

(3) So much of subsection (3) of the said section as requires the establishment and regulation of one or more sinking funds shall not apply in a case where the Treasury and the Secretary of State are satisfied that the arrangements for the repayment of the principal of the loan, and for the payment of interest on and other charges in respect of the loan, are such as not to require the establishment of a sinking fund; and in paragraph (e) of that subsection, after the words "general revenues and assets of the colonial territory concerned" there shall be inserted the words "or on any other revenues and assets which may be made available for the purpose".

(4) For subsection (7) of the said section there shall be substituted the following subsection—

"(7) In this section the expression "colonial territory" means any territory which at the date of the making of the loan in question is, or is part of—

(a) a colony; or

(b) a British protectorate or protected state; or

(c) a territory for the time being administered by Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom under the trusteeship system of the United Nations;"

and the said expression shall have the same meaning in this Act.

2. This Act may be cited as the Colonial Loans Act, 1952, and this Act and the Colonial Loans Act, 1949, may be cited together as the Colonial Loans Acts, 1949 and 1952. Short title and citation.
