

Restrictive Trade Practices (Stock Exchange) Act 1984

1984 CHAPTER 2

An Act to exempt certain agreements relating to The Stock Exchange from the Restrictive Trade Practices Act 1976.
[13th March 1984]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Exemption of certain agreements relating to
The Stock Exchange.
1976 c. 34.

1.—(1) The Restrictive Trade Practices Act 1976 shall not apply to—

- (a) any agreement between the members of The Stock Exchange for regulating the Exchange, its membership or the activities of its members; or
- (b) any agreement with respect to any of those matters between—
 - (i) The Stock Exchange; and
 - (ii) the Secretary of State, the Treasury or the Bank of England or any two or more of them.

(2) The Director General of Fair Trading shall remove from the register maintained by him under the said Act of 1976 any particulars which at the passing of this Act are entered or filed in that register in respect of any such agreement as is mentioned in subsection (1) above; and any proceedings in respect of any such agreement which are pending before the Restrictive Practices Court at the passing of this Act shall abate.

(3) Subsection (1)(a) above shall be regarded as applying, in particular, to the Deed of Settlement of The Stock Exchange (and any instrument varying or replacing that Deed), the rules, regulations and usages of The Stock Exchange as for the time being in force and any recommendations of the Council of The Stock Exchange which, apart from this section, would be treated as binding on members of the Exchange by virtue of section 16 of the said Act of 1976.

2. This Act may be cited as the Restrictive Trade Practices Short title. (Stock Exchange) Act 1984.
