A.D. 1912.

EXE FISHERIES PROVISIONAL ORDER 1912.

THE Board of Agriculture and Fisheries by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Act 1907 with a view to the improvement and development of the salmon and freshwater fisheries in the area defined by this Order do make the following Provisional Order for the regulation of such fisheries in that area:—

DEFINITION OF FISHERY DISTRICT AND CONSTITUTION OF BOARD OF CONSERVATORS.

Definition of area affected
by Order.

1.—(1) This Order applies to the area described in the First Schedule hereto and more particularly delineated in a map sealed by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries in relation to this Order and to all salmon and freshwater fisheries in such area.

(2) A copy of the said map certified under the Documentary Evidence Acts 1868 to 1895 shall be kept by the Board of Conservators hereby constituted at the office of the clerk of that Board and be open at all reasonable times to inspection free of charge by any person desiring inspection for any bonâ fide purpose and this right of inspection shall include a right to make copies of the map or any part thereof.

(3) The area to which this Order applies as hereinbefore defined is in this Order referred to as "the Fishery District."

Constitution and incorporation of
Board of Conservators.

2.—(1) For the purposes of this Order a Board of Conservators shall be constituted in manner hereinafter appearing as a body corporate under the name of "The Exe Board of Conservators" having perpetual succession and a common seal with power to make contracts and to sue and be sued in that name and such Board is in this Order referred to as "the Fishery Board."

(2) The Fishery Board shall consist of the following members:—

(A) Five members appointed by the Devonshire County Council one member appointed by the Somersetshire County Council and four members appointed by the Council of the City of Exeter Such members unless appointed for a definite period shall remain in office until resignation death or determination of their appointment by the council appointing them but any member may resign his appointment:

(b) Fifteen members elected in manner provided by this Order A.D. 1912.
by the persons who under this Order are entitled to vote for the election of members representative of private fisheries :

(c) Members representative of public fisheries elected under and in accordance with sections 29 to 33 of the Salmon Fishery Act 1873 which sections shall apply with the necessary modifications and with the further modification that after the year nineteen hundred and twelve the elections shall be triennial and the number of members to be elected shall be determined according to the average amount of licence duty paid in the year of election and the two preceding years :

(d) Any person who is entered in the register of assessments as an owner of a private fishery or private fisheries assessed for the purpose of fishery contributions under this Order at a total yearly value of fifty pounds or more shall subject to the provisions of this subsection be entitled to act as an additional member of the Fishery Board ;

Where a person entitled to act as an additional member is an infant or a lunatic the guardian or committee of the estate as the case may be shall be entitled to act in the place of such person ;

A person entitled to act as additional member may nominate by power of attorney an agent to act for him as a member and an agent so nominated shall be entitled so to act until the power is duly determined A copy of every such nomination and notice of the determination of a nomination shall be sent as soon as may be by the owner making or determining the nomination to the clerk of the Fishery Board and an agent shall not be entitled to act until a copy of his nomination has been received by the clerk ;

Where persons entitled to act as additional members are so entitled as joint tenants or tenants in common of a fishery or fisheries they shall act only by an agent nominated by them in manner hereinbefore provided who may be one of the persons by whom the nomination is made.

(3) Where an additional member is elected as a member representative of private fisheries he shall not be entitled to vote in each capacity on any question to be determined by the Fishery Board and

Election of members representative
of private fisheries.

3. The following rules shall be observed with respect to the election of members representative of private fisheries:—

(1) The electors shall be the owners of private fisheries assessed for the purposes of fishery contributions under this Order who on the first day of December in any year of election are entered in the register of assessments and have then paid the fishery contributions (if any) due from them:

(2) Each elector shall be entitled to vote according to the following scale:—

If the fishery or fisheries in respect of which he is entitled to vote is or are assessed for the purposes of this Order at the yearly value of twenty-five pounds or less he shall have one vote for each member to be elected and if the assessment exceeds twenty-five pounds he shall have one vote for each such member in respect of each twenty-five pounds:

Provided that this scale may from time to time be varied by an order made by the Fishery Board and approved by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries after publication thereof in such manner as that Board shall direct:

(3) An elector may give all his votes to any one of the persons nominated or may distribute them among such of the persons nominated not exceeding the number to be elected as he shall think fit:

(4) The nomination and election shall be in accordance with the regulations set forth in the Second Schedule to this Order.

