SCHEDULES :

First Schedule.—Descriptions of Authorised Works.

Second Schedule.—Enactments Applied to New Tramways.

Third Schedule.—Ancillary Provisions as to Execution of Works and Acquisition of Land.

An Act to provide, in connection with the Festival of Britain, 1951, for conferring further powers on the British Transport Commission and the London County Council, for the making by the Minister of Transport of grants in respect of expenses incurred by or on behalf of those bodies, for suspending or restricting the use by the public of certain streets and for other matters.
[29th March 1949.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1.—(1) The works authorised by this section consist of the Authorised following works situated in the administrative county of London, works. that is to say—

(a) three temporary footbridges (hereafter in this Act respectively referred to as “the river footbridge,” “the York Road footbridge” and “the Hungerford footbridge extension”) namely—

(i) a footbridge giving access to the exhibition across the river and consisting of Works Nos. 1 and 2 described in Part I of the First Schedule to this Act ;

(ii) a footbridge giving access to the exhibition across York Road and consisting of Work No. 3 described as aforesaid ;

(iii) an extension of Hungerford footbridge across York Road consisting of Work No. 4 described as aforesaid ;

(b) such landing stages giving access to the exhibition site from the river as the Council, with the approval of the Minister of Transport, may determine, and either temporary or not as may be so determined ;

(c) the railway works described in Part II of the said First Schedule (being works providing means of access to platforms at Waterloo and Charing Cross underground stations) ;

(d) the new tramways described in Part III of the said First Schedule (being tramways required where existing tramways do not conform with the proposed exhibition traffic arrangements).

(2) The works authorised by this section may, subject to the provisions of this Act, be made and maintained—

(a) in the case of the river footbridge, the York Road footbridge and the landing stages aforesaid, by the Council; and

(b) in any other case, by the Commission.

(3) The works authorised by this section shall be made in the lines or situations and according to the levels shown on the deposited plans and sections :

Provided that in the execution of the works or any part of them the Commission or Council may deviate from the lines or situations shown on the deposited plans to the extent of the limits of deviation so shown or, in the case of the new tramways, (subject to the next following subsection) to any extent not exceeding three feet, and may deviate from the levels shown on the deposited sections to such extent as may be found necessary or convenient.

(4) In the case of the new tramways no deviation shall without the consent of the Minister of Transport be made laterally under the proviso to the last foregoing subsection so that a less space than nine feet six inches shall intervene between the outer rail of the tramway and the outer edge of the footway on either side of the road, if one-third of the owners or one-third of the occupiers of the premises abutting on the place where such less space shall intervene shall by writing under their hands, addressed and delivered to the Commission within three weeks after receiving from the Commission notice of their intention, express their objection thereto.

(5) The power to make and maintain any of the works mentioned in subsection (1) of this section shall include power to make and maintain such works and conveniences connected therewith as may be necessary or proper, including in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing words or any other provision of this Act) steps, stairs, platforms, escalators, lifts, inclines, approaches, lights, dolphins and piers, and (in the case of the tramways) rails, plates, junctions, crossings and passing places; and references in this Act to the works authorised by this section or any of them shall be construed accordingly.

(6) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Hungerford footbridge extension shall be deemed for all purposes to form part of Hungerford footbridge, the railway works authorised by this section shall be deemed for all purposes to form part of the railways with which they are connected, and the tramways authorised by this section shall be deemed for all purposes to form part of the tramways in Westminster Bridge Road authorised by the London County Council (Tramways and Improvements) Act, 1906.

(7) Nothing in this Act shall be taken as entitling members of the public to use the river footbridge or the York Road footbridge or the landing stages authorised by this section, except to such extent and subject to such conditions as the Council may from time to time determine.

2.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Commission and the Council may respectively enter upon, use and appropriate so much of any public highway (including the space under or over any public highway) as shall be necessary for the purpose of any work authorised by section one of this Act without being required to purchase the same or any easement therein or to make any payment therefor. Use and acquisition of lands

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Commission and the Council may also respectively enter upon, take and use or appropriate, for the purpose of any work authorised by section one of this Act, any land which they may require for that purpose and which is within the limits of deviation shown on the deposited plans for the work and is described in the deposited book of reference.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Council may also enter upon, take and use or appropriate, for the purpose of providing substituted sites or facilities for persons displaced from the exhibition site and persons displaced from other land in connection with the exhibition traffic arrangements, all or any of the lands situate in the borough of Lambeth which are delineated and numbered 60 to 75 (inclusive) on the deposited plans and are described in the deposited book of reference, and may for the purpose aforesaid provide such buildings and facilities, whether permanent or not, as they think desirable on any lands taken under this subsection.

(4) Nothing in this section shall authorise the Commission or the Council to enter upon, take or use (except by agreement) any cellar or vault belonging to or connected with any building and situate in or under any street, unless the cellar or vault or the building to which it belongs or with which it is connected is delineated on the deposited plans and described in the deposited book of reference.

(5) The powers of the Commission and of the Council for the compulsory purchase of land under this section shall cease on the first day of October, nineteen hundred and fifty-one.

Application of usual
ancillary provisions.

3.—(1) The Lands Clauses Acts so far as they are applicable for the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this Act and are not varied by or inconsistent with this Act are, for those purposes, hereby incorporated with and form part of this Act subject to this, that—

(a) sections one hundred and twenty-seven to one hundred and thirty-three of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, shall not apply ; and

(b) references to the promoters of the undertaking shall be taken as references to the Commission or the Council, as the case may be.

