

CHAPTER xix

An Act to regulate the expenditure on capital account and lending of money by the London County Council during the financial period from the first day of April nineteen hundred and fifty-seven to the thirtieth day of September nineteen hundred and fifty-eight and for other purposes.

WHEREAS the borrowing of money by the London County Council (hereinafter referred to as “the Council”) for the purposes of expenditure on capital account and of loans to bodies and persons is governed by the London County Council (Loans) Act 1955 (hereinafter referred to as “the principal Act”) and by Acts to be obtained by the Council for regulating such expenditure and loans during the several periods from the first day of April in any year to the thirtieth day of September in the next following year (which periods are in the principal Act and in this Act referred to severally as a “financial period”):

And whereas such expenditure and loans as aforesaid are in relation to the financial period ending on the thirtieth day of September nineteen hundred and fifty-seven regulated by the London County Council (Money) Act 1956:

And whereas it is expedient that the expenditure of the Council on capital account and the lending of money by them during the financial period from the first day of April nineteen hundred and fifty-seven to the thirtieth day of September nineteen hundred and fifty-eight (hereinafter referred to as "the financial period 1957-1958") should be regulated as by this Act provided:

And whereas estimates have been prepared by the various committees of the Council of the amounts which may be required for the purposes of expenditure on capital account and of loans during the financial period 1957-1958 in the execution of the powers and duties respectively delegated to those committees and all those estimates have been considered by the finance committee of the Council and submitted by that committee to the Council and the estimates as so submitted have been adopted by the Council:

And whereas the sums estimated to be so required as aforesaid for expenditure on capital account during the financial period 1957-1958 are set out in Part I of the schedule to this Act:

And whereas the sums estimated to be so required as aforesaid for the purpose of loans by the Council during the financial period 1957-1958 are set out in Parts II and III of the said schedule:

And whereas the further sums which the Treasury in pursuance of subsection (3) of section 8 (Surplus or insufficiency of sums authorised to be expended or lent) of the principal Act may authorise the Council to expend on capital account or to lend during the financial period 1957-1958 are set out in Part IV of the said schedule:

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—