Term of office
of elected members.

4. The term of office of an elected member of the Fishery Board shall be three years and on the appointed day in each third year the elected members shall go out of office and their places shall be filled by the newly elected members Any member going out of office shall be eligible for re-election.

ASSESSMENTS AND FINANCIAL PROVISIONS.

Imposition collection and recovery of contributions assessed on private fisheries.

5. For defraying expenses incurred in carrying into effect this Order and the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Acts 1861 to 1892 or any Act amending the same the Fishery Board may impose collect and recover contributions to be paid by the owners of the whole of the fisheries in the Fishery District liable to be assessed and such contributions shall be apportioned on the several owners in proportion to the assessed value of their fisheries: A.D. 1912.

Provided that except with the previous consent of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries the Fishery Board shall not incur expenses or liabilities which will involve the imposition of a contribution in any financial year of more than two shillings and sixpence in respect of every pound of the total assessed yearly value of the fisheries liable to be assessed:

Provided also that no order imposing a contribution shall be made at any meeting unless notice of an intention to impose a contribution at such meeting shall have been given in the notice convening the meeting which notice shall be issued one fortnight at least before the date of the meeting and unless there are nine members present at the meeting.

6. Subject to the provisions of this Order the fisheries liable to be assessed shall be all private fisheries for salmon and trout or either of them in the Fishery District which are of the yearly value of five pounds or upwards. Provided that the Fishery Board may by order made in the manner hereby prescribed for making an order imposing a contribution exempt from assessment for such period not exceeding three years as is stated in the order the fisheries in any part of the Fishery District specified in the order. Provided also that the fisheries in any reservoir or other waters in the Fishery District which form part of the water undertaking of a local authority or water board shall while owned by the local authority or water board be exempt from assessment unless and until revenue is derived from the fisheries by the local authority or water board. Provided also that the fisheries in the Exeter Canal shall not be liable to assessment without the consent of the owner of the canal. Fisheries liable to be assessed.

7. The yearly value of a fishery for salmon and trout or either of them shall be the rent at which the same might reasonably be expected to let from year to year free of all usual tenants' rates and taxes and tithe rentcharge (if any) and deducting therefrom the probable average annual cost of the repairs and other expenses (if any) necessary to maintain the fishery in a state to command such rent. Provided that where a fishery is separately rated to the relief of the poor the rateable value as ascertained for such purpose shall for the purposes of this Order be deemed prima facie to be the yearly value of the fishery for salmon and trout or either of them. Yearly value for purposes of assessment.

8.—(1) The Fishery Board shall appoint an assessment committee of not less than seven members of the Board of whom five shall form a quorum and such committee shall cause the yearly value of every Assessment committee.

A.D. 1912. fishery which appears to them to be liable to be assessed to be determined either by agreement with the owner thereof or in default of such agreement then in accordance with the provisions of this Order in manner provided by this section.

(2) If the assessment committee and the owner of a fishery fail to agree as to the yearly value of the fishery the committee may provisionally assess the yearly value of a fishery at such amount as they think reasonable and notify such provisional assessment by registered post to the reputed owner of the fishery by a notice in the form set forth in the Third Schedule hereto. If no objection to such provisional assessment is received by the clerk of the assessment committee within fourteen days after the date on which the notice was posted the yearly value of the fishery shall for the purposes of this Order be deemed to have been determined by agreement at the amount stated in the notice and the person to whom the notice was sent shall be entered in the register of assessments as the owner of the fishery. If objection is duly made to such provisional assessment and the assessment committee and the owner of the fishery fail to agree as to the yearly value of the fishery the yearly value may be determined by a single arbitrator appointed in default of agreement on the application of either party by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries under and in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1889 or any statutory modification of that Act.

(3) A clerk may be appointed by the assessment committee but in the absence of such appointment the clerk of the Fishery Board shall be the clerk of the committee.

(4) A member of an assessment committee shall not act as such in relation to a fishery if he is owner or occupier of the fishery or the agent of the owner or occupier.

Register of assessments.

