

raised under the Naval Forces Act, 1903, but, except as in this Act expressly provided, shall be subject exclusively to the provisions made as aforesaid by the proper legislative authority of the colony.

Section 7.

It shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council from time to time as occasion requires, and on such conditions as seem fit, to authorise the Admiralty to accept any offer for the time being made or to be made by the Government of a colony to place at His Majesty's disposal for general service in the Royal Navy the whole or any part of the body of volunteers, with all or any of the officers, raised and appointed by that Government in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and, where any such offer is accepted, such of the provisions of the Naval Forces Act, 1903, as relate to men of the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve raised in the United Kingdom when in actual service shall extend and apply to the volunteers whose services are so accepted.

PART II.

Section 2.

SECTION 7 OF THE COLONIAL NAVAL DEFENCE ACT, 1865, AS ADAPTED TO MEN RAISED AND MAINTAINED IN A COLONY LIABLE TO SERVE IN THE ROYAL NAVY.

Section 7.

It shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council from time to time as occasion requires, and on such conditions as seem fit, to authorise the Admiralty to accept any offer for the time being made or to be made by the Government of a colony to place at His Majesty's disposal for general service in the Royal Navy the whole or any part of the body of men, with all or any of the officers, raised and appointed by that Government in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and, where any such offer is accepted, the men and officers whose services are so accepted shall be deemed to all intents men and officers of the Royal Navy, and shall accordingly be subject to all enactments and regulations for the time being in force for the discipline of the Royal Navy.

the passing of this Act agreed, or hereafter agree, to such reference, be referred to the Railway and Canal Commission, and that Commission shall determine the same.

Procedure of Commission.

2. All proceedings relating to any difference directed to be determined by the Railway and Canal Commission under this Act shall be conducted by the Commission in the same manner as any other proceeding is conducted by them under the Railway and Canal Traffic Acts, 1873 and 1888, or any Act amending the same, and any order of the Commission on any such difference or question shall be enforceable as any other order of the Commission: Provided—

- (1) that any matter of difference or any question arising before the Commission under this Act may, in the discretion of the Commission and with the consent of the parties, be heard and determined by the two appointed Commissioners, whose order shall be deemed to be the order of the Commission; and
- (2) that the costs of every proceeding before the Commission shall be in the discretion of the Commission.

Saving.

3. Nothing in this Act shall restrict or prejudice the operation of any provision of the Telegraph Acts, 1863 to 1908, or of any other Act by which any difference is referred to the Railway and Canal Commission.

Short title.

4. This Act may be cited as the Telegraph (Arbitration) Act, 1909, and may be cited with the Telegraph Acts, 1863 to 1908.

CHAPTER 21.
