area affected by Order.

1.—(1) This Order applies (except as hereinafter provided) to the area described in the First Schedule hereto and more particularly delineated on a map sealed by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries in relation to this Order and to all salmon and freshwater fisheries in such area which area is hereinafter referred to as “the Fishery District.”

(2) A copy of the said map certified under the Documentary Evidence Acts 1868 to 1895 shall be kept by the Board of Conservators hereby constituted at the office of the clerk of that Board and be open at all reasonable times to inspection free of charge by any person desiring inspection for any bonâ fide purpose.

(3) Except as provided in the section of this Order whereof the marginal note is “Application of byelaws to excepted waters” and in subsection (2) of the section whereof the marginal note is “Abolition of existing Board of Conservators and other provisions” all reservoirs and works belonging to a water authority and forming part of its water undertaking which at the date of this Order have been constructed or authorised to be constructed and all lands and all waters flowing into any such reservoir where the lands or waters belong to a water authority and form part of its water undertaking shall be excepted from the Fishery District and from the provisions of this Order Subsection (3) of section 28 of the Fylde Water Board Act 1912 so far as the same is not consistent with the exceptions of reservoirs works lands and waters hereinbefore contained is hereby repealed.

Constitution and incorporation of Board of Conservators.

2.—(1) For the purposes of this Order a Board of Conservators shall be constituted in manner hereinafter appearing as a body corporate under the name of the Ribble Board of Conservators having perpetual succession and a common seal with power to make contracts and to sue and be sued in that name and such Board is in this Order referred to as “the Fishery Board.”

(2) The Fishery Board shall consist of the following members:— A.D. 1913.

- (A) Three members appointed by the Council of the Administrative County of Lancaster and two members appointed by the Council of the Administrative County of the West Riding of Yorkshire :
- (B) Twenty members elected in manner provided by this Order by the persons who under this Order are entitled to vote for the election of members representative of private fisheries :
- (C) Members representative of public fisheries within the Fishery District to be elected in the same numbers and under the same rules as to election as representative members under sections 29 to 33 of the Salmon Fishery Act 1873 except that after the year nineteen hundred and thirteen the elections shall be triennial and the number of members to be elected shall be determined according to the average amount of licence duty paid in the year of election and the two preceding years :
- (D) Members representative of the interests of persons fishing with rod and line for freshwater fish to be appointed by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries Such members shall be appointed triennially and except in the case of an appointment to fill a vacancy caused by death or resignation shall come into office on the appointed day in each year The number of members to be so appointed shall (subject as hereinafter provided) be regulated by the average amount of licence duty paid for fishing with rod and line for freshwater fish in the year of election before the first day of December and in the two preceding years which amount shall if so required be certified to the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries by the clerk to the Fishery Board If the amount of licence duty so paid does not exceed one hundred and fifty pounds three members may be so appointed and if it exceeds that sum one additional member may be appointed for every additional fifty pounds so paid The number of such members to be first appointed shall be three :
- (E) Any person who is entered in the register of assessments as an owner of a private fishery or private fisheries assessed for the purpose of fishery contributions under this Order at a total yearly value of one hundred pounds or more shall subject to the provisions of this subsection be entitled to act as an additional member of the Fishery Board ;

Where a person entitled to act as an additional member is an infant or a lunatic the guardian or committee of the estate as the case may be shall be entitled to act in the place of such person ;

An additional member may nominate by power of attorney an agent to act for him as a member and an agent so nominated shall be entitled so to act until the power is duly determined A copy of every such nomination and notice of the determination of a nomination shall be sent as soon as may be by the owner making or determining the nomination to the clerk of the Fishery Board and an agent shall not be entitled to act until a copy of his nomination has been received by the clerk ;

Where persons entitled to act as additional members are so entitled as joint tenants or tenants in common of a fishery or fisheries they shall act only by an agent nominated by them in manner hereinbefore provided who may be one of the persons by whom the nomination is made.

(3) Where an additional member is elected as a member representative of private fisheries he shall not be entitled to vote in each capacity on any question to be determined by the Fishery Board and for the purpose of a quorum shall be counted as one member This provision shall not affect a nomination by the additional member of an agent to act for him as an additional member.

Election of members representative of private fisheries.

3. The following rules shall be observed with respect to the election of members representative of private fisheries :—

(1) The electors shall be the owners of private fisheries assessed for the purposes of fishery contributions under this Order who on the first day of December in any year of election are entered in the register of assessments and have then paid the fishery contributions (if any) due from them :

(2) Each elector shall be entitled to vote according to the following scale :—

If the fishery or fisheries in respect of which he is entitled to vote is or are assessed for the purposes of this Order at the yearly value of twenty pounds or less one vote for each member to be elected ;

Assessment committee.

8.—(1) The Fishery Board shall appoint an assessment committee of not less than five members of the Board of whom three shall form a quorum and such committee shall cause the yearly value of every fishery which appears to them to be liable to be assessed to be determined either by written agreement with the owner thereof or in default of such agreement by a valuer who may on the application of the committee or of the owner be appointed by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries. The remuneration of the valuer shall be fixed by the last-mentioned Board and be paid to him on demand in equal shares by the Fishery Board and the owner.

(2) A clerk may be appointed by the assessment committee but in the absence of such appointment the clerk of the Fishery Board shall be the clerk of the committee.