(2) The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, so far as it is applicable for the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this Act relating to the railway works authorised by section one of this Act and is not varied by or inconsistent with this Act is, for those purposes, hereby incorporated with and forms part of this Act subject to this, that—

(a) sections seven, eight and nine shall not apply ; and

(b) references to the railway and to the company shall be taken respectively as references to the railway works aforesaid and to the Commission.

(3) Subsection (6) of section one of this Act shall not have the effect of applying in relation to the tramways authorised by that section the enactments specified in the First and Third Schedules to the Act of 1906 mentioned in that subsection, but—

(a) the enactments mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Act shall have effect in relation to the tramways so authorised as they have effect in relation to those for which they were enacted ;

(b) references in section four of the London County Tramways (Electrical Power) Act, 1900, to the passing of that Act shall in the application of that section (by virtue of the said Act of 1906) to the tramways so authorised be taken as references to the passing of this Act.

In the application of Parts II and III of the Tramways Act, 1870, to the tramways so authorised the expression “road” shall be construed to include, in addition to the carriageway of any public highway, the footways of the highway.

(4) The Third Schedule to this Act (which contains ancillary provisions such as are commonly included in Acts conferring powers similar to those conferred by the foregoing provisions of this Act) shall have effect for the purposes of those provisions of this Act.

(5) Paragraph 9 of the said Third Schedule shall also apply in relation to land which is required by the Council for the purposes of the exhibition traffic arrangements and which they have power to acquire compulsorily apart from this Act as it applies in relation to land which they have power to acquire compulsorily under section two of this Act.

4.—(1) All rights of way over—

Stopping up of streets, etc.

- (a) that part of Belvedere Road in the borough of Lambeth which extends northward from Chicheley Street, together with the public steps leading from Belvedere Road to Waterloo Road and so much of Upper Ground as is beneath the arch carrying Waterloo Road ;
- (b) that part of Jenkins Street in the borough of Lambeth which lies between Belvedere Road and York Road ; and
- (c) the existing approach to Hungerford footbridge from Belvedere Road to the point from which the Hungerford footbridge extension begins ; shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be suspended temporarily during such periods as the Minister of Transport may from time to time by order direct and, during the suspension, all or any part of the land in question may be used for any purpose connected with the exhibition.

(2) In connection with the exhibition traffic arrangements or the footbridges authorised by section one of this Act, the Minister of Transport, on the application of the Council, may by order restrict, for such period as may from time to time be directed by any such order, the use by vehicular traffic of the whole or part of any of the following streets, namely, in the City of Westminster, Northumberland Avenue and, in the borough of Lambeth, Waterloo Road, Buckley Street, Whichcote Street, Boyce Street, York Road, Westminster Bridge Road, Lambeth Palace Road and Stangate.

(3) Before making an application under the last foregoing subsection with respect to any part of a public service vehicle route or a tramway route, the Council shall give the Commission fourteen days notice of their intention so to do, and before making an order under that subsection with respect to part of any such route the Minister of Transport shall consider any representations made to him by the Commission.

(4) The Council may from time to time construct and remove such barriers, footways and refuges as they think fit in connection with any restrictions imposed by virtue of subsection (2) of this section, and erect and remove such notices as the Minister of Transport may authorise calling attention to any restriction imposed as aforesaid or to the suspension of any right of way under subsection (1) of this section.

(5) Any authorisation under the last foregoing subsection may be given subject to conditions as to the lighting of the notice or otherwise.

(6) Anything constructed or erected by the Council under subsection (4) of this section shall, subject to the power of the Council to remove it, be maintained by the highway authority.

(7) Where it appears to the Minister of Transport that, by reason of any restriction imposed by virtue of subsection (2) of this section, it has become necessary with a view to facilitating the movement of vehicular traffic or the safety of the public to restrict the use by vehicular traffic of the whole or part of any street not mentioned in that subsection, he shall have the like power to make orders with respect thereto as if the street were so mentioned, but without the necessity for any application by the Council.

(8) Any person contravening any restriction imposed by virtue of subsection (2) or (7) of this section, or without lawful authority removing or interfering with anything constructed or erected under subsection (4) thereof, shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds for each offence.

(9) The powers conferred by section fifty-two of the Metropolitan Police Act, 1839, and section twenty-two of the City of London Police Act, 1839, on the commissioners of the metropolitan police and the City police to make regulations for routes to be observed and for preventing obstruction shall be exercisable as respects any part of the period for which the exhibition is open, and not only as respects times of public processions, public rejoicings or illuminations.

Car parks.

5.—(1) The Council may provide, maintain and manage such temporary car parks (whether for private cars or otherwise) in the administrative county of London as they think necessary or desirable in connection with the Festival, and may make and recover such reasonable charges as they think fit for the use of any car park provided by them under this section.

(2) The Council may execute such works as they think necessary or desirable for the purpose of preparing or maintaining the site of any such car park (including works for facilitating ingress and egress), and may provide and maintain such conveniences, employ such persons, do such acts and make and enforce such restrictions or conditions as they think necessary or desirable in the management of any such car park.

