adjustments.

40. Where in consequence of any alteration of areas or authorities made by this Act any adjustment of any property income debts liabilities or expenses so far as they are affected by the alteration is required an adjustment shall be made between the councils or other authorities affected under and in accordance with section 151 of the Act of 1933 as if this Act were an order made under Part VI of that Act.

Jury service.

41. For the purpose of summoning jurors and of jury service any parish affected by this Act shall be deemed to continue unaltered until a new jurors' book for the parish as altered comes into force.

Local land
registers.

42.—(1) The local registrars for the county and for the rural district respectively under the Land Charges Act 1925 and the rules made thereunder shall within one month after the appointed day supply to the local registrar for the borough an office copy of every entry in the local land charges register relating to any land situate within the added area and shall be paid by the Corporation in respect thereof such fees as are prescribed by the said rules.

(2) The local registrar for the borough shall within one month after the receipt of the office copies mentioned in subsection (1) of this section enter the same with any necessary modifications in the appropriate part of the local land charges register of the borough.

(3) Until the entries are made as aforesaid or until the expiration of two months from the appointed day whichever be the earlier the following provisions shall have effect in respect of all land within the added area :—

- (a) The local registrar for the borough shall give notice to any person desiring to make a personal search that an additional search should be made in the register for the rural district and in the register for the county ;
- (b) Where application is made for an official search the local registrar for the borough shall issue free of charge a certificate of official search in the register of the borough and shall forward to the local registrar for the rural district the application received by him together with the fees paid in respect thereof and shall also forward to the local registrar for the county a copy of the application ;
- (c) The local registrars for the rural district and for the county shall permit and make such searches and furnish such office copies and certificates as they would have been required to permit make and furnish and shall in relation thereto have the same powers and be subject to the same obligations as if this Act had not been passed ;
- (d) The fees in respect of searches permitted or made and in respect of certificates furnished by the local registrar for the county in pursuance of the provisions of paragraph (c) of this subsection shall be paid by the Corporation ;
- (e) Where an entry of a local land charge which has been duly made in the local land charges register of the county or of the rural district is required by this section to be transferred from the register of the county or the rural district to the register of the borough such charge shall not be void as against a purchaser for money or money's worth of a legal estate in the land affected thereby by reason only that it has not been entered in the register of the borough.

43.—(1) As from the passing of this Act the Corporation shall Town be entitled at all reasonable times to inspect and take copies of all planning. plans or documents relating to any land within the added area which are in the possession or under the control of the county council or the rural council for the purposes of or in connection with the Town and Country Planning Act 1947 and the county council and the rural council shall supply to the Corporation such information and shall afford to them such assistance for the purposes of or in connection with the said Act as the Corporation may reasonably require.

(2) An office copy of every entry in the register relating to any land within the added area kept by the county council under section 14 of the said Act of 1947 shall within one month after the appointed day be supplied to the town clerk by the clerk of the county council or the clerk of the rural council having the custody of that part of the register in which the entry appears as the case may be.

(3) The town clerk shall within one month after the receipt of the office copy mentioned in subsection (2) of this section enter the same or cause the same to be entered with any necessary modifications in the register kept by the Corporation under section 14 of the said Act of 1947.

(4) Any application for planning permission or for any consent or approval under the said Act of 1947 or for a determination under section 17 of that Act made to the county council or the rural council on their behalf before the appointed day and not determined before that day shall so far as it relates to land within the added area be treated as a like application made to the Corporation and shall be treated as having been so made on the appointed day:

Provided that it shall not be necessary for the Corporation to consult with any authority person or body with whom consultation has already taken place in relation to that application.

(5) Any order agreement permission approval determination consent notice proceeding or decision made taken or given by the county council as local planning authority under the said Act of 1947 (except Part II thereof) or having effect as if so made taken or given and in force immediately before the appointed day shall so far as it relates to any land within the added area have effect as if it had been made taken or given by the Corporation as such authority in respect of that land.

(6) Any direction approval consent or decision given by the Minister or the Minister of Transport under or in pursuance of the said Act of 1947 (except Part II thereof) or any enactment thereby repealed affecting the county council as local planning authority and in force immediately before the appointed day shall in so far as it relates to any land within the added area have effect as if the same had been given to the Corporation as local planning authority.

(7) Where before the appointed day a development plan which contains proposals as to the added area is submitted by the county council under Part II of the said Act of 1947 then if at that day—

- (a) a development plan has not been submitted by the Corporation with respect to the whole of their area ; or
- (b) a development plan has been approved by the Minister with respect to the whole of their area ;

such proposals shall be deemed to be either a development plan relating to the added area submitted by the Corporation with the consent of the Minister under subsection (5) of section 5 of the said Act of 1947 or (as the case may be) proposals for alterations or additions to the approved development plan and any further proceedings in relation thereto may be taken by the Corporation or the Minister separately from the proceedings on the development plan submitted by the county council.

