CHAPTER 20.

An Act to increase the amounts payable out of moneys provided by Parliament for the purposes of schemes under section one of the Colonial Development and Welfare Act, 1940, to extend the period during which certain of such schemes may continue in force, and to amend subsection (2) of the said section as respects the Aden Protectorate. [25th April 1945.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. Subsection (1) of section one of the Colonial Development and Welfare Act, 1940 (whereof the proviso imposes upon the sums to be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament for the purposes of schemes made under that section a limit of five hundred thousand pounds in any financial year in the case of schemes for promoting research or inquiry and of five million pounds in any financial year in the case of other schemes, and enacts that no such scheme other than a scheme for promoting research or inquiry shall continue in force after the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and fifty-one) shall, on and after the first day of April, nineteen hundred and forty-six, have effect as if for the said proviso there were therein substituted the following proviso :—

Amendment
of 3 & 4
Geo. 6. c. 40,
s. 1 (1).

“ Provided that unless Parliament otherwise determines—

(a) the sums to be so paid for the purposes of such schemes shall not in the aggregate exceed—

(i) seventeen million five hundred thousand pounds in any financial year ;

(ii) one hundred and twenty million pounds in the period of ten years ending with the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and fifty-six ;

and further the sums to be so paid for the purposes of schemes for promoting research or inquiry shall not in the aggregate exceed one million pounds in any financial year ; and

(b) no scheme made under this section, not being a scheme for promoting research or inquiry, shall continue in force after the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and fifty-six.”

2. So much of subsection (2) of section one of the said Act as requires the Secretary of State, before making any scheme under that section as respects any colony, to satisfy himself, in a case where the scheme provides for the payment of the whole or part of the cost of the execution of any works, that the law of the colony provides reasonable facilities for the establishment and activities of trade unions shall not have effect in relation to any scheme made as respects the Aden Protectorate.