Any reference in this Act to a car park provided under this section shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include any works executed or conveniences provided in connection therewith.

(3) The Council may make and enforce bye-laws with respect to any car park provided under this section and for regulating the use of it and the conduct of persons using it; and for the purposes of section one hundred and forty-seven of the London Government Act, 1939, in its application to bye-laws under this subsection, the confirming authority shall be the Minister of Transport.

(4) The Council may set apart and use such part as they think fit of Clapham Common and the Geraldine Mary Harmsworth Park for the purpose of their powers under this section, so that the land set apart under this subsection does not in the case of Clapham Common exceed in the whole eight acres.

(5) All public rights over land set apart under the last foregoing subsection shall be temporarily suspended.

(6) The Council may also, by agreement, purchase or take on lease any land required by them for the purpose of their powers under this section and, subject to the following subsections, may be authorised by the Minister of Transport to purchase any such land compulsorily or without purchasing it to take any such land compulsorily for a period ending not later than the end of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

(7) The Acquisition of Land (Authorisation Procedure) Act, 1946, shall apply to the compulsory purchase or taking of land under the last foregoing subsection as if this section had been in force immediately before the commencement of that Act, but subject to the following modifications:—

- (a) section two (which confers temporary powers for the speedy acquisition of land in urgent cases) shall not apply;
- (b) any compulsory purchase order shall state whether the land is to be purchased absolutely or, if not, the period for which it is to be taken;
- (c) any such order may apply for the purposes thereof any of the provisions of the Third Schedule to this Act, with or without modification;
- (d) subject to the provisions of this section the said Act of 1946 shall apply to a taking otherwise than by way of absolute purchase as if the land were being purchased.

(8) Where any such order is made authorising the taking of land under this section otherwise than by way of absolute purchase—

- (a) the order may modify the operation in relation thereto of the Second Schedule to the said Act of 1946 (which incorporates the Lands Clauses Acts and other provisions usual on a compulsory purchase);
- (b) compensation shall be payable as it would be under the Compensation (Defence) Act, 1939, if the Council were acting on behalf of His Majesty in a case to which section two of that Act applied, except that the compensation shall be paid by the Council, and the said section two and, so far as applicable for the purposes of that section, sections seven to seventeen of that Act shall apply accordingly with the necessary modifications;
- (c) subsection (3) of section seventy-three of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1947 (which requires a determination of the amount of a development charge to be varied in certain cases), shall apply to any such determination relating to the land, with or without other land, as it applies where part of the land to which such a determination relates is compulsorily acquired.

(9) Nothing in subsection (6) of this section shall authorise the compulsory purchase or taking of any land to which subsection (2) of section one of the Acquisition of Land (Authorisation Procedure) Act, 1946, applies or of buildings which are of substantial construction and in a usable condition.

Duration and removal of temporary works, etc.

6.—(1) This Act, in so far as it provides for anything which is expressed to be temporary or to happen temporarily, shall authorise the interference with public and private rights only until the closing of the exhibition and during such further period as the Minister of Transport may by order allow to give time for the exercise of the powers of this section or otherwise for the removal of works constructed on the exhibition site for the purposes of the exhibition.

(2) The powers conferred by this Act to make and maintain temporary footbridges and temporary landing stages and to provide temporary car parks shall include power to take up and remove any works constructed for the purpose and to do such things as are reasonably necessary to reinstate or otherwise make good the site of any works so taken up.

(3) Paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 of the Third Schedule to this Act shall (so far as applicable) apply in relation to the taking up and removal of any works under this section as they apply in relation to the execution of the works authorised by section one of this Act, but with the substitution in the said paragraph 5 for references to the opening of a work for traffic of references to the completion of its removal.

(4) Different periods may be allowed by orders under subsection (1) of this section for different matters, and the period so allowed for any matter may be from time to time extended by a further order under that subsection.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be taken as limiting the period for which land may be purchased or taken for a car park under subsection (6) of the last foregoing section or as requiring the Council to remove any works from or otherwise to reinstate or make good any land so purchased or taken.

7.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, where any land for the time being held by the Council is used by them—

Modifications of Town and Country
Planning Act,
1947.

(a) for the purposes of any of their powers under section one or five of this Act ; or

(b) for the purposes of the exhibition traffic arrangements ;

or, in the case of land forming part of the exhibition site, is used by any person for the purposes of the exhibition, then, whether or not the land was on the appointed day under the Town and Country Planning Act, 1947, land to which section eighty-two of that Act applies, no development charge shall be payable under Part VII of that Act in respect of that use of the land or in respect of any operations carried out on the land in connection with that use.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this section, no development charge shall be payable as aforesaid in respect of operations carried out on any land, or of the use of any land, for the purposes of the Hungerford footbridge extension or of the tramways authorised by section one of this Act.

(3) Where section eighty-two of the said Act of 1947 applies to any land for the time being held by the Council, that section shall not cease to apply to the land by reason of its being put to any use to which either of the foregoing subsections applies.

(4) Permission shall be deemed for the purposes of the said Act of 1947 to have been granted under Part III thereof—

(a) for the carrying out of any operations and for any use of land to which subsection (1) or (2) of this section applies ; and

(b) for the railway works authorised by section one of this Act.

(5) Subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not apply to any use of land extending beyond the period hereinafter mentioned, and any permission deemed to have been granted by virtue of paragraph (a) of the last foregoing subsection shall be deemed to have been granted for a period limited accordingly.

