and extent.

2.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Restriction of Offensive Weapons Act, 1959.

(2) This Act shall come into operation at the expiration of the period of one month beginning with the day on which it is passed.

(3) This Act shall not extend to Northern Ireland.

CHAPTER 38

An Act to amend the provisions of the Schedule to the Police Act, 1919, with respect to the dates of elections of Branch Boards and of annual meetings of Branch Boards and Central Conferences of the Police Federation. [14th May, 1959]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

elections and annual meetings.

9 & 10 Geo. 5.
c. 46.

1.—(1) The Schedule to the Police Act, 1919 (which makes provision as to the constitution, functions and proceedings of the Police Federation) shall have effect, as respects the year nineteen hundred and sixty and subsequent years, as if for paragraphs 5 and 9 thereof there were substituted the following paragraphs:—

“ 5. The election for each Board shall for each calendar year take place within such period (which may fall wholly or partly before the beginning of that year) as the Secretary of State may specify after consulting the three Central Committees sitting together as a Joint Committee, and the annual meeting of each Board shall be held within one month after the election of its members.”

“ 9. The Central Conference for each rank shall be held each calendar year at such time as the Secretary of State may specify after consulting the three Central Committees sitting together as a Joint Committee.”

(2) The Secretary of State may direct, after consulting the three Central Committees of the Police Federation for England and Wales sitting as a Joint Committee, that no elections or meetings shall be held in England and Wales in the year nineteen hundred and fifty-nine under the said paragraphs 5 and 9 as originally enacted.