9.—(1) The yearly value of a fishery when determined shall if amounting to five pounds or upwards be entered by the clerk of the Fishery Board in the register of assessments with a description of the fishery and the name and address of the owner thereof. The clerk of the Fishery Board may upon the application of any person claiming to be the owner of a fishery entered in such register and upon such evidence of ownership as appears to him to be sufficient insert the name and address of the applicant in the register as the owner of the fishery in the place of any person so entered as owner thereof.

(2) The register of assessments shall be kept at the office of the clerk of the Fishery Board and be open to inspection free of charge by any person bonâ fide claiming to be an owner of a fishery registered or liable to be registered therein or by the agent of an owner or by any person liable under any agreement to pay the contributions imposed. A.D. 1912.

under this Order on any such fishery and this right of inspection shall include a right to make copies of entries in the register.

10.—(1) On the date determined by the Fishery Board every contribution shall be payable by the owners of the fisheries assessed to the collector appointed by the Fishery Board to receive the same. Provided that if the collector is unable to ascertain the owner of any fishery or if the owner of a fishery makes default in paying the amount due from him the amount may be recovered by the collector as a debt from the occupier of the fishery and the occupier shall (subject to and so far as may be consistent with any agreement between the owner and occupier) be entitled to deduct from the rent of the fishery (if any) payable by him any sum so paid on behalf of the owner thereof or recover the same from the owner as a debt: Recovery of contributions.

Provided that nothing in this section shall prejudice or affect any right or liability under any existing or future contract of tenancy or agreement.

(2) Notice of demand for payment of a contribution in the form set forth in the Third Schedule to this Order shall be sent by post to the persons entered in the register of assessments as owners of fisheries and in any proceedings for the recovery of a contribution a certificate in the form set forth in such schedule purporting to be signed by the clerk of the Fishery Board shall be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated and unless the contrary is proved the person entered in the register of assessments as owner of a fishery shall for the purpose of any such proceedings be deemed to be the owner of the fishery.

11.—(1) The assessment committee shall on the application of any person claiming to be the owner of a fishery liable to be assessed under this Order proceed as soon as is practicable to— Apportionment &c. of assessments.

- (i) determine the yearly value of the fishery in the manner herein-before provided if it has not been determined either separately or in one assessment with another fishery; or
- (ii) apportion the assessed yearly value between the fishery of the applicant and any other fishery included in the same assessment; or
- (iii) re-determine the yearly value of the fishery in the manner herein-before provided.

(2) In the case of apportionment notice of the application shall be given to the owner of any other fishery included in the same assessment and the committee shall apportion the yearly value between the

The remuneration of the valuer shall be fixed by the last-mentioned Board and be paid by such one of the owners of the fisheries or by such owners in such shares as the valuer shall direct.

(3) The yearly value of a fishery may be re-determined from time to time without an application by the owner of a fishery. Provided that no re-determination shall be made until after the expiration of three years from the date of the previous determination except with the consent of the Fishery Board and the owner of the fishery unless by the making or revocation of a byelaw the yearly value thereof is increased or diminished.

Powers of Fishery Board as to expenditure.

12. Subject to the provisions of this Order the Fishery Board may expend any moneys in their hands on any matter they may think conducive to the maintenance improvement or development of the salmon and freshwater fisheries within the Fishery District.

Audit.

14. The accounts of the Fishery Board shall be balanced in each year to the thirty-first day of December and shall forthwith be audited by some person appointed by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries whose remuneration shall be fixed by that Board and paid by the Fishery Board. A copy of the audited accounts with the report (if any) of the auditor thereon shall as soon as possible be sent to the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries by the Fishery Board.

RETURNS BY PERSONS TAKING FISH IN THE DISTRICT.

Power for Board of Agriculture
and Fisheries
to require fishery returns.

15. The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries may as regards salmon and trout or either of such fish require returns to be made and sent to the Board by every person taking such fish within the Fishery District within one month after the receipt by such person of a form of return sent to him by the Board by registered post and if any person to whom such a form is so sent wilfully or negligently fail to make and send to the Board a full and true return in the form so provided he shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding five pounds. If any person in making a return shall require that the particulars comprised in his return shall not be disclosed the Board shall not disclose them except for the purposes of a prosecution under this provision or for determining the value of a fishery for the

A.D. 1912. 23. The provisions of the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Acts 1861 to 1892 relating to powers of water bailiffs shall in the case of a water bailiff appointed by the Fishery Board extend to the removal of diseased fish from any waters in the Fishery District and to the disposal of the same as the Fishery Board direct.