(3) An assessment committee may provisionally assess the yearly value of a fishery at such amount as they think reasonable and notify such provisional assessment by registered post to the reputed owner of the fishery by a notice in the form set forth in the Third Schedule hereto. If no objection to such provisional assessment is received by the clerk of the assessment committee within fourteen days after the date on which the notice was posted the yearly value of the fishery shall for the purposes of this Order be deemed to have been determined at the amount stated in the notice and the person to whom the notice was sent shall be entered in the register of assessments as the owner of the fishery.

(4) Assessment committees may be appointed for separate parts of the Fishery District and a committee so appointed shall act in accordance with any rules made by the Fishery Board.

(5) A member of an assessment committee shall not act as such in relation to a fishery if he is owner or occupier of the fishery or the agent of the owner or occupier.

Register of assessments.

9.—(1) The yearly value of a fishery when determined shall if amounting to five pounds or upwards be entered by the clerk of the Fishery Board in the register of assessments with a description of the fishery and the name and address of the owner thereof. The clerk of the Fishery Board may upon the application of any person claiming to be the owner of a fishery entered in such register and upon such evidence of ownership as appears to him to be sufficient insert the name and address of the applicant in the register as the owner of the fishery in the place of any person so entered as owner thereof.

(2) The register of assessments shall be kept at the office of the clerk of the Fishery Board and be open to inspection free of charge by any person bonâ fide claiming to be an owner of a fishery registered or liable to be registered therein or by the agent of the owner and this right of inspection shall include a right to make copies of entries in the register. A.D. 1913.

10.—(1) On the date determined by the Fishery Board every contribution shall be payable by the owners of the fisheries assessed to the collector appointed by the Fishery Board to receive the same. Provided that if the collector is unable to ascertain the owner of any fishery or if the owner of a fishery makes default in paying the amount due from him the amount may be recovered by the collector as a debt from the occupier of the fishery and the occupier shall subject to any agreement to the contrary be entitled to deduct from the rent of the fishery (if any) payable by him any sum so paid on behalf of the owner thereof or recover the same from the owner as a debt. Recovery of contributions.

(2) Notice of demand for payment of a contribution in the form set forth in the Third Schedule to this Order shall be sent by post to the persons entered in the register of assessments as owners of fisheries and in any proceedings for the recovery of a contribution a certificate in the form set forth in such Schedule purporting to be signed by the clerk of the Fishery Board shall be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated and unless the contrary is proved the person entered in the register of assessments as owner of a fishery shall for the purpose of any such proceedings be deemed to be the owner of the fishery.

11.—(1) The assessment committee shall on the application of any person claiming to be the owner of a fishery liable to be assessed under this Order proceed as soon as is practicable to— Apportionment &c. of
assessments.

(i) determine the yearly value of the fishery if it has not been determined either separately or in one assessment with another fishery; or

(ii) apportion the assessed yearly value between the fishery of the applicant and any other fishery included in the same assessment; or

(iii) re-determine the yearly value of the fishery.

(2) In the case of apportionment notice of the application shall be given to the owner of any other fishery included in the same assessment and the committee shall apportion the yearly value between the fisheries but the owner of any fishery may by notice in writing delivered or sent by post to the clerk of the Fishery Board within seven days after receipt of notification of the apportionment require the apportionment to be made by a valuer appointed by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries and the apportionment shall thereupon be so made. The remuneration of the valuer shall be fixed by the last-mentioned Board and be recoverable from the owners of the fisheries in such shares as correspond with the respective yearly values of those fisheries as so determined.

(2) A permit granted to a person under this provision shall not be construed as authorising him to fish in any waters in which he is not otherwise entitled to fish.

Removal of diseased fish. 28. The provisions of the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Acts 1861 to 1892 relating to powers of water bailiffs shall in the case of a water bailiff appointed by the Fishery Board extend to the removal of diseased fish from any waters in the Fishery District and to the disposal of the same as the Fishery Board direct.

Modification of Salmon Fishery Act 1861 s. 26. 29. The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries may by written permit available for a period specified in the permit exempt any sluices from the provisions of section 26 of the Salmon Fishery Act 1861 on such conditions (if any) as may be specified in the permit.

Modification of law as to gratings. 30. Sections 58 and 60 of the Salmon Fisheries Act 1873 shall apply within the Fishery District with the substitution of "salmon or freshwater fish" for "salmon" and as if the words "from the nature of the channel" were omitted from section 60.

Modification of Salmon Fishery Act 1861 s. 25 and Salmon Fishery Act 1873 s. 46. 31. In any case in which by the provisions of the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Acts 1861 to 1892 a fish pass is required to be attached to or made as part of the structure of any dam weir or other obstruction to the passage of salmon the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries on the application of the owner or occupier thereof may by written permit exempt such dam weir or obstruction from the operation of such provisions for such period and on such terms and conditions as the said Board may think fit and specify in the permit.

Modification of Salmon Fishery Act 1861 s. 23. 32. The power of erecting a fish pass attached to a dam conferred by section 23 of the Salmon Fishery Act 1861 as amended by the Salmon Fishery Act 1873 shall extend to the erection and maintenance of a fish pass adjacent to but not attached to the dam.

Confirmation of byelaws. 33. A byelaw made by the Fishery Board may be confirmed by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries either without modification or with such modification as may be assented to by the Fishery Board and in the latter case notice of the proposed modification shall be given by the Fishery Board by advertisement or otherwise in accordance with the directions (if any) of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries in that behalf.

34. A copy of any byelaw made by the Fishery Board purporting to be signed by the clerk of the Fishery Board and certified by him to be a true copy and to have been duly confirmed shall be evidence until the contrary is proved in all legal proceedings of the due making confirmation publication and existence of such byelaws without further or other proof.
