An Act to regulate prescribed expenditure and expenditure on lending to other persons by the Greater London Council during the financial period from 1st April 1984 to 30th September 1985, including prescribed expenditure of London Regional Transport (formerly known as the London Transport Executive) and their wholly-owned subsidiaries which is to be treated as prescribed expenditure of the Greater London Council, during the financial year from 1st April 1984 to 31st March 1985; and for other purposes.

[20th December 1984]

WHEREAS the London Government Act 1963 1963 c. 33. (hereinafter referred to as “the Act of 1963”) as amended by the Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980 requires that prescribed expenditure (as defined 1980 c. 65. by Schedule 2 to the Act of 1963) and expenditure on lending to other persons by the Greater London Council (hereinafter referred to as “the Council”) shall be regulated by annual money Acts and that each of such Acts shall make provision for a period consisting of a financial year (that is to say a period of twelve months ending on 31st March) and the immediately following six months:

1984 c. 32. And whereas the London Regional Transport Act 1984 provides (inter alia) that from 29th June 1984 the London Transport Executive shall be known as London Regional Transport:

And whereas the Act of 1963 (as so amended) provides that prescribed expenditure (as so defined) of London Regional Transport and their wholly-owned subsidiaries is to be treated as prescribed expenditure of the Council for the purposes of that requirement:

And whereas such a financial year and the immediately following six months are in the Act of 1963 and hereinafter together referred to as a "financial period":

1983 c. xv. And whereas prescribed expenditure and expenditure on lending to other persons by the Council, including prescribed expenditure of London Regional Transport and their wholly-owned subsidiaries which is to be treated as prescribed expenditure of the Council, is, in relation to the financial period ending on 30th September 1984, regulated by the Greater London Council (Money) Act 1983:

And whereas it is expedient that prescribed expenditure and expenditure on lending to other persons by the Council, and prescribed expenditure of London Regional Transport and their wholly-owned subsidiaries as aforesaid, should be regulated as by this Act provided:

And whereas estimates have been prepared by the various committees of the Council of the amounts which may be required by the Council for the purposes of prescribed expenditure and expenditure on lending to other persons during the financial period 1984–1985 in the execution of the powers and duties respectively delegated to those committees and all those estimates have been submitted to the Council and the estimates as so submitted have been adopted by the Council:

And whereas an estimate has been approved by the Inner London Education Authority of the amount which the said Authority may require in respect of prescribed expenditure during the financial period 1984–1985:

And whereas an estimate was approved by the London Transport Executive (as it was then called) of the amount which may be required in respect of that part of their expenditure, and of the expenditure of every wholly-owned subsidiary of theirs, for the financial year 1984–1985 which is to be treated as prescribed expenditure of the Council, and that estimate has been agreed by the Council:

And whereas the amounts estimated to be so required as aforesaid for expenditure which is prescribed expenditure of the Council and on lending to other persons by the Council during the financial period 1984–1985 are reflected in the Schedule to this Act:

And whereas the additional amount referred to in the Act of 1963 which may be expended in the financial year ending on 31st March 1985 in accordance with the provisions of that Act, being an amount which is approximately 0.0053 per centum of the aggregate of the sums specified in the second column of Parts I and II of the said Schedule in respect of that financial year, is the amount specified in Part III of the said Schedule:

And whereas the further sums which the Treasury in pursuance of the Act of 1963 may authorise to be expended by way of expenditure which is prescribed expenditure of the Council and on lending to other persons by the Council during the financial period 1984–1985 are set out in Part IV of the said Schedule:

And whereas it is expedient that the other provisions contained in this Act should be enacted:

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—
