rating in certain cases.

19. The provisions contained in this section shall have effect with respect to the consolidated rate to be made and levied by the overseers (that is to say):—

(1) The owner of any tithes or any tithe commutation rentcharge or the occupier of any land used as arable meadow or pasture ground only or as woodlands allotments orchards market gardens or nursery grounds and the occupier of any land covered with water or used only as a canal or towing path for the same or as a railway constructed under the powers of any Act of Parliament for public conveyance shall be assessed to the consolidated rate in respect of such hereditaments on the full rateable value thereof but (subject as next hereinafter provided) shall be liable to pay in each year in respect of such hereditaments a rate calculated on the basis of sixty-three and one-half per centum only of the amount in the pound of the rate payable in respect of hereditaments not within the provisions of this section : A.D. 1923.

- (2) Provided that during the continuance of the Tithe Rentcharge (Rates) Act 1899 such Act shall have effect within the borough as if the following provision were substituted for section 1 thereof (that is to say) :—

“ The owner of tithe rentcharge attached to a benefice shall be liable to pay only three-fifths of the amount payable under subsection (1) of the section of the Croydon Corporation Act 1923 of which the marginal note is ‘ Differential rating in certain cases ’ in respect of any rate which is assessed on him as owner of that tithe rentcharge and the remaining two-fifths thereof shall on demand being made by the collector of the rate on the surveyor of taxes for the borough or any district therein be paid by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue out of the sums payable by them to the local taxation account on account of the estate duty grant ” :

- (3) Provided also that during the continuance of the Agricultural Rates Act 1896 the occupier of any agricultural land as defined in that Act shall be liable to pay in each year in respect of such land a rate calculated on the basis of two-fifths only (instead of sixty-three and one-half per centum) of the amount in the pound of the rate payable in respect of hereditaments not within the provisions of this section :

(4) Nothing in this section shall in any way affect—

(a) the operation of the Agricultural Rates Act 1896 save as in this section is expressly provided or the payment of the sum certified by the Ministry of Health as the amount of the share of the annual grant payable under that Act out of the local taxation account to the spending authority; or

(b) the operation of the Ecclesiastical Tithe Rentcharges (Rates) Acts 1920 and 1922; or

(c) the amount of the contribution for any purposes to be made by the parish out of the poor rate; or

(d) the calculation of the amount in the pound of the part of the consolidated rate levied for the purposes of the relief of the poor and other expenses of the guardians and expenses of the overseers respectively which is required to be stated in the demand note for the poor rate.

Form of rate &c. to be prescribed by Minister of Health.

20. The consolidated rate and the demand note and any other necessary documents to be used for the purposes of or in connection with the consolidated rate shall be in such form as the Minister of Health may from time to time prescribe.

As to recovery of consolidated rate.

21. No warrant of commitment in respect of non-payment of the consolidated rate shall be issued against any person who shall satisfy the court that his failure to pay the said rate is due to circumstances over which he had or has no control and that he has not divested himself of means for the purpose of evading payment of the said rate.

As to section 133 of Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845.

22. For the purposes of section 133 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 the poor's rate shall be deemed to be five-ninths of the amount in the pound of the consolidated rate.

Overseers may require returns.

23.—(1) The overseers may require the owner or occupier or reputed owner or occupier of any hereditament in the parish (other than land used as arable meadow or pasture ground only or as woodlands) to send to them a return in writing in the form set forth in the First Schedule to this Act and containing the particulars therein mentioned or referred to : A.D. 1923.

Provided that (except for purposes connected with the preparation of and preliminary to a general re-valuation for rating) the powers conferred by this section shall only be exercised—

- (a) upon any change in the occupation or ownership of any hereditament; or
- (b) upon any change in the nature or use of any hereditament whether by way of addition to or adaptation of premises or otherwise such as may affect the value of the hereditament; or
- (c) in the case of any hereditament in respect of which the overseers are of opinion that special circumstances exist which make it desirable that a return should be rendered in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) Any person who wilfully refuses or neglects to make a return lawfully required under this Act within fourteen days after the service of the order shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds and to a daily penalty not exceeding two pounds and any person who wilfully makes or causes to be made a false return shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

(3) The overseers shall whenever required by the assessment committee of the Croydon Poor Law Union produce from time to time to such committee the returns or any of them obtained by the overseers under the provisions of this section.

(4) Nothing in this section shall require any railway company to include in any return which they may be required to send to the overseers particulars with respect to their running lines sidings or stations.

24. In addition and without prejudice to their existing powers the overseers may amend the consolidated rate by inserting therein the name of any person who ought to have been rated : Amendment of consolidated rate.

Provided that—

- (1) Any person who may feel himself aggrieved by any such amendment shall have the same right of appeal therefrom as he would have had if the matter of amendment had appeared
