CHAPTER 11.

An Act to enable Newspapers published in British Possessions or Protectorates to be registered and be treated as Registered Newspapers under the Post Office Act, 1908. [15th August 1913.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Extension of provisions as to registration of newspapers to newspapers published in British possessions or protectorates.
8 Edw. 7. c. 48.

1. The provisions of the Post Office Act, 1908, relating to the registration of newspapers and registered newspapers shall apply to publications printed and published in a British possession or protectorate as they apply to publications printed and published in the British Islands, and accordingly paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section twenty of the Post Office Act, 1908 (which relates to the publications which may be registered as a newspaper), shall be read as if the words "or in some British possession or protectorate" were inserted after the words "in the British Islands":

Provided that the Postmaster General may refuse to register as a newspaper a publication printed and published in a British possession or protectorate, unless arrangements have been made to his satisfaction for maintaining a responsible representative of the publication in the United Kingdom.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression "British Protectorate" shall be deemed to include the Malay States and Cyprus.

2. This Act may be cited as the Post Office Act, 1913, and shall be read as one with the Post Office Act, 1908. Short title.

CHAPTER 12.

An Act to enable the provision of Medical Treatment for Children attending Schools in Scotland.

[15th August 1913.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as the Education (Scotland) Act, 1913, and this Act and the Education (Scotland) Acts, 1872 to 1908, shall, so far as consistent with the tenor thereof, be construed as one Act, and may be cited as the Education (Scotland) Acts, 1872 to 1913. Short title and construction.

2. This Act shall extend to Scotland only.

Extent of Act.

3. When, as the result of medical inspection or otherwise, it is brought to the notice of a school board that a child attending a school within their district is in need of medical (including surgical and dental) treatment, the board shall have, and shall be deemed since the commencement of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1908, to have had, the same powers and duties with reference to the provision of medical (including surgical and dental) treatment for the child as they have with reference to the provision of sufficient and proper food or clothing or necessary personal attention under and in virtue of section six of the said Act. In carrying out the provisions of this Act or of section six of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1908, a school board shall have power to act in combination with one or more school boards or with the secondary education committee for the district.

Duties of school board in regard to medical treatment of children.
8 Edw. 7. c. 63.