(6) The period referred to in the last foregoing subsection shall expire at the closing of the exhibition, except in so far as it may from time to time be extended—

- (a) in relation to anything authorised by section one, four or five of this Act or in relation to anything done for the purposes of the exhibition traffic arrangements, by order of the Minister of Transport ;
- (b) in relation to anything else, by order of the Minister of Town and Country Planning.

(7) Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this section shall prevent the making at any time of an application for permission in respect of any operations or use to which subsection (1) or (2) of this section applies to be granted under Part III of the said Act of 1947 otherwise than for the limited period hereinbefore mentioned or, where application is so made, shall affect the operation of the said Act of 1947 in relation thereto.

Grants from Minister of Transport.

8.—(1) The Minister of Transport may, with the consent of the Treasury, make grants towards meeting—

- (a) any expenses incurred by or on behalf of the Commission and the Council respectively in or by reason of the exercise of the powers conferred on them by this Act ;
- (b) any other expenses incurred by or on behalf of the Council in connection with the exhibition traffic arrangements.

(2) Any grants under this section may be made subject to such conditions as the Minister of Transport with the approval of the Treasury may determine.

(3) Any expenses of the Minister of Transport under this section shall be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament.

Agreements between Commission, Council and others.

9.—(1) Any two or more of the following, that is to say, the Commission, the Council, the Westminster and Lambeth borough councils, the Port of London Authority, and any person who has the control or management of any water, gas or other pipes or electric or other wires or apparatus and is affected in relation thereto by the provisions of this Act, may enter into and carry into effect agreements with reference to those provisions:

Provided that this subsection shall not authorise the making of any agreement to which neither the Commission nor the Council is a party.

(2) Any such agreement entered into by the Commission or the Council may provide for any of the powers conferred by this Act on them to be exercised on their behalf by some other party to the agreement.

10.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in section four of this Act, any person to whom any apparatus situate in or under the parts of Belvedere Road, Upper Ground and Jenkins Street mentioned in that section belongs shall be afforded such facilities of access to the apparatus as may be reasonably required for the purpose of inspecting, maintaining or removing the apparatus.

Saving as respects Belvedere Road, Upper Ground and Jenkins Street for persons having statutory powers.

(2) In the foregoing subsection the expression "apparatus" means sewers, drains, culverts, water courses and mains, pipes, valves, tubes, cables, wires or other works or apparatus used for or in connection with the carrying, conveying or supplying of a supply of water or water for hydraulic power, gas or electricity or for telegraphic or other purposes.

11.—(1) In this section unless the context otherwise requires—

- (a) "the port authority" means the Port of London Authority;
- (b) "the river" means the part of the River Thames which is within the jurisdiction of the port authority and includes the bed, banks and shores thereof;
- (c) "the river works" means such part of any of the works authorised by section one of this Act as is situate in, on, over or under the river.

For protection of Port of London Authority.

(2) The river works shall be executed in accordance with plans and sections approved by the port authority before the works are commenced, and the under side of each navigation opening of the river footbridge shall be not less than twenty-five feet above the level of Trinity high water.

(3) The following provisions shall have effect with respect to the construction of the river works, that is to say—

- (a) the traffic of the river shall not be interfered with more than may be reasonably necessary;
- (b) such floating booms, if any, as the port authority may think necessary to secure safety of navigation shall be provided by the Council in accordance with plans approved by the port authority;

- (c) all piles and other works not forming part of any of the river works but placed in, on, over or under the river for the purpose of its construction shall be drawn from the river by the Council on or before the completion of the work or, if it is not reasonably practicable immediately to draw them from the river, shall be cut off at such level below the level of the bed of the river as the port authority may approve ;
- (d) the Council shall not, without the previous consent of the port authority—
 - (i) take any gravel, soil or other material from the river, except so far as may be necessary in the construction of the river works ; or
 - (ii) dredge any part of the river.

(4) Without prejudice to section six of this Act, the Council shall within the period allowed under that section completely remove any of the river works which is temporary, and any piles or other works placed in, on, over, or under the river for the purpose of constructing or removing it (including those cut off under the last foregoing subsection) ; and paragraphs (a), (b) and (d) of the last foregoing subsection shall apply in relation to the removal of the river works as they apply in relation to their construction.

(5) If the Council fail to remove any of the river works or to remove, draw or cut off any piles or other works as required by either of the last two foregoing subsections after receipt of a request in that behalf from the port authority, the port authority may do so and may dispose of any materials obtained by so doing.

(6) Owners and masters of vessels shall not be liable to make good damage caused to any of the river works, or to any piles or other works placed in, on, over, or under the river for the purpose of its construction or removal, except damage arising from the wilful act or default of such owners or masters or their servants or agents.

(7) The Council shall, during the construction of the river works, and during the subsequent repair and removal thereof, hang out and exhibit on or near to the works, and on the works when completed, every night from sunset to sunrise such lights (to be kept burning by and at the expense of the Council), and during every day such marks, as the port authority may think necessary to secure the safety of navigation, and the lights and marks shall be so placed and used as the port authority may from time to time approve ; and for any contravention of this subsection the Council shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

(8) Before applying to the Minister of Transport for him to approve a determination that a landing stage authorised by section one of this Act shall not be temporary, the Council shall give the port authority fourteen days' notice of their intention so to do, and before approving any such determination the Minister shall consider any representations made to him by the port authority.

