

CHAPTER 38.

An Act to amend the Copyright Act, 1911, with respect to the delivery of books to the British Museum. 1915.
[19th May 1915.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. At the end of subsection (1) of section fifteen of the Copyright Act, 1911, which relates to the delivery of books to the British Museum, the following proviso shall be added :—

*Amendment of 1 & 2
Geo. 5. c. 46.
s. 15(1).*

“Provided that the Board of Trade may, on the application of the Trustees of the British Museum, make regulations excepting from the provisions of this subsection publications wholly or mainly in the nature of trade advertisements, or such classes of such publications as may be specified in the regulations, and thereupon it shall not be necessary for the publisher of any publication so excepted so to deliver the publication or for the trustees to give a receipt therefor, unless, as respects any particular publication, a written demand for the delivery thereof is made by the trustees. Every regulation under this proviso shall be laid before each House of Parliament as soon as may be after it is made, and if an address is presented to His Majesty by either House of Parliament within the next subsequent twenty-one days on which the House has sat, praying that any such regulation may be annulled, His Majesty in Council may annul the regulation and it shall be thenceforth void, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder before the expiration of such period.”

[CH. 38.]

*Copyright (British Museum)
Act, 1915.*
