

CHAPTER 14

An Act to enable the Parliament of Northern Ireland to make, in relation to land in Northern Ireland, provision for purposes similar to those of section fifty-three of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1947.

[21st March, 1957]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the War Damage Act, 1943, and, in particular, notwithstanding anything in section fourteen of that Act (which relates to certain cases where war-damaged land is compulsorily acquired) as to the compensation payable where that section applies, no limitation or restriction imposed by virtue of any enactment on the powers of the Parliament of Northern Ireland shall extend so as to prevent that Parliament from making provision, in relation to acquisitions to which this Act applies, for purposes similar to those of section fifty-three of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1947 (which makes further provision as to compensation and value payments in the case of acquisitions of war-damaged land in England and Wales).

Power to legislate as to compensation
for acquisition
of war-
damaged
land.

c. 21.

10 & 11 Geo. 6.
c. 51.

(2) This Act applies to any acquisition (whether before or after the passing of this Act) of land in Northern Ireland by—

(a) any department of the Government of Northern Ireland, or

(b) any person or body of persons authorised by virtue of any enactment to acquire that land compulsorily, and not being a department of that Government or a Minister of the Crown or department of Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom.

(3) In the last preceding subsection "land" has the meaning assigned to it by section forty-five of the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland), 1954, and "enactment" means any enactment contained in an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom or of the Parliament of Northern Ireland (including any enactment contained in a local or private Act of either of those Parliaments) or any order, scheme or other instrument made under any Act of either of those Parliaments.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Northern Ireland (Compensation for Compulsory Purchase) Act, 1957.
