CHAPTER 28

An Act to make provision with respect to the use of eyes of deceased persons for therapeutic purposes. [26th June, 1952.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Removal of eyes of deceased persons.

1.—(1) If any person, either in writing at any time or orally in the presence of two or more witnesses during his last illness, has expressed a request that his eyes be used for therapeutic purposes after his death, the party lawfully in possession of his body after his death may, unless he has reason to believe that the request was subsequently withdrawn, authorise the removal of the eyes from the body for use for those purposes.

(2) Without prejudice to the foregoing subsection, the party lawfully in possession of the body of a deceased person may authorise the removal of the eyes from the body for the purpose aforesaid unless that party has reason to believe—

(a) that the deceased had expressed an objection to his eyes being so dealt with after his death, and had not withdrawn it; or
