SCHEDULE.

WHEREAS power is given to a Secretary of State by the Provisional Order (Marriages) Act 1905 in the case of marriages solemnized in England which appear to him to be invalid or of doubtful validity by reason of some informality to make a Provisional Order for the purpose of removing the invalidity or doubt :

And whereas the church of Saint Catherine Neasden situate in the new parish of Neasden cum Kingsbury in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London was duly consecrated on the fourth day of March one thousand nine hundred and sixteen but has not been licensed for the solemnization of marriages :

And whereas divers marriages have nevertheless been solemnized in the said church of Saint Catherine Neasden between the fourth day of March one thousand nine hundred and sixteen and the thirty-first day of March one thousand nine hundred and seventeen :

And whereas on the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred and seventeen after publication of banns a marriage was solemnized in the church of Saint Barbara Earlsdon in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester and in the conventional district of Saint Barbara Earlsdon which was constituted out of the new parish of Saint Thomas Coventry though such church was not then licensed for the solemnization of marriages :

And whereas it is expedient in the circumstances aforesaid to remove all doubts touching the validity of the marriages solemnized in the said churches of Saint Catherine Neasden and Saint Barbara Earlsdon :

Now therefore I the Right Honourable Sir George Cave one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State in pursuance of the powers conferred on me by the said Provisional Order (Marriages) Act 1905 do hereby order that on and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order the following provisions shall have effect :—

1. All banns of matrimony and marriages published and solemnized and all marriages solemnized under licence between the fourth day of March one thousand nine hundred and sixteen and the thirty-first day of March one thousand nine hundred and seventeen in the church of Saint Catherine Neasden situate in the new parish of Neasden cum Kingsbury in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London and the marriage solemnized after banns on the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred and seventeen in the church of Saint Barbara Earlsdon in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester and in the conventional district of Saint Barbara Earlsdon which was constituted out of the new parish of Saint Thomas Coventry shall be and shall be deemed to have been as valid as if the banns of matrimony had been published and the marriages had been solemnized in a church in which banns might be published and marriages solemnized lawfully.

2. A minister who has solemnized any marriage referred to in the preceding paragraph of this Order shall not be liable to any proceedings for penalties whatsoever or to any ecclesiastical censure by reason of having solemnized the marriages.

3. The registers of the marriages so solemnized or copies of the registers shall be received in all courts as evidence of those marriages in the same manner as registers of marriages duly solemnized or copies thereof are by law receivable in evidence.

Given under my hand this eighteenth day of December one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.
