

CHAPTER 81.

An Act to enable a Loan to be raised in conjunction with the French Government in the United States of America. A.D. 1915.
[13th October 1915.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) Any sum not exceeding five hundred million dollars may be raised if the Treasury think fit by the issue of securities at such rate of interest and subject to such conditions as to repayment, redemption, or otherwise as they think fit in the United States of America, and may be raised in conjunction with the Republic of France and subject to such conditions as may be agreed upon between His Majesty's Government and the Government of the Republic of France, either as to the raising or the application of the loan, and may be raised on the joint and several obligation of the two Governments. Power to raise a loan in America.

(2) For the purposes of the charge on the Consolidated Fund, and for the purposes of any limit on the amount of borrowing, the powers of raising money given by this Act shall, so far as they extend, be deemed to be in substitution for the existing powers of raising money for any supply granted to His Majesty.

(3) Any securities issued for the purposes of any such loan in the United States of America, except where they are held by persons domiciled in the United Kingdom or by British subjects
