

Representation of the People Act 1977

1977 CHAPTER 9

An Act to increase the limits on candidates' election expenses at local government elections in the United Kingdom.
[30th March 1977]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1.—(1) For paragraph (b) of section 64(2) of the Representation of the People Act 1949, as amended by the Representation of the People Act 1969 and the Representation of the People (No. 2) Act 1974 (limits on candidates' election expenses at local government elections), there shall be substituted the following—

“ (b) for a candidate at a local government election—

(i) at an election to the Greater London Council, £320 together with an additional 2p for every entry in the register of electors to be used at the election (as first published);

(ii) at any other local government election, £72 together with an additional 1·5p for every entry in the register of electors to be used at the election (as first published); ”.

(2) For section 167(4) of the Representation of the People Act 1949, as amended by the Representation of the People (No. 2) Act 1974 (limit on candidates' election expenses at ward elections in the City of London), there shall be substituted the following—

“ (4) For a candidate at a ward election the maximum amount of election expenses shall be £72 together with an additional 1·5p for every elector (taken according to the enumeration of the ward list to be used at the election); but the provision made by section 64(4A) of this Act for increasing the maximum amount of election expenses in the event of the death of a candidate shall apply to the maximum amount under this subsection."
