

(3) Any annuity granted before the passing of this Act shall be deemed to have been payable in conformity with the practice confirmed by this Act, and any payments made before the passing of this Act, in conformity with that practice, are hereby confirmed.

2. This Act may be cited as the Prison Officers (Pensions) Act, Short title. 1902, and may be cited with the Prison Acts, 1865 to 1898.

CHAPTER 10.

An Act to amend the Law as to Pensions and Gratuities of Police Reservists called out on permanent service.
[22nd July 1902.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Where a constable of a police force within the meaning of the Police Act, 1890, or the Police (Scotland) Act, 1890, has been called out for permanent service as a member of the Army Reserve in pursuance of the Royal Proclamation of the seventh day of October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, his period of service under that proclamation may, if the police authority think fit, be reckoned in the computation of approved service for the purpose of any pension or gratuity under those Acts; and this Act shall have effect as from the date of that proclamation.

Period of service as reservist to count for pension.
53 & 54 Vict. cc. 45, 67.

2. This Act may be cited as the Police Reservists Act, 1902. Short title.

CHAPTER 11.

An Act to make further provision for the Punishment of Persons trading in Prostitution in Scotland.
[22nd July 1902.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1.—(1) Every male person who—

(a) knowingly lives wholly or in part on the earnings of prostitution; or

(b) in any public place persistently solicits or importunes for immoral purposes, shall be guilty of a crime and offence, and, being convicted thereof before a court of summary jurisdiction, shall be liable, at the discretion of the court, to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months with hard labour.

(2) If it is made to appear to a court of summary jurisdiction by information on oath that there is reason to suspect that any house or any part of a house is used by a female for purposes of prostitution, and that any male person residing in or frequenting the house is living wholly or in part on the earnings of the prostitute, the court may issue a warrant authorising any constable to enter and search the house and to arrest that male person.

(3) Where a male person is proved to live with or to be habitually in the company of a prostitute, and has no visible means of subsistence, he shall, unless he can satisfy the court to the contrary, be deemed to be knowingly living on the earnings of prostitution.

Extent and short title.

2.—(1) This Act shall extend to Scotland only.

(2) This Act may be cited as the Immoral Traffic (Scotland) Act, 1902.

CHAPTER 12.

An Act to enable the Trustees of the British Museum to remove certain newspapers and other printed matter from the present British Museum Buildings.

[22nd July 1902.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide space elsewhere than at the present British Museum Buildings for the storage of newspapers and other printed matter which are rarely required for public use :

And whereas land has been acquired at Hendon, in the county of Middlesex, and a building (herein-after referred to as " the Hendon building ") is to be erected thereon for the purpose of providing the necessary storage space :

Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Power to remove certain newspapers and other printed matter
and store them at the Hendon building.

1. The Trustees of the British Museum may, with the consent of the Treasury, remove to the Hendon building and store there any newspapers and other printed matter which appear to them to be rarely required for public use, but the Trustees shall make arrangements, to the satisfaction of the Treasury, for making any newspapers and printed matter so removed available for use by the public at the present British Museum buildings, when required, on due notice being given.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the British Museum Act, 1902.
