

CHAPTER 96.

An Act to make provision with respect to Obligations incurred by or on behalf of His Majesty's Government for the purposes of the present War or in connection therewith. A.D. 1915.
[23rd December 1915.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1) Section one of the Government War Obligations Act, 1914 (in this Act referred to as the principal Act), which relates to the provision of money for the fulfilment of Government war obligations incurred before the passing of that Act, shall be extended so as to include the provision in the like manner of money for the fulfilment of any Government war obligations incurred before the passing of this Act. Extensions of the Government War
Obligations
Act, 1914.
5 & 6 Geo. 5.
c. 11.

(2) Section three of the principal Act, which makes provision as to the validity of action taken in certain cases by associations or bodies of persons approved by the Board of Trade, shall apply to action taken for the purpose of carrying out any Government scheme in connection with the present war for the grant of compensation in respect of persons killed or injured on merchant ships as the result of hostilities, in like manner as it applies to action taken for the purpose of carrying out any such scheme for the relief of dependents of persons on insured ships.

(3) The schedule to the principal Act, which sets out the Government war obligations, shall be extended so as to include obligations incurred in connection with the present war in respect of payments—

- (a) for the relief of dependents of persons on any merchant ship or fishing vessel ;
- (b) for compensation in respect of persons killed or injured on any merchant ship or fishing vessel ;

A.D. 1915.

- (c) on contracts of insurance against war risks of the personal effects of masters, officers, seamen, and fishermen ; and
 - (d) in respect of aircraft and bombardment insurance contracts ;
- (so far as provision is not made for those payments by the application of premiums or otherwise) or in respect of—
- (e) any arrangements for restricting the supply of any commodities to the enemy ;
 - (f) any arrangements for the regulation of the foreign exchanges ;
 - (g) any scheme in connection with any such last-mentioned arrangements for enabling securities to be placed at the disposal of the Treasury (in this Act referred to as a Treasury securities deposit scheme) ; and
 - (h) any exchange of obligations with any Powers allied with His Majesty in the present war.

Provision with respect to deposit of securities with the Treasury.

2.—(1) Securities may be deposited with the Treasury or given to the Treasury in exchange for Government securities, for the purpose of, and in accordance with the conditions of, any Treasury securities deposit scheme, notwithstanding that those securities are subject to any trust, and notwithstanding any provisions of the trust, whether arising by deed, Act of Parliament, or otherwise ; and any persons holding any such securities are hereby expressly authorised so to deposit the securities or give them in exchange in accordance with any such scheme, and shall not be liable for any loss arising therefrom, and, in the case of a company, or body of persons, are so authorised notwithstanding anything in their constitution.

(2) Any deposit receipts or documents of a like nature given in respect of securities so deposited, and any Government securities taken in exchange for securities exchanged, shall be held by the persons depositing the securities or giving them in exchange subject to the same trusts as the securities deposited or given in exchange, as the case may be.

(3) Any person having power to invest in, hold, advance money on, or deal with securities represented by any such deposit receipt may invest in, hold, advance money on, and deal with the deposit receipts in the same manner as the securities which the receipts represent, and any person taking Government securities in exchange in pursuance of this section may hold and deal with those securities as if they were the securities given in exchange.

Where the Treasury so direct as respects any class of transaction for the purpose of any Treasury securities deposit scheme or any special transaction for the purpose of any such scheme, stamp duty shall not be payable in respect of that class of transaction or transaction ; and a deposit with the Treasury, or sale to the Treasury, or exchange with the Treasury, for the purpose of any such scheme of a security transferable by delivery shall not, for the purpose of the Stamp Act, 1891, and the Acts amending the same, be deemed to be a negotiation of the security. A.D. 1915.
