

CHAPTER v.

An Act to require the Commercial Gas Company to promote a future Bill. [30th May 1945.]

WHEREAS the Commercial Gas Company (in this Act referred to as "the Company") were originally incorporated by the Commercial Gas Act 1847 :

10 & 11
Vict. c. liii.

And whereas by the Commercial Gas Act 1852 the said Act of 1847 was repealed and the Company were continued and under the provisions of the said Act of 1852 and subsequent Acts the Company supply gas within the metropolitan boroughs of Bethnal Green Poplar and Stepney in the administrative county of London and parts of the county borough of West Ham :

15 & 16
Vict. c. clv.

And whereas by section 30 of the Commercial Gas Act 1940 it is enacted that the Company shall not later than in the Session 1945 promote a Bill in Parliament giving an opportunity for the amount of the basic price prescribed by the Commercial Gas Act 1927 to be revised :

3 & 4 Geo. 6.
c. xiii.
17 & 18
Geo. 5. c. ix.

And whereas owing to war conditions the time is inopportune for a revision of the said basic price to be made and it is expedient that a further occasion for such revision should be provided in the Session 1950 as provided by this Act :

And whereas the object aforesaid cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say) :—

1. This Act may be cited as the Commercial Gas Act 1945. Short title.