(9) In respect of any such landing stage which is not temporary, the Council shall make to the port authority such payments as the port authority may require, being payments of the like nature as, and not exceeding, those which the port authority could have required as consideration for the grant of a licence to erect the landing stage under section two hundred and forty-three of the Port of London (Consolidation) Act, 1920, and the amount of that consideration shall be determined in accordance with section two hundred and fifty-four of that Act:

Provided that in determining the amount of that consideration regard shall be had to the public purposes for which the landing stage is made.

(10) The Council shall on demand pay to the port authority—

- (a) any expenses reasonably incurred by the port authority in carrying out a survey of the river in the vicinity of the site of any of the river works for the purpose of ensuring that subsection (4) of this section has been complied with ;
- (b) any expenses reasonably incurred by the port authority in the exercise of the powers conferred on the port authority by subsection (5) of this section less the value of any materials obtained by the port authority in the exercise of the powers ;
- (c) any expenses reasonably incurred by the port authority in altering, removing, repositioning and subsequently replacing any moorings and mooring chains, in such manner as the port authority think necessary or desirable by reason of the construction of the river works, and in any work of dredging which the port authority think necessary or desirable as aforesaid or otherwise in removing any silt which may have accumulated in the vicinity of any of the river works as the result of and during the existence thereof.

(11) Nothing in this Act shall authorise the Council to discharge or allow to escape either directly or indirectly into the river or its tributaries any offensive or injurious matter in suspension or otherwise, or shall affect the operation of sections two hundred and twenty-six to two hundred and thirty-nine of the Port of London (Consolidation) Act, 1920 (which relate to pollution).

(12) The port authority shall not unreasonably withhold any approval or consent required under this section, and where any plan, section or proposal requiring such approval or consent is delivered to the port authority the approval or consent shall be deemed to have been given if the port authority do not within one month of the delivery express their disapproval.

(13) Subject to the last foregoing subsection, any approval, disapproval, consent or request of the port authority under this section shall be in writing under the hand of their secretary or other authorised officer.

(14) Any difference arising between the Council and the port authority under this section (except subsection (9) thereof) shall be referred to and settled by a single arbitrator to be appointed in default of agreement by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers.

For protection of certain water, gas and hydraulic power

12.—(1) In this section unless the context otherwise requires—

- (a) “undertakers” means the Metropolitan Water Board, the North Thames Gas Board, the South Eastern Gas Board or the London Hydraulic Power Company;
- (b) “operators” means the Commission or Council, and references to the acts or defaults of the operators include the acts or defaults of their contractors, agents, workmen or servants or any person in their employ;
- (c) “apparatus” means any pipes, mains, siphons, plugs, wires or other works of the undertakers in or under any street;
- (d) “the authorised works” means the works authorised by section one of this Act;
- (e) “specified work” means such part of any of the authorised works as in its execution in or under any street will or may interfere with any apparatus;
- (f) “plans” means plans, sections or descriptions.

(2) At least fourteen days before commencing to execute any specified work the operators shall deliver to the undertakers plans of the specified work; and if it should appear to the undertakers that the specified work will interfere with or endanger their apparatus, or impede the supply of water, gas or hydraulic power, the undertakers may within fourteen days after the receipt by them of the plans give notice to the operators to lower or otherwise alter the position of such apparatus or to support the same or to substitute other apparatus in such manner as may be necessary.

(3) Where notice is given by the undertakers under the last foregoing subsection, the protective works required by the notice shall be done and executed by and at the expense of the operators, but to the satisfaction and under the superintendence of the engineer of the undertakers (if after notice given by the operators to the undertakers of the time and place of such execution the engineer chooses to attend), and the reasonable costs, charges and expenses of such superintendence shall be paid by the operators:

Provided that, if the undertakers by notice in writing to the operators within seven days after the receipt by the undertakers of notice of the intended commencement by the operators of the specified work so require, the undertakers may themselves do and execute such protective works, and the operators shall on the completion thereof pay to the undertakers the reasonable expenses incurred by them in the execution of such protective works.

(4) Where no notice is given by the undertakers under subsection (2) of this section with respect to any specified work, the work may be executed, but not otherwise than in accordance with the plans delivered under that subsection.

(5) The undertakers may if they deem fit employ watchmen or inspectors to watch and inspect any specified work during its execution, repair or renewal where any apparatus of the undertakers will be interfered with or affected thereby, and the reasonable wages of such watchmen or inspectors shall be borne by the operators and be paid by them to the undertakers.

(6) The operators shall indemnify the undertakers against all claims, demands, proceedings, costs, damages and expenses made or taken against or recovered from or incurred by the undertakers by reason or in consequence of any interruption in the supply of water, gas or hydraulic power by the undertakers which may, without the written authority of the undertakers, be in any way occasioned either by reason of the exercise by the operators of the powers of this Act relating to the authorised works, or by the acts or defaults (in or in connection with such exercise) of the operators; and the operators shall pay to the undertakers the value of any gas or water which the undertakers may lose by reason of the acts or defaults of the operators in the execution of any specified work.

