

CHAPTER 36.

An Act to amend the Dentists Act, 1921.

[2nd August 1923.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows;—

Extension of
s. 3 of Dentists
Act, 1921.
11 & 12
Geo. 5. c. 21

1. Section three of the Dentists Act, 1921 (which confers on certain persons the right to be admitted to the dentists register), shall be extended so as to require the Dental Board to admit to the dentists register any person who—

- (1) makes an application in that behalf within six months from the commencement of this Act or, in the case of any person as respects whom the Board are satisfied that there were valid reasons for the failure to make an application within the said period of six months, within such further period not exceeding six months as the Board may allow; and
- (2) satisfies the Board that he—
 - (a) is of good personal character; and
 - (b) had, before the date of the eleventh day of November, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, attained the age of twenty-one years; and
 - (c) served during the late war in His Majesty's forces; and
 - (d) was at the date aforesaid engaged, as his principal means of livelihood, in the practice of dentistry in the British Islands; and
- (3) within such period, not being less than two years, from the commencement of this Act, as the Board may allow, passes the prescribed examination.

Short title.

41 & 42 Vict.
c. 33.

2. This Act may be cited as the Dentists Act, 1923, and this Act and the Dentists Acts, 1878 and 1921, may be cited together as the Dentists Acts, 1878 to 1923.