44.—(1) The clerk of the county council and the clerk of the rural council shall as soon as may be after the passing of this Act and in any case before the appointed day send to the town clerk a copy of every entry in any register of the county council or of the rural council as the case may be under any enactment rule order or regulation for the time being in force which relates to any property matter or thing relating to or which otherwise affects the added area and the town clerk shall include in the appropriate register of the Corporation the particulars respectively furnished by the clerk of the county council and by the clerk of the rural council. Entries in registers.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not extend to any matter for which provision is made in section 42 (Local land charges registers) or section 43 (Town planning) of this Act.

(3) In this section “register” includes any list kept for the purposes of Part II of the Pharmacy and Poisons Act 1933.

45.—(1) As soon as practicable after the appointed day the county council and the rural council shall as regards any cash balances remaining in their hands at the appointed day after deduction therefrom of undischarged debts liabilities and outgoings normally payable which have accrued up to the appointed day estimate the proportion thereof derived from contributions paid by any part of the added area and shall transfer such amount to the Corporation. Appportionment of balances etc.

(2) The county council and the rural council shall pay and discharge all their debts liabilities and outgoings which shall become payable or accrued due in respect of the added area immediately before the appointed day.

(3) The Corporation shall pay and discharge all their debts liabilities and outgoings which shall become payable or accrue due on or after the appointed day in relation exclusively to the added area or any part thereof.

(4) Any sum received on or after the appointed day by the county council or the rural council under a precept issued or rate made before that day in respect of any part of the added area shall be dealt with in the manner prescribed by subsection (1) of this section.

(5) The apportionment under this section of any balance or sum received shall be subject to review on an adjustment under this Act.

Contribution
orders precepts
and arrears
of rates.

46.—(1) Notwithstanding the alteration of areas effected by this Act all contribution orders and precepts made or issued before the appointed day shall be as valid in law as if this Act had not been passed.

(2) All rates not collected immediately before the appointed day in respect of hereditaments within the added area shall be collected and recovered by the Corporation.

(3) Any rates so collected and recovered shall be a matter for adjustment under this Act.

Parish books

47.—(1) All public books writings and papers belonging to the county council or the rural council in relation exclusively to any part of the added area and all documents relating to any part of the added area and directed by law to be kept with the public books writings and papers thereof (except any book or document relating to the affairs of the church or to ecclesiastical charities or to a parochial non-ecclesiastical charity) and all plans papers and writings of the county council and the rural council and the parish councils relating exclusively to any part of the added area shall be deposited in such custody as the Corporation may direct.

(2) Any ratepayer of any existing parish any part of which is comprised in the added area shall at all times have the same right of inspection and of making extracts from the public books writings papers and documents referred to in this section as he would have had if this Act had not been passed.

As to registration districts.

48. Nothing in this Act shall affect the area of any existing registration district or sub-district without prejudice however to the exercise of the powers contained in sections 24 and 131 of the Act of 1929 as to the alteration thereof.

Saving for qualification
of aldermen
councillors.

49. Any alderman or councillor who is to continue in office after the appointed day shall not during his term of office current immediately before that day be deemed to lose his qualification for being an alderman or councillor by reason of the alterations of area made by this Act.

50.—(1) No alteration effected by this Act in the area of any local or other authority shall cause to abate or shall prejudicially affect or prevent the continuance of any action cause of action or proceeding which immediately before the appointed day is pending or existing by or against any such authority or any contract deed bond agreement or other instrument (subsisting immediately before the appointed day) entered into or made by that authority or their predecessors: Savings for actions contracts etc.

Provided that—

- (a) any action cause of action or proceeding which immediately before the appointed day is pending or existing by or against any such authority in relation exclusively to any part of the added area may be continued prosecuted and enforced by or against the Corporation; and
- (b) all contracts deeds bonds agreements and other instruments (subsisting immediately before the appointed day) entered into or made by any such authority or their predecessors in relation exclusively to any part of the added area shall continue and be in force as fully and effectually as if instead of that authority or their predecessors the Corporation had been a party thereto.

(2) All legal proceedings pending immediately before the appointed day may be amended in such manner as may be necessary or proper in consequence of this Act.

51. Nothing in this Act shall—

- (a) be construed as restricting any power under the Act of 1929 or the Act of 1933 of altering any of the areas or the constitution of any authority or committee;
- (b) alter the area of any constituency or affect the powers of the Corporation or the county council under section 11 of the Representation of the People Act 1949 for the division of a constituency into polling districts for parliamentary elections and the appointment of polling places for parliamentary elections;
- (c) alter the area of any ecclesiastical parish or prejudice vary or affect any power right interest or jurisdiction in over or in connection with any charitable endowment;

- (e) affect land tax.