(7) The reasonable expense of all repairs or renewals of any apparatus of the undertakers or any works in connection therewith which may at any time hereafter be rendered necessary either by reason of the exercise by the operators of the powers of this Act relating to the authorised works or by the acts or defaults

(in or in connection with such exercise) of the operators, or which may during the construction or within twelve months after the completion of any of the authorised works be rendered necessary by any subsidence resulting from that work, shall be borne and paid by the operators.

(8) Notwithstanding the stopping up of any street under the powers of paragraph 3 of the Third Schedule to this Act, the undertakers may exercise the same rights of access as they now enjoy to any apparatus of the undertakers (including apparatus not situate in or under a street):

Provided that, in exercising the rights of access saved by this subsection, the undertakers, their engineers or workmen or others in the employ of the undertakers shall not interrupt the execution, maintenance or use of any works of the operators by this or any other Act authorised, and the undertakers shall compensate the operators for any damage to such last mentioned works occasioned by the exercise of the said rights.

(9) The operators shall not in the execution of any specified work raise, sink or otherwise alter the position of any apparatus, or alter the level of any street in which such apparatus is situate, so as to leave over such apparatus in any part a covering of less than the existing covering or three feet, whichever may be the less, (unless the operators shall in such case protect such apparatus from injury by artificial covering to the reasonable satisfaction of the undertakers) or of more than the existing covering or five feet, whichever may be the greater.

(10) Any difference arising between the operators and the undertakers under this section shall be referred to and settled by a single arbitrator to be appointed in default of agreement by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers.

(11) In settling any question under this section an arbitrator shall have regard to any duties or obligations which the undertakers may be under in respect of their apparatus and to any duties or obligations which the operators may be under in respect of the specified work, and may if he thinks fit require the operators to execute any works so as to avoid so far as may be practicable interference with any purpose for which the apparatus of the undertakers is used.

Interpretation. 13.—(1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

“borough” means metropolitan borough, and “borough council” means the council of a borough;

“Commission” means the British Transport Commission and any reference to the Commission in relation to any functions of the Commission which are for the time being delegated to an Executive in pursuance of section five of the Transport Act, 1947, shall be construed as a reference to that Executive ;

“ Council ” means the London County Council ;

“ the deposited plans ”, “ the deposited sections ” and “ the deposited book of reference ” mean respectively the plans, sections and book of reference which were deposited with the clerk of the Council in connection with the Bill for this Act ;

“ the exhibition ” means the chief exhibition held or to be held on the south bank of the Thames as part of the Festival, and “ the exhibition site ” shall be construed accordingly ;

“ the exhibition traffic arrangements ” means traffic arrangements for facilitating the movement of vehicular traffic or the safety of the public, being arrangements certified by the Minister of Transport to be occasioned by the exhibition ;

“ the Festival ” means the Festival of Britain, 1951 ;

“ land ” or “ lands ” includes any interest in land and any easement or right in, to or over land.

(2) A reference in this Act to any enactment shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be taken as a reference to that enactment as amended, extended or applied by or under any other enactment, and in particular references to the Lands Clauses Acts or any enactment therein contained shall be taken as including a reference to any provisions modifying the said Acts or enactment which are contained in the Acquisition of Land (Assessment of Compensation) Act, 1919, or the Town and Country Planning Act, 1947.

(3) Except in so far as the contrary intention appears, the provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in any local or private Act or any order or instrument of local application which has effect by virtue of any Act.

(4) The powers conferred by this Act shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any powers of the Minister of Transport, the Commission or the Council apart from this Act.

14. This Act may be cited as the Public Works (Festival of Short title. Britain) Act, 1949.

THIRD SCHEDULE

Sections 3, 12.

ANCILLARY PROVISIONS AS TO EXECUTION OF WORKS AND ACQUISITION OF LAND

1.—(1) In this Schedule the expression “authorised works” means Preliminary.
the works authorised by section one of this Act, the expression “the Act of 1845” means the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and the expression “the tribunal” means the arbitrator or other authority to whom any question of disputed purchase money or compensation under section two of this Act is referred in pursuance of the Acquisition of Land (Assessment of Compensation) Act, 1919.

(2) Where, by this Schedule, any matter is directed to be referred to arbitration, the matter shall be referred to and settled by a single arbitrator to be agreed between the parties or, failing agreement, to be appointed on the application of either party, after notice in writing to the other, by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers.

2.—(1) If any omission, misstatement or wrong description of any land or of the owner, lessee or occupier of any land is found to have been made on the deposited plans or in the deposited book of reference, the Commission or Council, as the case may be, after giving ten days' notice to the owner, lessee and occupier of the land in question may apply to a metropolitan police magistrate for the correction thereof. Correction of errors in deposited plans and book of reference.

(2) If on any such application it appears to the magistrate that the omission, misstatement or wrong description arose from mistake, he shall certify the fact accordingly and shall in his certificate state the particulars of the omission or in what respect any matter is misstated or wrongly described.

(3) Any such certificate shall be deposited with the clerk of the Council, and a copy thereof shall be deposited with the town clerk of the borough in which the land in question is situated, and thereupon the deposited plans and book of reference shall be deemed to be corrected according to the certificate, and the Commission or Council may proceed accordingly.

(4) Any certificate or copy deposited under this paragraph with any person shall be kept by him with the other documents to which it relates.

