"53. The Undertakers shall not, nor shall any consumer, connect any meter used or to be used under the Special Order for ascertaining the value of the supply with any electric line through which energy is supplied by the Undertakers, or disconnect any such meter from any such electric line, unless the one has given to the other not less than forty-eight hours' notice in writing of the intention to do so, and the Undertakers or any consumer acting in contravention of this section shall be liable for each offence to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings."

CHAPTER 35.

An Act to facilitate the proceedings of any Commissioner who may be appointed to hold an inquiry respecting the conduct of the Police of the City of Liverpool in dealing with disturbances of the peace in that city during the twelve months preceding the passing of this Act. [25th November 1909.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Powers of Commissioner.

1. Any Commissioner appointed by the Secretary of State to inquire into the conduct of the police of the city of Liverpool in dealing with disturbances of the peace in that city during the period of twelve months immediately preceding the passing of this Act, and into the circumstances causing such disturbances, shall have the like powers, rights, and privileges as were conferred by the Metropolitan Police (Commission) Act, 1906, on the Commissioners referred to in that Act, and that Act shall have effect as if it were herein re-enacted and in terms made applicable to this Act.

6 Edw. 7. c. 6.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Police (Liverpool Inquiry) Act, 1909.
