

CHAPTER 37

An Act to exempt international airports from the restrictions on the times at which intoxicating liquor may be sold or supplied. [17th May, 1956]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1.—(1) The Minister of Transport and Civil Aviation may by order bring this Act into operation at any airport which appears to him to be an airport at which there is a substantial amount of international passenger traffic. Exemption of international airports from restrictions on times at which intoxicating liquor may be sold or supplied.

(2) At an airport where this Act is in operation, section one hundred of the Licensing Act, 1953 (which prohibits the sale of intoxicating liquor except during the permitted hours) shall not apply to licensed premises which are within the examination station approved for the airport under section sixteen of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952. 1 & 2 Eliz. 2. c. 46.

(3) Before the Minister makes an order bringing this Act into operation at an airport, he shall satisfy himself that arrangements have been made for affording reasonable facilities on licensed premises within the said examination station on the airport for obtaining hot and cold beverages other than intoxicating liquor at all times when intoxicating liquor is obtainable on those premises, and if it appears to him that at any airport where this Act is in operation such arrangements are not being maintained, he shall revoke the order in force as respects that airport; but this subsection shall be without prejudice to his power of making a further order with respect to that airport. 15 & 16 Geo. 6 & 1 Eliz. 2. c. 44.

(4) The power of making orders under this section shall include power to revoke a previous order and shall be exercisable by statutory instrument.

11 & 12 Geo. 5.
c. 42.

(5) In the application of this section to Scotland a reference to section four of the Licensing Act, 1921, and any provision or rule of law prohibiting or restricting the sale or supply of exciseable liquor on Sunday shall be substituted for the reference to section one hundred of the Licensing Act, 1953.

Short title, extent and commencement.

2.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Licensing (Airports) Act, 1956.

(2) This Act shall not extend to Northern Ireland.

(3) This Act shall come into force at the expiration of a period of one month beginning with the date on which it is passed.