3.—(1) The Commission or Council, as the case may be, may for the purposes of and during the execution of any of the authorised works stop up, interfere with, alter or divert temporarily all or any part of the carriage way or footway of any street or part of a street within the limits of deviation shown on the deposited plans for that work and may execute and do all necessary works and things for or in connection with such stopping up, interference, alteration or diversion and for keeping such carriage way or footway open for traffic, and may after consultation with the Commissioner of Police for the metropolis remove or alter any drinking troughs, lamp posts, street refuges, lavatories, posts and other erections upon the said lands. Power to stop up ways temporarily.

(2) The Commission or Council shall provide reasonable access for all persons bona fide going to or from any premises in any street of which the carriage way or footway is stopped up, interfered with, altered or diverted under the powers of this paragraph.

(3) The Commission may also for the purposes of and during the execution of any of the authorised works at Charing Cross underground station stop up temporarily the stairway giving access from Victoria Embankment to Hungerford footbridge.

Use of sewers
water.

4.—(1) The Commission or Council, as the case may be, may use for the discharge of any water pumped or found by them during the execution of any of the authorised works any available stream or watercourse or any sewer or drain of the Council or of any borough council, and for that purpose may lay down, take up and alter conduits, pipes and other works and make any convenient connections with any such stream, watercourse, sewer or drain within the limits of deviation shown on the deposited plans for that work.

(2) The Commission or Council shall not under this paragraph make any opening into any sewer or drain not vested in them save in accordance with plans reasonably approved by and under the superintendence of the council in whom the sewer or drain is vested.

(3) Any question or difference arising under the last foregoing sub-paragraph shall be referred to arbitration.

Underpinning of houses near works.

5.—(1) Where it is necessary to underpin or otherwise strengthen any house or building within one hundred feet of any of the authorised works in order to avoid injury to the house or building from the execution or use of that work, the Commission or Council, as the case may be, (subject to the following sub-paragraphs) may, and if required by the owners or lessees of the house or building shall, at their own costs and charges underpin or otherwise strengthen it.

(2) Any person acting on behalf of the Commission or Council and duly authorised in writing in that behalf may at all reasonable times enter on any land for the purpose of examining a house or building as to the necessity of underpinning or strengthening it under this paragraph or as to the manner in which it should be underpinned or strengthened:

Provided that no land shall be entered under this sub-paragraph unless the Commission or Council, as the case may be, not less than twenty-four hours before the first entry and not less than twelve hours before any subsequent entry have given notice in writing to the owners, lessees and occupiers of the land.

(3) At least ten days' notice shall (except in case of emergency) be given to the owners, lessees and occupiers or by the owners or lessees where any house or building is intended or required to be underpinned or otherwise strengthened under this paragraph.

(4) If any owner, lessee or occupier of any house or building or the Commission or Council, as the case may be, within seven days after the giving of notice under the last foregoing sub-paragraph gives a counternotice in writing disputing the necessity of the underpinning or strengthening, the question of the necessity shall be referred to arbitration.

(5) Any notice under this paragraph if given by the Commission or Council shall be served in manner prescribed by section nineteen of the Act of 1845 and if given to the Commission or Council shall be sent to their principal office.

3RD SCH.

(6) Where a question is referred to arbitration under sub-paragraph (4) of this paragraph, the arbitrator shall forthwith upon the application of either party proceed to inspect the house or building and determine the matter referred to him, and in the event of his deciding that the underpinning or strengthening is necessary he may, and if so required by the owner, lessee or occupier shall, prescribe the mode in which it shall be executed, and the Commission or Council may and shall proceed forthwith so to underpin or strengthen the house or building.

(7) The Commission or Council shall not be entitled or required to exercise the powers of this paragraph in connection with any work after the expiration of twelve months from the opening of that work for traffic but, subject to that, shall be entitled and may be required to exercise those powers in relation to any house or building, notwithstanding that it has already been underpinned or strengthened in the exercise of those powers.

(8) The Commission or Council, as the case may be, shall be liable to compensate the owners, lessees and occupiers of any house or building for any loss or damage which may result to them by reason of the exercise in relation thereto of the powers granted by this paragraph, if the claim for compensation in respect of the loss or damage is made within three months from the occurrence thereof.

(9) Where any house or building is underpinned or strengthened under the powers of this paragraph, and within twelve months from the opening for traffic of the work in connection with which the underpinning or strengthening is done the underpinning or strengthening proves inadequate for the support or protection of the house or building against further injury arising from the execution or use of the work, the Commission or Council shall make compensation to the owner, lessee and occupier of the house or building for the injury, if the claim for compensation in respect of the injury is made within one month from the discovery thereof.

(10) Nothing in this paragraph nor any dealing with any property in pursuance of this paragraph shall relieve the Commission or Council from the liability to compensate under section sixty-eight of the Act of 1845 or any other provision.

(11) Every case of compensation to be ascertained under this paragraph shall be ascertained according to the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts.

6.—(1) Section ninety-two of the Act of 1845 shall not apply and in lieu thereof the following sub-paragraphs shall have effect.

Acquisition of part only of certain properties.

(2) No person shall be required under section two of this Act to sell a part only of any house, building or factory if he is willing and able to sell the whole of the house, building or factory unless the tribunal determines that such part as is proposed to be taken can be taken without material detriment to the house, building or factory.

