A.D. 1915.

And whereas by the said Act it was further provided that the said Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Society might by a vote of the conference of the said society unite or co-operate with any church or religious body or association in Ireland upon such terms and conditions as the said society by a vote of the said conference might determine:

And whereas the said conference of the Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Society of Ireland at a sitting duly convened and held on the twenty-fourth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two by a resolution duly passed and enrolled in Chancery on the twenty-seventh day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two appointed fifteen persons therein named to be trustees with power to hold property real and personal for the society and the said persons or those of them who survived and continued as trustees and their successors were commonly known and are hereinafter referred to as "the statutory trustees":

And whereas by Resolution IV. of the said series of resolutions the said conference of the Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Society of Ireland directed limited and appointed pursuant to the provisions of the said Act that all the property real and personal then held upon any trust or trusts for the said Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Society of Ireland and all other property belonging to the said society or to any circuit district or station of the said society or connected therewith (the particulars of which property were set forth in the Schedule annexed to the said Resolution IV.) save as excepted in the said resolution should vest in the then surviving and continuing statutory trustees to be held by them from and after the ratification of the said union upon such trusts and for such intents and purposes as might from time to time be declared in and by any resolutions of the conference of the united society:

And whereas the said conference of the Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Society of Ireland at a sitting duly convened on the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight passed a resolution (whereof a copy is set forth in Part II. of the said Fourth Schedule) pursuant to the provisions of the said Act resolving that the Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Society of Ireland should immediately from and after the passing of the said resolution cease to exist as a separate society and should unite with the said Wesleyan Methodist Society:

And whereas it was one of the terms of the said union as set forth in the said resolutions that in all official documents of the united conference the terms "Wesleyan" and "Primitive Wesleyan" should be dropped and the term "Methodist" alone be used and accordingly the united society is now called and known as "The Methodist Church in Ireland": A.D. 1915.

And whereas the appointment of persons nominated by the conference of the said united society from time to time to be the statutory trustees in place of the said fifteen trustees nominated and appointed by the said resolution of the twenty-fourth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two has not been legally made by deed and the property of the said Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Society which was vested in the said original fifteen statutory trustees as aforesaid has not been legally vested from time to time in the said persons nominated as such new trustees but the said persons nominated as aforesaid to be such statutory trustees had the control and management of the said property and acted as trustees thereof:

And whereas the persons acting as the statutory trustees of the property mentioned in the last preceding recital which consisted of chapels residences for ministers school-houses and other houses and plots of ground dealt with the same from time to time by sale or otherwise under the directions of the conference of the united society and under and by such directions as aforesaid applied the proceeds of the sales or other dispositions of the said property for the purposes of the said united society:

And whereas by reason of the expiration of leases and agreements for leases and from other causes certain chapels residences for ministers school-houses and other houses and plots of ground forming portion of the said property passed out of the possession of the persons acting as the statutory trustees:

And whereas the only property which was at the date of the passing of this Act subject to the trusts declared by the said resolution is set forth in the Fifth Schedule to this Act and consists solely of the chapels residences for ministers school-houses and other houses and plots of ground set forth in the said Fifth Schedule:

And whereas after the union of the said societies effected as aforesaid the statutory trustees transferred so much of the property then vested in them as was equivalent to the sum of twelve thousand pounds to the trustees of the Supernumerary Methodist Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund and until the date of an indenture dated the thirtieth day of August one thousand nine hundred hereinafter mentioned held and applied

A.D. 1915. the rest residue and remainder of the said property for the use and according to the rules of the society for providing a special supplemental fund for the preachers and widows of preachers formerly belonging to the said Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Society of Ireland :

And whereas by an indenture dated the thirtieth day of August one thousand nine hundred (whereof a copy is set forth in the Sixth Schedule to this Act) and made between the persons then purporting to act as such statutory trustees of the first part the Reverends Thomas Abraham Alexander Elliott Robert Orr James Wilson and George Robinson (being the then existing members of the committee by which the revenue and affairs of the said special supplemental fund were administered and conducted) of the second part and the trustees of the then Wesleyan Methodist Auxiliary Fund (now the Supernumerary Methodist Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund) of the third part after reciting amongst other things that it had been proposed in order to the more thorough effectuating of the said union that the said special supplemental fund for preachers and widows of preachers belonging to the said Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Society of Ireland should be thrown into and amalgamated with the Wesleyan Methodist Auxiliary Fund and the committee constituted for the separate administration of the said special supplemental fund should be wound up and dissolved with the object and effect of forming one united fund in connection with the then existing united Methodist Conference and reciting that the scheme or plan of such amalgamation of the said two funds on the terms and conditions therein mentioned and the merger of the said special supplemental fund and the separate title thereof in the Wesleyan Methodist Auxiliary Fund had been duly approved and sanctioned by the Irish Conference the said then existing statutory trustees and also the said parties thereto of the second part granted conveyed assigned and made over unto the trustees of the Wesleyan Methodist Auxiliary Fund the several sums of money and securities therefor lands and premises chattels and effects therein mentioned And it was thereby declared that the said moneys securities lands and premises chattels and effects should be received held and taken by the trustees of the Wesleyan Methodist Auxiliary Fund solely and only upon the same trusts for the like intents and purposes and with and subject to the same powers provisions and declarations (subject however to certain provisions therein mentioned in favour of the claims of the then existing or prospective beneficiaries upon the said special supplemental fund) as are set forth in the said deed poll dated the sixteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three of and concerning the sum of twenty thousand pounds therein mentioned and any additions to be made thereto : A.D. 1915.

