

CHAPTER 71.

An Act to extend the Customs (War Powers) Act, 1915. A.D. 1915.
[29th July 1915.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The Customs (War Powers) Act, 1915, shall be read as if the following subsection were substituted for subsection (1) of section five of that Act:—

“(1) Where in pursuance of any order made by the Commissioners of Customs and Excise under section one hundred and thirty-nine of the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876, a person, in the course of making entry before shipment, makes a declaration as to the person or country for whom any goods are ultimately destined, then, unless security has been given by bond, the exporter shall, if and when required by the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, produce evidence to their satisfaction that those goods have not reached a person who is an enemy or treated as an enemy, or a country which is an enemy country or treated as an enemy country, under any law for the time being in force relating to trading with the enemy; and if he fails to do so he shall be liable to a penalty of treble the value of the goods, or one hundred pounds, at the election of the Commissioners, unless he proves that the goods reached the person or country without his consent or connivance, and that he took all reasonable steps to secure that the ultimate destination of the goods should be the person or country mentioned in the declaration.”

Provision as to declarations as to ultimate destination of exported goods.

5 & 6 Geo. 5.
c. 31.

A.D. 1915.

Extension of Customs (War Powers) Act, 1915, s. 6.

2. The power under section six of the Customs (War Powers) Act, 1915, to seize imported goods suspected to be of enemy origin shall be extended so as to apply to any goods which the Commissioners of Customs and Excise have reason to suspect are being imported in contravention of the law relating to trading with the enemy.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as the Customs (War Powers) (No. 2) Act, 1915.