(3) If the tribunal determines as aforesaid, compensation shall be awarded in respect of any loss due to the severance of the part proposed to be taken in addition to the value of that part and thereupon the person interested shall be required to sell to the Commission or Council that part of the house, building or factory.

3RD SCH.

Power to acquire easements only. 7.—(1) In lieu of acquiring any land that may be acquired under section two of this Act the Commission or Council may for the purpose of any of the authorised works acquire such easements and rights in that land as they may require for that purpose.

(2) Accordingly they may give notice to treat in respect of any such easement or right, describing the nature thereof, and the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts shall apply in relation to the acquisition of such easements and rights as if they were lands within the meaning of those Acts.

(3) Where the Commission or Council have acquired an easement or right only in any land under this paragraph—

(a) they shall not be required or be (except by agreement) entitled to fence or sever that land from the adjoining land;

(b) the owner or occupier of the land for the time being shall, subject to the easement or right, have the same right to use the land as if this Act had not been passed.

(4) If in his particulars of claim the owner of any land in respect of which notice to treat for an easement or right is given under this paragraph requires the Commission or Council, as the case may be, to acquire the land, they shall not be entitled under this section to acquire the easement or right unless the tribunal determines that the easement or right can be granted without material detriment to the land.

(5) A notice to treat given under this paragraph shall be endorsed with notice of the effect of sub-paragraph (4) thereof.

Grant of easements by persons under disability.

8.—(1) Any person empowered by the Lands Clauses Acts to sell, convey or release lands may, if he thinks fit, subject to the provisions of those Acts, grant to the Commission or Council any easement or right, in, over or affecting any such lands which is required by them for the purpose of any of the authorised works.

(2) The provisions of the said Acts with respect to lands and rent charges so far as they are applicable shall extend and apply to any such grant and to any such easement or right as aforesaid.

Power to expedite entry.

9. At any time after serving a notice to treat in respect of any land that may be acquired by them compulsorily under section two of this Act, but not less than one month after giving the owner and occupier of the land notice in writing of their intention to exercise the powers of this paragraph, the Commission or Council, as the case may be, may enter on and take possession of the land or such part thereof as is specified in the last mentioned notice without previous consent and without compliance with sections eighty-four to ninety of the Act of 1845:

Provided that the Commission or Council, as the case may be, shall pay the like compensation for land of which possession is taken under this paragraph and the like interest on the compensation awarded as would have been payable if the provisions of those sections had been complied with.

10.—(1) Any person acting on behalf of the Commission or Council and duly authorised in writing in that behalf may at all reasonable times enter on any land that may be acquired compulsorily by them under section two of this Act for the purpose of surveying or valuing the land: 3RD SCH.
—cont.
Power to enter for survey or valuation.

Provided that no land shall be entered under this paragraph unless the Commission or Council, as the case may be, not less than twenty-four hours before the first entry and not less than twelve hours before any subsequent entry have given notice in writing to the owner and occupier of the land in manner provided by section one hundred and eighty-three of the London Government Act, 1939.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph, the said section one hundred and eighty-three shall apply in relation to the Commission as it applies in relation to the Council.

11.—(1) All private rights of way over any lands which may be acquired compulsorily by the Commission or Council under section two of this Act shall as from the acquisition of the lands by them (whether compulsorily or by agreement) be extinguished: Extinction of private rights of way.

Provided that in the case of lands acquired by the Council, the Council may by resolution exclude the application of this sub-paragraph in any particular case to such extent as may be provided by the resolution.

(2) The Commission or Council shall make compensation to all parties interested in respect of any private right of way extinguished by virtue of this paragraph, and such compensation shall be settled in manner provided by the Lands Clauses Acts with reference to the taking of lands otherwise than by agreement.

12. In determining any question of disputed compensation or purchase money in respect of land acquired under section two of this Act the tribunal shall not take into account— Disregard of recent improvements and interests.

- (a) any improvement or alteration made or building erected after the nineteenth day of January, nineteen hundred and forty-nine; or

- (b) any interest in the land created after the said date;

which in the opinion of the tribunal was not reasonably necessary and was made, erected or created with a view to obtaining or increasing the compensation or purchase money.

13.—(1) The Council may—

- (a) retain and hold or use for such time as they think fit (making any adjustments in their accounts in consequence of such use); or

- (b) demise, lease or let for any term or (subject or not as the case may be to any such demise, lease or letting) sell and convey or exchange for other lands in the administrative county of London, either with or without paying or receiving any money for equality of exchange; or

(c) grant any easements, rights or privileges in, under or over; any land acquired by them under section two of this Act or taken in exchange under the powers of this paragraph, and may do any act or thing requisite or proper for any of the purposes aforesaid.

Sale or leasing etc., of lands.

3RD SCH.
—cont.

(2) Any such sale, conveyance, demise, lease, letting or exchange may be made at such price or rent (including a peppercorn rent) or for such consideration, and may be subject to such restrictions, conditions and stipulations (whether as to the title to be deduced to such land or as to the nature of the buildings at any time erected or to be erected thereon or as to the use or enjoyment thereof or otherwise), and may be effectuated in one or more parcels or lots and either by public auction or private contract, as the Council think reasonable; and any restriction, condition or stipulation contained in any deed or instrument entered into or made under this paragraph may at all times thereafter be enforced by the Council for the benefit of the Council or of any person entitled to other property adjoining or held under title derived from the Council.
