

CHAPTER vi.

An Act to require the South Suburban Gas Company to promote a future Bill. [30th May 1945.]

WHEREAS the South Suburban Gas Company (in this Act referred to as "the Company") were originally incorporated by the Crystal Palace District Gas Company's Act 1858 by the name of the Crystal Palace District Gas Company: ^{21 & 22 Vict. c. cxxix.}

And whereas the Acts relating to the Company were consolidated by the South Suburban Gas Act 1928 and under that Act and subsequent Acts the Company are supplying gas in an area of supply which comprises parts of the counties of London Kent and Surrey: ^{18 & 19 Geo. 5. c. lxxx.}

And whereas by section 18 of the South Suburban Gas Act 1940 it is enacted that the Company shall not later than in the Session 1945 promote a Bill in Parliament proposing a revision of the basic price fixed by the South Suburban Gas Act 1928 or giving an opportunity for such revision to be made: ^{3 & 4 Geo. 6. c. xxiii.}

And whereas by the Special Enactments (Extension of Time) Act 1940 the Minister of Fuel and Power is authorised to make orders postponing for a period not longer than three years any date within which a duty imposed by a private Act is to be discharged but the said Special Enactments (Extension of Time) Act 1940 does not apply to a duty imposed by a subsequent Act: ^{3 & 4 Geo. 6. c. 16.}

And whereas the said South Suburban Gas Act 1940 was passed after the said Special Enactments (Extension of Time) Act 1940 and accordingly the procedure for making such orders is not available to the Company:

And whereas owing to war conditions the time is inopportune for a revision of the said basic price to be made and it is expedient that a further occasion for such revision should be provided in the Session 1948 as provided by this Act :

And whereas the object aforesaid cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say) :—
