13. All the trusts powers discretions and authorities hereby given to or vested in the Trustees shall be exerciseable by their executive committee or a majority of such committee as fully and effectually in all respects as the same might have been exercised by the Trustees.

14. The following provisions shall apply to every special meeting of the Church:—

- (a) The meeting shall be convened by the minister or pastor or deacons or committee for the time being of the Church or by the authority of the Trustees or of one-fifth in number of the members of the Church entitled to vote at such meeting by notice announcing the place day and hour of the meeting and the business or matter to be transacted or considered and such notice shall be given at each service held in the chapel belonging to the charity on the two Lord's days immediately preceding such meeting:
- (b) The meeting shall be fixed for and held not earlier than the Wednesday next following the second of such two Lord's days:
- (c) The only persons who shall be entitled to attend and vote at such meeting shall be those who whether male or female have attained the age of 21 years and have been members of the Church during at least six calendar months next preceding the meeting:
- (d) No votes shall be given by proxy but votes may be given by ballot or otherwise as the Church may direct:

- (e) The term "special resolution" in this scheme means a resolution passed at a special meeting of the Church by a majority consisting of not less than two-thirds of the persons present and voting on the resolutions and the same shall be binding upon all the members of the Church whether present or not at such meeting:
- (f) Except where a special resolution is hereby expressly required a resolution passed at a special meeting by a simple majority of the persons present and voting on the resolution shall be binding on all the members of the Church whether present or not at such meeting:
- (g) The proceedings and resolutions of the meeting shall be evidenced by a minute thereof under the hand of the chairman who shall have a casting vote and such minute shall be conclusive evidence that any resolution therein expressed to have been passed was passed at a meeting duly convened and held and by the requisite majority and it shall further be presumed that the person subscribing such minute as chairman was duly appointed to the office.

15. Except where it is hereby expressly provided that a special resolution of the Church or a resolution of a special meeting thereof is requisite the affairs of the Church and the provisions of this scheme may in all respects be managed and carried out under the direction of the members of the Church at ordinary meetings of the Church to which meetings the provisions of the last preceding clause hereof shall not apply but the same shall be held and regulated according to the ordinary practices and usages of Congregational churches which practices and usages shall also apply to special meetings of the Church subject to the provisions of such last preceding clause hereof.

16. In the event of the removal of the Church to another locality the powers hereby vested in the Church in regard to the charity shall not thereby be suspended or in any manner impaired or affected.

17. The Charity Commissioners may from time to time in the exercise of their ordinary jurisdiction establish schemes for the alteration of any provisions of this scheme as if those provisions had been made by a founder in the case of a charity having a founder.