Saving provisions.

For protection of statutory undertakers.

52. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other Act the following provisions for the protection and benefit of the Northern Gas Board the North Eastern Electricity Board and the Hartlepoons Water Company (each of whom is in this section referred to as "the undertakers") shall unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Corporation and the undertakers apply and have effect:—

(1) In this section

"apparatus" means—

(a) in relation to the Northern Gas Board mains pipes and other works and apparatus belonging to that board and includes any structure constructed for lodging apparatus therein; and

(b) in relation to the North Eastern Electricity Board electric lines and works (as respectively defined in the Electric Lighting Act 1882) belonging to that board; and

(c) in relation to the Hartlepoons Water Company mains pipes and apparatus belonging to that company and includes any structure constructed for lodging apparatus therein;

"in" in a context referring to apparatus includes under over across along or upon;

"position" includes depth; and

"the said section 89" means section 89 (Power to stop up highways when unnecessary &c.) of the West Hartlepool Extension and Improvement Act 1870 as amended and extended by this Act:

(2) (a) Whenever by virtue of an order made under the said section 89 any highway in which any apparatus is situated is stopped up and it is reasonably necessary to remove such apparatus the undertakers may and shall if the Corporation so require—

(i) remove the apparatus to and relay or replace the same in such other position as may be agreed or determined by arbitration; or

(ii) provide and lay or place other apparatus in a substituted highway or in such other position as aforesaid in lieu of such existing apparatus;

(b) The Corporation shall repay or cause to be repaid to the undertakers the reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the undertakers of or in connection with the removal and relaying or replacing of any such apparatus and the provision and laying or placing of any such new apparatus and the reasonable costs of and incidental to (i) the cutting off of any apparatus from any other apparatus and (ii) any other work or thing rendered reasonably necessary in consequence of any such operations as are referred to in this paragraph:

- (3) Notwithstanding the stopping up by virtue of an order made under the said section 89 of any highway in which any apparatus is situated the undertakers shall (unless the apparatus is removed or unless other apparatus has been laid in substitution therefor) continue to have the same powers and rights in respect of such apparatus as if the land in which the same is situated had continued to be a highway or such other rights and powers as may be agreed in writing between the undertakers and the person in whom the soil of the highway is vested:

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall extend or apply the provisions of the Public Utilities Street Works Act 1950 to the exercise of any powers or rights in any case in which those provisions would not have applied if this subsection had not been enacted:

- (4) Any difference which may arise between the Corporation and the undertakers under this section shall be referred to a single arbitrator to be agreed upon between the parties or in default of such agreement appointed on the application of either party by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers and subject as aforesaid the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1950 shall apply to any such arbitration.

53.—(1) The Corporation shall have power in addition and without prejudice to their powers of borrowing under the Act of 1933 from time to time to borrow without the consent of any sanctioning authority for and in connection with the purposes mentioned in the first column of the following table the respective sums requisite for those purposes and shall pay off all moneys so borrowed within such periods as the Corporation may determine not exceeding those respectively mentioned in the second column of the said table (namely): —

1 Purpose	2 Period for repayment
(a) The purpose of making any capital payment to any authority under this Act or under any enactment the provisions of which are applied thereby.	Forty-five years from the date or dates of borrowing.
(b) The payment of any capital sum under the provisions of section 37 (Compensation to existing officers) of this Act.	Twenty years from the date or dates of borrowing.
(c) The payment of the costs charges and expenses of this Act.	Five years from the passing of this Act.

(2) The provisions of Part IX of the Act of 1933 so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act shall extend and apply to money borrowed under this section as if it were borrowed under Part IX of the Act of 1933 and the period fixed for the repayment of any money borrowed under this section shall as respects that money be the fixed period for the purposes of the said Part IX.

Saving for powers of Treasury.

54. It shall not be lawful to exercise the powers of borrowing conferred by this Act (other than the power of borrowing to pay the costs charges and expenses of this Act) otherwise than in compliance with the provisions of the Local Authorities Loans Act 1945 or of an order for the time being in force made under section 1 of the Borrowing (Control and Guarantees) Act 1946.

Crown rights.

55. Nothing in this Act affects prejudicially any estate right power privilege or exemption of the Crown.

Costs of Act.

56. The costs charges and expenses preliminary to and of and incidental to the preparing applying for obtaining and passing of this Act as taxed and ascertained by the taxing officer of the House of Lords or of the House of Commons shall be paid by the Corporation out of the general rate fund or out of such other funds and in such proportions as the Corporation shall determine or out of money to be borrowed under this Act for that purpose.