Modification of Salmon Fishery Act 1861 s. 26. 24. The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries may by written permit available for a period specified in the permit exempt any sluices from the provisions of section 26 of the Salmon Fishery Act 1861 on such conditions (if any) as may be specified in the permit.

Modification of Salmon Fishery Act 1861 ss. 12 and 25 and Salmon Fishery Act 1873 ss. 17 and 46. 25. In any case in which by the provisions of the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Acts 1861 to 1892 a fish pass is required to be attached to or made as part of the structure of any dam weir or other obstruction to the passage of salmon the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries may by written permit exempt such dam weir or obstruction from the operation of such provisions so long as there is maintained in an efficient state a fish pass not attached to or forming part of the structure of the dam weir or obstruction but of such form and dimensions and in such position as in the opinion of the said Board are efficient to facilitate the passage of salmon past such dam weir or obstruction and are approved accordingly under the seal of the said Board.

Modification of Salmon Fishery Act 1861 s. 23. 26. The power of erecting a fish pass attached to a dam conferred by section 23 of the Salmon Fishery Act 1861 as amended by the Salmon Fishery Act 1873 shall extend to the erection and maintenance of a fish pass adjacent to but not attached to the dam.

Confirmation of byelaws. 27. A byelaw made by the Fishery Board may be confirmed by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries either without modification or with such modification as may be assented to by the Fishery Board and in the latter case notice of the proposed modification shall be given by the Fishery Board by advertisement or otherwise in accordance with the directions (if any) of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries in that behalf.

Proof of byelaws. 28. A copy of any byelaw made by the Fishery Board purporting to be signed by the clerk of the Fishery Board and certified by him to be a true copy and to have been duly confirmed shall be evidence until the contrary is proved in all legal proceedings of the due making confirmation publication and existence of such byelaws without further or other proof.

Application of provisions of Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Acts. 29.—(1) The provisions of the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Acts 1861 to 1892 with respect to boards of conservators conservators and fishery districts except as herein expressly provided and so far as they are consistent with the provisions of this Order shall apply to the Fishery Board the members of the Board and the Fishery District A.D. 1912.

as if such Board and District were formed under those Acts and as if the waters lying within the Fishery District were a river and subject to the provisions of this Order the Fishery Board shall as regards the Fishery District have all such powers and duties as may be exercised or discharged by a board of conservators constituted under the said Acts or any of them Provided that nothing in this Order shall be construed as authorising the Board to levy licence duty for fishing for any fish other than salmon trout and char.

(2) The provisions of the said Acts with respect to the formation alteration combination and dissolution of fishery districts and the sections or parts of sections of the said Acts mentioned in the Fourth Schedule to this Order shall not apply to the Fishery Board or within the Fishery District.

30.—(1) Nothing in the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Acts For protec-1861 to 1892 or this Order or any byelaw made by the Fishery tion of public Board penalising the use of any instrument or its use without a water under-licence or prohibiting or restricting the catching or killing of or the takings.
attempting to catch or kill any kind of fish shall apply in relation to the removal of fish from any reservoir or other waters in the Fishery District which form part of the water undertaking of a local authority or water board by their direction for the purposes of their undertaking:

Provided that so far as is practicable all trout or salmon removed under this provision are returned alive to waters within the Fishery District that their removal if so required by the Fishery Board is superintended by a water bailiff appointed by the Fishery Board and that reasonable notice is given to the Fishery Board of the time and place of the intended removal.

(2) An officer of the Fishery Board shall not under the powers conferred by the said Acts or this Order have any power to interfere with any lands filter-beds machinery appliances or works which form part of the water undertaking of any local authority or water board.

(3) The Fishery Board may on the application of a local authority or water board appoint as a water bailiff to be paid by the local authority or water board any person nominated by the local authority or water board but the powers of any water bailiff so appointed shall unless otherwise directed by the Fishery Board extend only to the reservoirs or other waters forming part of the water undertaking of the local authority or water board by whom he is nominated and to the protection of the fisheries therein Provided that any appointment made by the Fishery Board under this subsection may at any time be revoked by them for any cause which they may deem sufficient but without prejudice to the right to require the Fishery Board to appoint another person.
