of children who have not attained the age of five years and are not being educated in schools recognised by the Board of Education :

Provided that nothing in this Act shall authorise the establishment by any local authority of a general domiciliary service by medical practitioners.

Maternity and child welfare committees.
5 & 6 Geo. 5.
c. 64.

2.—(1) Every council in England and Wales exercising powers under this Act or under section two of the Notification of Births (Extension) Act, 1915, shall establish a maternity and child welfare committee, which may be an existing committee of the council or a sub-committee of an existing committee, and all matters relating to the exercise of the powers of the council under this Act or under the Notification of Births (Extension) Act, 1915 (except the power of raising a rate or of borrowing money), shall stand referred to such committee, and the council, before exercising any such powers, shall, unless in their opinion the matter is urgent, receive and consider the report of the maternity and child welfare committee with respect to the matter in question, and the council may also delegate to the maternity and child welfare committee, with or without restrictions or conditions as they think fit, any of their powers under that Act or this Act, except the power of raising a rate or of borrowing money.

(2) The council may appoint as members of the committee persons specially qualified by training or experience in subjects relating to health and maternity who are not members of the council, but not less than two-thirds of the members of every maternity and child welfare committee shall consist of members of the council, and at least two members of every such committee shall be women, and where the duties of the maternity and child welfare committee are discharged by an existing committee or sub-committee any members appointed under this provision who are not members of the council shall act only in connection with maternity and child welfare.

(3) The committee established under this section shall take the place of any committee appointed under subsection (2) of section two of the Notification of Births (Extension) Act, 1915, and the provisions of that subsection relating to the exercise of powers by a committee shall cease to have effect.

(4) A committee established under this section may, subject to any directions of the council, appoint such and so many sub-committees, consisting either wholly or partly of members of the committee, as the committee thinks fit.

Expenses.

3. The expenses of any council in England and Wales under this Act shall be defrayed in the same manner as expenses under the Notification of Births Acts, 1907 and 1915, and the purposes of this Act shall be purposes for which a sanitary authority in London may borrow under subsection (2) of section one hundred and five of the Public Health (London), Act, 1891 : 54 & 55 Vict.

c. 76.

Provided that a county council may, if they think fit, charge all expenses under this Act or those Acts as general county expenses subject to the condition that, if any district council within the county has provided for its district a similar service to that provided by the county council for other parts of the county, the county council shall pay to the district council the amount raised by the county council in the district in respect of such service. Any question that may arise between a county council and a district council under this proviso shall be determined by the Local Government Board.

4. Section three of the Notification of Births (Extension) Act, 1915, shall be read as if the following words were inserted at the end of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) and paragraph (b) of subsection (2) thereof, namely :— Amendment of
s. 3 of 5 & 6 Geo. 5.
c. 64.

“ and for the purpose of any such arrangements may,
“ subject to the sanction aforesaid, exercise the like powers
“ as they are entitled to exercise for the purpose of the “ provision of hospitals.”

5.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Maternity and Child Welfare Act, 1918. Short title and application.

(2) This Act, except the section thereof providing for the amendment of section three of the Notification of Births (Extension) Act, 1915, shall not apply to Scotland or Ireland.