And whereas since the execution of the said indenture dated the thirtieth day of August one thousand nine hundred and the transfer of property thereby effected such last-mentioned property has been held and administered by the trustees of the former Wesleyan Methodist Auxiliary Fund (now the Supernumerary Methodist Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund) in accordance with the trusts therein mentioned and the same was on the said first day of April one thousand nine hundred and fourteen represented by the securities particularly set out in Part II. (b) of the said Second Schedule :

And whereas it is expedient that a single body of Trustees should be constituted and incorporated with perpetual succession and a common seal and be declared entitled to hold real and personal property of every kind and should also be empowered to act as Trustees or as custodian Trustees of any property collected given devised or bequeathed for any purpose or charity connected with the Methodist Church in Ireland and that the property and funds now held by the trustees of the Methodist Ministers' Sons' Fund the trustees of the Supernumerary Methodist Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund the trustees for donations and bequests and the statutory trustees or the persons purporting to act as such statutory trustees should be forthwith vested in such body of Trustees as hereby incorporated :

And whereas it is doubtful whether the execution by the said persons purporting to act as such statutory trustees of the said indenture dated the thirtieth day of August one thousand nine hundred and the transfer of property thereby effected were within their powers :

And whereas the appointment of the persons nominated to act as trustees of the said deeds poll dated the sixteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three and thirteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six respectively was not in several instances legally

A.D. 1915. — carried out by deed nor were the stocks shares mortgages and other securities legally vested in the new trustees so nominated :

And whereas in the administration of the said several trusts the persons acting as trustees of certain of the said trust funds have in some cases acted as custodian trustees without being duly empowered so to do :

And whereas the trustees for donations and bequests have in the administration of the trusts of the several funds dealt with by them and for the purpose of simplifying the keeping of accounts made without any express power in that behalf a deduction of a fixed sum in the pound from all income arising from the said trust funds and this deduction has been applied in meeting the actual expenses of the trustees and a surplus thereof has been accumulated and now stands to the credit of an account kept by the last-mentioned trustees called "the expenses reserve" the credit balance of which account amounted on the said first day of April one thousand nine hundred and fourteen to the sum of eight hundred and nine pounds ten shillings and sixpence :

And whereas the trustees for donations and bequests have taken over from trustees executors and administrators and other persons to whom money or other property had been given or bequeathed in trust for various purposes or charities connected with the Methodist Church in Ireland the capital money so given or bequeathed as aforesaid and have invested the same in the names of the trustees for donations and bequests or some of them :

And whereas the trustees for donations and bequests have invested funds in the purchase of stocks and shares and in mortgages in the names of four trustees only instead of in the names of the majority of the trustees for donations and bequests as provided by the said deed poll dated the thirteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six :

And whereas the selection of the investments for the trust funds has from time to time been delegated by the trustees for donations and bequests to their officers for the time being though such investments have been subsequently approved by the said trustees at their annual meeting :

And whereas it is expedient that the invalid appointments of trustees of the said deeds poll and of the statutory trustees and the acts committed irregularly or without sufficient authority as hereinbefore recited should be ratified and confirmed and that the said indenture dated the thirtieth day of August one thousand nine hundred should be confirmed and validated and that the said trustees and the heirs executors administrators and estates of such of them as have died should be indemnified in respect of the matters hereinbefore referred to: A.D. 1915.

And whereas it is expedient that the several trustees executors administrators and other persons who have handed over the property given or bequeathed to them as aforesaid to the trustees for donations and bequests and who have not thereby received a good discharge therefor and the executors administrators and estates of such of them as have died should be indemnified in respect thereof:

And whereas it is expedient that the other provisions contained in this Act should be enacted:

And whereas the objects aforesaid cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say):—
