an ambulance service for dealing with cases of accidents or illness (other than infectious diseases) within the county of London, exclusive of the city of London, and for such purposes—

- (1) To employ such persons as they may think expedient :
- (2) To appropriate any lands and buildings for the time being vested in them :
- (3) To acquire any lands or buildings within the county :
- (4) To erect, maintain, and manage, on any lands so appropriated and acquired, any buildings for the said purpose :
- (5) To adapt, furnish, and equip any buildings so appropriated, acquired, or erected :
- (6) To contract with the Postmaster-General for the establishment and maintenance of telegraphic, telephonic, and other suitable means of communication :
- (7) To provide and maintain ambulances and other vehicles and means of conveyance, to be drawn by electrical or other mechanical power, by horse, or by hand :

Provided that any electrical power used for moving any such vehicle shall be entirely contained in and carried along with such vehicle.

2. The London County Council may allow the ambulance service established under this Act to be used, on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon, by any local authority having powers under section fifty of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907.

Power to allow other authorities to use ambulance service.
7 Edw. 7. c. 53.

3. This Act may be cited as the Metropolitan Ambulances Act, 1909.

CHAPTER 18.

An Act to make better provision respecting Naval Establishments in British Possessions.

[20th October 1909.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) It shall be lawful for His Majesty, on the representation of the Admiralty and of the Treasury that it is expedient to do so, by Order in Council to vest any store, yard, magazine, building, or other property in any British Possession held in trust for naval purposes (whether vested in His Majesty or in the Admiralty or in any officer), and the care and disposal of such property, in the Governor of the possession for such estate and interest, and upon such terms and conditions, and subject to such reservations, exceptions, and restrictions, as may be specified in the Order, and the Governor of the possession shall, by virtue of this Act and the Order, take and hold, subject to the provisions of the Order, the premises transferred to and vested in him accordingly.

Power to transfer Naval Establishments in British Possessions to the Governor thereof.

(2) Every representation to His Majesty proposed to be made under this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, and shall lie for not less than forty days on the table of both Houses before it is submitted to His Majesty.

(3) Nothing in an Order made in pursuance of this Act shall affect any estate, interest, right, or claim in or to any property comprised in the Order other than such as at the date of the Order was vested in or held in trust for His Majesty or the Admiralty.

2. This Act may be cited as the Naval Establishments in British Possessions Act, 1909.
